Parish Information

A message from Fr. David:

“It seems like Advent season sneaks up on us every year, doesn't it? With school back in session, schedules get busier, and the days get shorter. Halloween and Thanksgiving come and go, and people turn their attention to Christmas shopping and the new year. The true meaning of Advent can get lost in the chaos.

It is easy to get distracted by the material aspect of preparing for Christmas, but it is important to take time and focus on the true meaning of those four weeks — waiting and preparing for the birth of Jesus.

To stay focused on the true meaning of Advent, here are seven ways you can live liturgically at home this Advent season...”

1. Set up an Advent wreath.
2. Create a prayer intentions manger
3. Make an Advent Tree of Kindness
4. Participate in your parish's Angel Tree program
5. Visit a live nativity scene
6. Listen to (or create your own) Advent song playlist
7. Donate your time, talent, or treasure

As we approach the 2nd Sunday of Advent, we are presented with the great figure of John the Baptist, the precursor of the Messiah, who prepared the way for Him and would eventually identify Him as the long-awaited Lamb of God. In Luke chapter 3 we recall the words of Isaiah who calls out to us to prepare the way of the Lord by making straight our crooked paths, filling in our valleys, and smoothing the rough roads. This is more than just a commentary on civil engineering and the work of the department of transportation, as important as those things are. Mother Church is heralding the call Advent Call to prepare a place within our hearts, and our homes, so that we can worthily receive our Lord.

Check out our Advent Confession Schedule and make plans to receive God's mercy through the words of absolution uttered by the priest. This is the best way to prepare the way of the Lord.

Everyone is invited to our mini-Advent Mission coming up on Friday December 10, and Saturday December 11 as we gather with the Sisters of the Pierced Heart of Jesus and Mary. Friday night, beginning at 6:30pm will be a beautiful night of charismatic prayer and praise (rosary, Mass, Exposition, intercessory prayer). Saturday begins with 9am Mass, then a talk by one of the Sisters, Exposition, and confession.

Sunday, December 12, Our Lady of Guadalupe: the 5:00 pm Sunday Mass will be bilingual English/Spanish.

CHRISTMAS MASS SCHEDULE:

Christmas Eve, Friday, December 24 (no morning Masses)
4:00 pm, 7:00 pm, and Midnight

Christmas Day, Saturday, December 25
8:00 am, 10:30 am (no 4:00 pm vigil Mass)

Feast of the Holy Family PARISH FEAST DAY

Sunday, December 26: 7:00 am, 9:00 am, 11:00 am, and 5:00 pm
(Bishop Estévez will celebrate the 5:00 pm Mass)

Did you know? We can distinguish between two main senses of Scripture: the literal and the spiritual. The literal sense refers to the meaning conveyed by the words of Scripture and is discovered by following the rules of sound interpretation. The spiritual sense speaks to how the realities and events about which the text speaks can be signs. (CCC #117)

Altar Flowers: If you would like donate $45 per arrangement in remembrance of a loved one, birthday blessing, anniversary blessing, or whatever your intention may be, please call the Parish Office. Thank you for your support.

This weekend's Altar Flowers are donated in loving memory of Rita Leo, Justin Leo, Anton Mendis and in loving memory of Elvira Catacutan

Health Information

Each day we are hearing of more and more people who are sick, some with the corona virus, others with respiratory complications, the flu, or other viruses. Please be considerate of each other and take precautions such as washing hands frequently and avoiding unnecessary touching (hugging and shaking hands). Everyone is free to wear a mask if you feel it necessary, and the Bishop expects anyone who is not vaccinated to wear a mask at Mass.

Also, please remember that when Bishop Estévez reinstated the obligation to attend Sunday Mass, he reminded us that one does not have an obligation to attend Mass on Sunday in the following circumstances:

1. You are ill, or your health condition would be significantly compromised if you were to contract an infectious illness (i.e., you have underlying conditions or are in a high-risk category).
2. You exhibit flu-like symptoms.
3. You have good reason to think you might be asymptomatic of a contagious illness (e.g., you were in recent contact with someone who tested positive for a contagious illness such as COVID or influenza).
4. You care for the sick, homebound, or infirm.
5. You are pregnant.
6. Those 65 years of age or older (per the CDC's recommendation of high-risk individuals).
7. You cannot attend Mass through no fault of your own (e.g., no Mass is offered, you are infirm), or, while wanting to go, you are prevented for some reason you cannot control, (e.g., your ride
