PROFESSION OF FAITH

I BELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, MAKER OF HEAVEN AND EARTH, OF ALL THINGS VISIBLE AND INVISIBLE.

I BELIEVE IN ONE LORD JESUS CHRIST, THE ONLY BEGOTTEN SON OF GOD, BORN OF THE FATHER BEFORE ALL AGES. GOD FROM GOD, LIGHT FROM LIGHT, TRUE GOD FROM TRUE GOD, BEGOTTEN, NOT MADE, CONSUBSTANTIAL WITH THE FATHER; THROUGH HIM ALL THINGS WERE MADE. FOR US MEN AND FOR OUR SALVATION HE CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN,

AT THE WORDS THAT FOLLOW, UP TO AND INCLUDING AND BECAME MAN, ALL BOW.
AND BY THE HOLY SPIRIT, WAS INCARNATE OF THE VIRGIN MARY, AND BECAME MAN.

FOR OUR SAKE HE WAS CRUCIFIED UNDER PONTIUS PILATE, HE SUFFERED DEATH AND WAS BURIED, AND ROSE AGAIN ON THE THIRD DAY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SCRIPTURES. HE ASCENDED INTO HEAVEN AND IS SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND OF THE FATHER. HE WILL COME AGAIN IN GLORY TO JUDGE THE LIVING AND THE DEAD AND HIS KINGDOM WILL HAVE NO END.

Profession of Faith

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Reflection for the Gospel of July 12

Today's Gospel marks the beginning of the third long discourse given by Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew. Over the next few weeks, the Gospel readings will consist of the entire 13th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel, a lengthy teaching discourse.

Throughout this discourse, Jesus will offer several parables to illustrate for his listeners what he means by the kingdom of heaven. He begins with the parable of the sower, which appears rather straightforward—of course seeds grow best in good soil. Seeds that miss the soil, are sown on rocky ground, or are sown among other plants will not grow. The surprise in the parable is the enormous yield of the seed that is sown on good soil.
Jesus then explains his use of parables. Jesus seems to suggest that he uses parables to teach because the meanings of parables are not self-evident. The hearer must engage in some degree of reflection in order to comprehend the message of a parable. In this way, the medium—the parable—models the point of the parable of the sower. Those who are willing to engage themselves in the effort to understand will be rewarded by the discovery of the message and will bear fruit.

To bring home the point, Jesus interprets the parable of the sower to his disciples. The different types of soil in which the seeds are sown are metaphors for the disposition with which each individual hears the teaching about the kingdom of heaven. Some will be easily swayed away from the kingdom of heaven. Some will receive it for a time but will lose it when faced with difficulties. Some will hear the word but will then permit other cares to choke it out. Yet some will receive it well, and the seed will produce abundant fruit.

(Father John is on retreat this week so we take our reflection from the Loyola Press.)

The recent scripture readings and homilies talk about rest. It is hard to rest when we see the growing number of Americans admitted to hospitals with Covid-19 and hear the dire predictions of possible things to come. So how do we find rest? How can we loosen the yoke that is pinching us and putting permanent marks on us? Many people carry many, many burdens and marks. Almost every facet of life struggles in some way:

- Teachers defining the school schedule for this fall.
- Health care workers caring for an increasing number of patients.
- Restaurant and store owners grappling with what to do and not do to remain open.
- Priests studying how to assure spiritual messages get to all those in need.
- Farmers determining how best to proceed.
- Mental health professionals challenging the system to identify and care for all those in need.
- Kids wanting to see their friends.
- Grandparents struggling to remain positive without seeing family and friends.
- Parents wondering how all of this will sort out so they can assure their kids get an education and parents maintain their job.

This sounds far from restful. But Matthew 11:25-30 tells us where to find rest. Jesus calls us to Him—if you ask, He will help you find rest. Read this passage and pray for easier yokes and lightened burdens.

Sacred Heart Parish in Volga is sponsoring a "To Go" egg casserole fund-raiser. All casseroles are to be picked up on August 9, from 9:00-10:00 a.m., unless otherwise pre-arranged. Since we are not having our picnic this year to help raise funds for our new furnace and air conditioners, we had to come up with some creative fund-raiser. Each 9" baked egg casserole order will include four muffins and a choice of sausage, ham or meatless (has veggies of peppers and mushrooms). Order yours frozen or ready to heat and eat. The cost is $15 per casserole.

Visit the Emmaus Pastorate website—vibrantcatholic.com—select Sacred Heart—to locate the order form. Mail completed form and payment to: Sacred Heart; PO Box 135; Volga, IA 52077. You may also order by calling Linda Deutsch (563-774-2360) and pay when you pick up your casserole. Forms will also be available at the church and in our mailbox outside.

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through tradition of papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents. The depth and richness of this tradition can be understood best through a direct reading of these documents. In these brief reflections, we wish to highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition.

Our discussion this week is "The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers." The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected—the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization or joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative. Our topic for next week will be "Solidarity."

Stewardship—May our stewardship of time, talent and treasure show us to be among those who have heard the message of Christ and taken it in, yielding a hundred—or sixty—or thirty-fold!

Our Sympathy and Prayers to~

- The family of Harry Kelleher who passed away June 23, in San Diego, California. Harry was born and raised in the Elkader-Volga area. After moving to California, Harry would periodically return to this area and would attend Mass at St. Joseph.

Community VBS is a combined effort of St. Mark and Trinity United Methodist churches.
