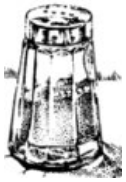
Seeing and Being Seen—The story of the small tax collector, Zacchaeus, who climbed a tree in order to see Jesus, has a surprising twist. Even before Zacchaeus could make himself obvious, Jesus had already seen him. That's always the way it is. God is quicker than our heavy hearts, our slow minds, and our dull wishes. We don't have to dance some kind of dance in order to get his attention and make him interested in us. He sees us, and knows us, and loves us out of billions of people, with a love that comes from eternity.

We're Glad You're Here

Salt for the Weak



Zacchaeus was a short guy who knew his limitations and he adapted. Oddly enough, the people around him were the ones who were "short-sighted"! Zacchaeus got the short end of the stick socially because he was a tax collector, and, therefore, a wealthy man. Except his encounter with Jesus totally transformed his life through a change in outlook. Everyone else (society) judged him because of his past, and judged Jesus because He reached out to the little guy. It was through this transformation that Zacchaeus became worthy of his calling, through the grace of God. No matter our stature in the world, it is Christ who either lifts us up or cuts us down to size. Thank God.

Some great reflection questions are…

1. Zacchaeus ran out ahead, made an extra effort to see Jesus. Do I make the extra effort to see Jesus? To see Him in prayer? To encounter Him at Mass and by receiving the Eucharist? Do I make the extra effort to see Him in other people or do I judge them?

2. Do I pray to have Christ heal my short-sightedness? To change my heart, my attitude, my mind about long-held prejudices?

3. Zacchaeus was totally changed because of his encounter with Jesus. What difference has Jesus made in my life? Has Jesus made ANY difference in my life, or do I just continue with the "same old, same old?"

4. Today I will pray: "Lord, with your grace, make me worthy of my calling and bring to fulfillment every good purpose for which I have been born. Amen."

The next Emmaus Pastorate Baptism Class will be held November 16 at 6:00 p.m., at St. Mary Parish Apartment. Classes are open to all parents of the Emmaus Pastorate. If it has been more than 18 months since your last class, call the Pastorate office (563-928-7200) to get on the schedule.

October is RESPECT LIFE Month!

Life Is For Everyone!

Nothing is more precious or sacred than our gift of life. If you have ever had the sacred chance to be with someone when they died, you understand that. That life, that holiness, has its genesis at the moment we are conceived. Far more than "pro-birth," our Catholic church teaching reminds us of the seamless garment of life, we are pro "all life"!

The Unborn
The Newborn
The Chronically or Terminally Ill
The Immigrant
The Aged

The Convicted From a moral and philosophical perspective, we cannot say life is sacred in several venues, but then declare life is no longer sacred in another. While there are many strong emotions and attitudes towards convicted felons and murderers, God alone judges. Our teaching on "womb to tomb" includes these persons as well. Some argue that a life sentence is the most just result of their actions. For an end to violence and prison reform, we pray.

Dynamic Prayer meets people where they are and leads them one step closer to God with each encounter. The Rosary is a powerful form of dynamic prayer. It is ever fresh, ever new, and, like a faithful friend, is patient with us, encourages us to grow, challenges us to change, and comforts us in times of doubt, discouragement, and confusion. It is also arranged around a process that constantly transforms us into more of who God created us to be. At the same time, because of the way it invites us to reflect on how the prayers and mysteries relate to our own lives, it is deeply personal.

For Your Prayer and Reflection
31st Sunday in Ordinary Time—
Consider all the things in your life for which you are grateful: the gift of life; your parents; your family; the many blessings you have received. Then consider the ways God has guided your life. Be sure to express your thanksgiving.
I Pray: Lord Jesus, thank You for the many blessings with which You have filled my life, but most especially for the gift of receiving You in Holy Communion today and every time I come to Mass.* taken from Meditations after Holy Communion, Fr. Edward Looney, Sophia Press.

