In Gratitude

As the Christmas season comes to a close with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord—and we return to Ordinary Time until Lent—I want to take a moment and some space to express my sincere appreciation to everyone who participated in making the Church look, feel and sound so beautiful during our Christmas celebrations:

Flowers and decorations—there are many people who give of their time and talent to see to it that the church, atrium, vestibule and Russell Hall are bedecked to celebrate the Nativity of the Lord. From the flowers that surround and enlivened the sanctuary, the Christmas Trees, wreaths and garland, to the welcoming, greetings and music. I need to thank Janet Fischer, Ale Palomo, Kathy Moore who makes and cares for the altar linens, Marghan Pendergast, Bernie Slattery, Barbara Hopkins, Terry Longo, Marlena Snecinski, Mike Grappone, Juan Palomo, Matias Palomo, Matthew Harvill, Christopher Harvill, and Will Pendergast—and Julia McCabe who did a broad in-store and on-line search for the perfect white doves on the wreaths for all the beautiful decorations.

Music and Musicians—Susan Zybert, our music director, under who's leadership we hear beautiful and always appropriate selections of sacred hymns and Christmas songs at all of our liturgies, comprised of hours and hours of planning work and musical practices with the choirs and cantors, and musicians. The choir members—adult, children and contemporary—themselves and musicians such as trumpeter Dan Luddy, violinist Michael Winer, percussionist Ed Wrobel, flautist Andrea Wlochowski, accompanist Mercedes Featherstone and leader and accompanist Nicole Levesque for the uplifting music and songs

Altar Servers, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors and Ushers—who in harmony bring about the smooth expression of the Rites of the Mass. It is important that for the Mass to be fully expressed as offered by Christ and His Church we have well-trained and committed servers—and St. Catherine of Siena is abundantly blessed in this important celebration. If mentioned by name I'd need two more pages...

The Liturgy Committee—a wonderful group of committed lay people who throughout the course of the year and in all the Seasons of the Church plan and execute the Sacred Rites that comprise our liturgical celebrations. Their time and talent throughout the year is greatly appreciated: Kathi Bonner, Susan Zybert, Janet Fischer, Bernie Slattery, Barbara Hopkins, Ale Palomo, and Marghan Pendergast.

Our Parishioners—who attend the Masses, support the Church with their treasure as well as their time and talents make this a vibrant and growing parish, a parish that is alive in it's praise and worship, both in Word and deeds, to give honor and glory to God. I wish I could name you each—but then the bulletin would become a “weighty tome” and might come across as a wee-bit prideful.

Thank you one-and-all for picking up the mantle of Baptism, for being a disciple of Christ and for being a partner in God's Plan of Salvation, enabling His Love to unfold in your marriages, families, our community and beyond! Blessings for a grand 2020!

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Today we conclude, with Vespers, the Christmas Season's and begin our entrance into Ordinary Time, where the color green replaces the white vestments of Christmastime and all the flowers and the colorful explosion of festivities that is Christmas. In this last feast of Christmastime, we hear in the words of Isaiah the importance of the call of Baptism—and Isaiah's ancient words should both resonate with us today and be of equal if not greater applicability to our modern lives.

In our first reading we hear these powerful words from the prophet: “I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.”

In this we hear that our God is connected to us and holds us, as the prayer goes, “in the palm of His hands.” For us today, we can take this meaning to extend to the Sacrament of Baptism, where we know that on that day of the Sacrament God is not loving us for the first time but that He already knows us—and loved us—before we were formed in our mother's womb. But on our baptism, we are given an indelible mark, a supernatural grace from God that enables us, when formed in faith especially by our parents and family that we able to freely choose to

Fr. Michael continued. ..love God back through the way we “minister to Him as we minister to others.” (EPII) God holds our hands.

Holding hands can be both reassuring and uncomfortable. Think of the first time you held your date’s hand or when you were unexpectedly asked to hold someone’s hand during the Our Father at Mass? Or, think back to when you were a little child and someone grasped your hand to walk you across a busy street or along the route to school? One is oddly uncomfortable, the other very reassuring. Now think how our loving God takes hold of our hands, walks with us on our faith journey, calls us to be His adopted daughter or son, and invites us to partner with Him in carrying for one who is hungry and without food, wandering without shelter, or feels abandoned in the midst of loss and grief. Isaiah reminds us that God is with us—He is Emmanuel, God with us until the end of the age.

Today the Lord Himself is baptized by John and the Holy Spirit—God anoints Him and calls Him to spread the Gospel of Salvation to the whole world (known world at that time) and now with the gift of Baptism given to us all, as we are now called—by Baptism—to spread the gift of salvation, the Good News of the Gospel to our known world—in our time and place.

How do we understand the Sacrament of Baptism? What is its meaning in our faith and to what are we commanded to do? From my personal experience as a priest, for some it is a ritual, basically cute and something done to please “nana or gampy or mom or dad—or maybe to make sure the child can one day be married in the Church.” For many it is a deeply spiritual and meaning Sacrament meant to enable the child to one day grow closer to God and to serve God in-and-through the Church so that the gift of eternal life is made more real (not that we “earn” heaven but that in choosing and following Christ we align our wills to His Will and so carry out His righteous mission in our families, the Church and community. In the Acts of the Apostles reading today we hear Peter instruct us that the Word of God sent to Israel informs us “...that beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.” Indeed God was (is) with Him and He is with us after our baptism, we are also called to “do good” in His Name by following His teachings given to us in Baptism and from our parents, who truly form us in the Faith. At the end of the Rite of Baptism, the priest concludes the ritual with three (3) brief prayers, the first two (2) are over the parents and end with the parents being reminded that “they are the first of teachers in the ways of faith, and may they be the best of teachers by what they say and do.” This is how the family, comprised of a mother and father, are so important as they represent the fullness of God, both male and female, and from each we learn different yet vital things which make us fully human. And being fully human we are then, with God’s Divine Grace, are able to accept the challenge of faith and in the “doing good” by our lives we image the fullness of God Himself. Baptism—something amazingly powerful and enriching—something eternally important.

STUDY GUIDE TO JOHN PAUL II'S LETTER TO WOMEN

This is perhaps our most popular and foundational study for women first experiencing Endow. Answering many questions for modern Catholic woman, this letter, written for the occasion of the 1995 Fourth United Nations Conference on Women, acquaints us with the thoughts of Pope St. John Paul II and is a good introduction to the Christian concept of woman and her indispensable role in the Church, the family, society, and the world.

the admission process and pick up a few more applications from eighth graders who may just be hearing about Xavier and the possibilities that await them here. Come see what Xavier offers and have some one-on-one time with teachers and coaches. Get a feel for why current students and graduates routinely say Xavier changed their lives and that their teachers and coaches truly cared, always willing to spend extra time with them.
