Fr. David's Reflection:

In the 12th chapter, St. Paul enjoins the Christians to “rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.” I think this is an apt description of the journey our parish has been on the past week: the silent sorrow of Good Friday, the glorious excitement of the Resurrection, and the funeral liturgies for Monsignor Danaher gave us the opportunity to live out in real time these words of St. Paul.

I am still trying to find the proper words to describe my impression of the Sacred Triduum liturgies and services. Our parish has always celebrated these solemn events with great numbers and greater devotion. This year was the same, but there was something different. And this is what I am having trouble describing. It was as if a special anointing, a more profound presence of the Holy Spirit was hovering over us.

From the great number of people who stood in line for hours for Confession, the waves of people who came to visit our Lord in the garden on Holy Thursday night, to the many, many who came to the Church throughout the day on Friday and Saturday for private prayer, and the incredible number of people who attended Holy Mass for Easter. It was uniquely special.

I offer my sincerest thanks to all of you who take your faith-life so seriously. While we are all on different paths and are at different levels, there is something beautiful happening within our parish, and it is a joy to be able to accompany you through these special times. Thank you for your trust, your prayers, and your support. Let's be Saints!

The Vigil and the Funeral for Msgr. Danaher was a fitting send off for a priest who was loved by so many of the people in our city, so many tears as well as smiles and laughs were shared. Msgr. was a one-of-a-kind, and he will surely be missed by all.

This Sunday completes the Easter Octave: the 8-day-long celebration of Easter! And we get to celebrate the Easter Season for 50 days until Pentecost Sunday May 28. The Octave day of Easter, the 2nd Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday all describe the same day on the Liturgical Calendar.

Commenting on the feast of Divine Mercy, Pope Benedict XVI reminded us that “outside the mercy of God there is no other source of hope for human beings.” And he encourages us to “accept the gift of peace which the Risen Jesus offers us, let us allow our hearts to be filled with his mercy! In this way, with the power of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit who raised Christ from the dead, we too can bring these Easter gifts to others.”

Join us Sunday at 2 for an “hour of Mercy.” Our Eucharistic Lord will be exposed for adoration and confessions will be available. At 3:00pm we will sing the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

We have received so many compliments on the flowers and the music from over the weekend. They were/are simply beautiful. As we know "there's no such thing as a free lunch", so if you'd like to help us provide beautiful liturgies and a sacred space, you can make a special financial contribution to either music or flowers, just make a notation on your gift.

Music Ministry: Kimberly Conway, Director of Music kconway@hollyfamilyjax.com.

Give thanks to the LORD for He is good, His love is everlasting, is the Psalm response for this week's Second Sunday of Easter. That verse from Psalm 118 expresses the overwhelming prayer in my heart as I give thanks to our Risen Lord for all the people at Holy Family with whom it is a joy and honor to serve. We had over 25 people in our Music Ministry offering their gifts for the Glory of God and 15 Masses or services with music from Palm Sunday through Easter. At Holy Family, there is incredible skill and talent, but what makes them so incredibly set apart, is the generosity and love with which they lift their instruments to God as they support and help each other. They all express the same ultimate goal which is solely to bring Glory to God. I wish to express heartfelt thanks to everyone in Music Ministry and to our Staff for their continuous help and support. This is the day the LORD has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it!

Would you like to join our Music Ministry? New singers and instrumentalists are always welcome! We have an Adult Choir, Men's Schola and a Children's Choir. Rehearsal information can be found on the website. Instrumentalists, if you play flute, violin, cello, viola, clarinet, trumpet and other similar instruments, we would love to have you join us at Mass!

Choir Schedule: Easter 2 9:00 am Adult Choir
Easter 3 9:00 am Adult Choir
Easter 4 9:00 am Children's Choir
11:00 am Adult Choir

Did you know that the Church assigns a particular Marian hymn for each of the liturgical seasons? 'Regina caeli' is sung during the Easter season.

We will chant it at the end of our Sunday Masses.

Regina caeli
Regina caeli, laetare, alleluia.
Quia quem meruisti portare, alleluia.
Resurrexit, sicut dixit, alleluia.
Ora pro nobis Deum, alleluia.
Gaude et laetare, Virgo Maria, alleluia.
Quia surrexit Dominus vere, alleluia.

Queen of Heaven
Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.
Has risen, as he said, alleluia.
Pray for us to God, alleluia.
Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Amen.

Welcome Spring and Baby Chicks

Before our Easter Break, 6th Graders had the chance to stop by the STEM Lab and visit with the new baby chicks! The girls took the opportunity to snuggle with the chicks and the boys had some friendly chick-racing competition. This is always a favorite school activity, and we are so thankful to the 4-H Community and to Mrs. Salom for bringing us this opportunity.