St. Mark/St. Patrick Christmas Angels—Christmas is for Kids is a local group that's been helping families since 1986. Over the years, we've helped make the holidays brighter for hundreds of children. Make checks payable to "UMC Christmas is for Kids" and drop off or mail to Community Savings Bank, Attn: Jess Aulwes, PO Box 77, Edgewood, IA 52042. Care Notes—Each church recently received new Care Notes. Be sure and look them over. We have expanded the topics to include booklets not offered in the past. Bereavement articles; Healing Your Mind, Body and Spirit; Giving Your Worries to God; Overcoming the Anxiety You Feel During an Illness; Understanding the Healing Power of Prayer; and Coping with Chronic Pain are a few of the new topics. Look around to find them. These are great gifts to give those struggling with life. They can give hope to someone suffering. We would like to see you find help not only for yourself but for those around you.

St. Mary Strawberry Point Giving Tree—
St. Mary will be gathering Christmas gifts for Starmont students. On November 14, the giving tree with student names and gifts needed will be put up in the Church entry.

The Holy Rosary—Satan always tries to destroy this power [the rosary], but he will never succeed. It is the prayer of her who triumphs over everything and everyone. Love the Blessed Mother and make her loved. Always say the rosary.
St. Pio of Pietrelcina (Padre Pio) 1887-1968

St. Luke Evangelist (First Century)—St. Luke was the author of one of the four Gospels as well as the Acts of the Apostles. From references in the letters of St. Paul, it would appear that St. Luke was a Gentile Christian who accompanied Paul on many of his journeys and who attended him faithfully during his final days of imprisonment. In one letter, Paul refers to "Luke, the beloved physician," a phrase that has prompted the traditional depiction of Luke as a doctor.
Luke's Gospel is marked by a special concern for the poor, the marginalized, women, and social outcasts. His account of the Nativity, with its stress on the faith of Mary, emphasizes the humbleness of Jesus' birth and its significance in fulfilling the hopes of the poor. It is in Luke's Gospel that Jesus preaches "Blessed are the poor" and where we find the parable of the rich man and the poor beggar Lazarus, offering such a striking image of the relation between mercy and justice in this life and in the life to come.
Of all the evangelists, Luke had the most vital sense of God's presence in ongoing history. That is why his story does not end with the resurrection of Jesus but continues with Pentecost, the missionary journeys of Paul, and the ongoing story of Christ's presence in the life of the Church and in the midst of the world.

Sacred Heart Sends A Special Thank You to the Parish Council for the wonderful hot breakfast served on October 23; it was delicious. Money was collected for the Milk Project and donations totaled $310. How awesome. Thank you to all for your donation.

Sacred Heart Trunk and Treat Event—Thank you to Amy Pope for organizing this event. We had about 26 tricksters and several trunks. Each vehicle received a paper on a saint, and we read a brief bio about the saint, and the children had two questions they had to find the answer to. What a wonderful way to combine fun with learning.

Sacred Heart Parish Life Meeting will be held on Thursday, November 3, at 6:00 p.m. to finalize everything for the November 8 Soup Supper. Plan to attend; many hands make light work. We will need help on Monday as well as Tuesday, so if you can give a few hours to help, how wonderful.

Don't Forget—St. Joseph Crafters Sale andKnights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast is this Sunday, October 30, from 7:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.in St. Joseph Catholic Church Hall. There will be a quilt raffle, many crafts, a bake sale, and more. Please support this great event.

Pray for Peace in Ukraine!

All Souls Day—Around October 31, European Catholics had a tradition of children visiting houses, begging for treats. While the modern tradition of trick-or-treating is focused on giving children candy for no apparent reason, it is in fact based on an earlier tradition from European Catholics.

November 2 is known in the Catholic Church as "All Souls Day," and is dedicated to praying for the souls in purgatory. On this day Catholics pray for their deceased relatives and friends, often visiting cemeteries to remember those who are no longer on this earth.

It is with this celebration that many local traditions were created and became mingled with the festivities of All Hallows' Eve when immigrants started establishing themselves in the United States.

Souling—In various cultures in Europe there developed a tradition of "souling" and baking "soul cakes" in honor of the faithful departed. These cakes were baked on All Hallows' Eve (October 31) and children would go out on All Saints Day and All Souls Day, begging door-to-door for these cakes in exchange for praying for deceased relatives and friends.

Eventually this tradition was morphed in America with other customs, and after candy manufacturers caught wind of it, the holiday was monetized and developed into what it is today.

As in so many other cases, the religious origins have turned into something quite different and trick-or-treating is now entirely removed from praying for the deceased.
