Open up your HEART
sometime and take a look to see what's inside.
Let's see, what do we have in there?
Quite frankly,
that heart's a JUNK
room! It's trash pick-up day for all the junk in your heart.

For the People

Salt for the Week

"For where your treasure is, there also your heart will be."

What's in your heart these days? If yours is anything like mine, there are lots and lots of conflicting emotions and thoughts. In times such as these, whether in the Church, the United States, the world or our personal families, we come face to face with all that we hold dear. Our values, our rights and our liberties, are all up for examination... and maybe they should be.

In the last sentence of today's gospel Jesus says: "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." Without a doubt we have been entrusted with much. But so often we either fall into a fearful state of wringing our hands, or we become cold-hearted, negative and judgmental. Neither is the way of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

As our nation struggles with rights and justice and laws and consequences, let's examine our hearts. We have seen perpetrators whose hearts are full of hate and hopelessness. What's in my heart? In what or whom do we place our highest values? Whatever we do we must do it together, remember? "One nation, under God, indivisible. With liberty and justice for all." Will this be our treasure? Is that what's in your heart?

Peace.

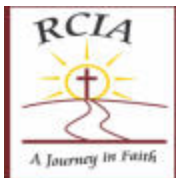

Please keep Father Steve Lundgren (former pastor for St. Mark and St. Patrick) in your thoughts and prayers. He has been experiencing some serious health issues, including some paralysis. If you wish to send him a card, his address is Father Steve Lundgren; 255 E Avenida Grande, #811; Palm Springs, CA 92264.

START YOUR HOMEWORK! National Back to Church Sunday is September 14-15! Begin thinking now about who to invite to church and into fellowship in the Emmaus Pastorate. These include:

- * Anyone who used to go to church but (for whatever reason) is no longer active...
- * Those who have no spiritual home or affiliation with any church...
- * Those who are alone or lonely, and not a part of much of anything...
- * Family members or friends who have old hurts or resentments...
- * New people who moved into the area...
- * Young families not yet connected...
- * Your older children or even spouses!

WHAT TO DO? Pray for guidance and ideas and ask God to open their hearts to an invitation. Begin having conversations—this is more than just “going to church”; it is having a concern for their souls, about having a relationship with Jesus. You don’t have to do it all—but Christ does need you to invite them into a deeper relationship.

The Emmaus Pastorate RCIA Program is gearing up. If you know of someone who has been thinking about joining the Catholic faith, encourage them to call us at the Pastorate office (563-928-7200).

Thank You for your warm welcome to me in my recent visit to your parishes. I enjoyed being with you. If you still want to help us out at St. Stephen the Witness, you can give online at ststephenuni.org. I am deeply grateful for your help in our mission to serve our students at UNI. Father Jon Seda

THE POWER OF DAILY MASS

BY BERT GHEZZI

REFLECTIONS OF DAILY ATTENDEES

"In time of need or worry there is always a word of comfort from the daily scripture. As the Lord says, 'Come to me all you who labor and are overburdened and I will give you rest.' It's remarkable how the daily readings correlate to your daily situations."

Rosary for Peace—We are all shocked by the continuing instances of mass shootings in our country. Many of us react with feelings of helplessness. We are not helpless in facing this evil. Good will always win over evil, but we have to increase the presence of goodness in the world. One way we can do that is through prayer. St. Mark's weekly devotion, Rosary for Peace, was started in response to the shooting in Las Vegas two years ago. Our numbers are small, but we stubbornly continue because we believe we're making a difference. We begin our prayer at 11:30 a.m. on Thursdays. Join us!

Don't forget that there are Prayer Intention candles available (offering—$5 per week), if you wish to prayer for a special intention. Stop by the office and ask one of the staff to light a candle for you.

St. Mark (Continued)

The St. Mark Pastoral and Finance Councils have agreed to purchase the property currently owned by Nathan and Kari Erickson (northwest of the church) at a cost of $75,000. A specific plan for the property has not been determined but the councils wanted to have the lot available for possible future projects. Properties like this do not come up for sale very often so we felt we needed to act when the opportunity presented itself. You recently received a pledge card for this project. Please return the card in the collection basket OR to the parish office by August 18. Thank you for supporting our parish!
