Latest News and Updates

Fr. David's Reflection:

"and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice" these words from this weekend's Gospel are part of the familiar "Good Shepherd discourse" in chapter 10 of St. John's Gospel. And they speak to a deep truth about each one of us. One that we often try to deny: we are followers. As much as we try to plot our own course, and to make our own way, at our core we are following something or someone. Maybe we can spend some time reflecting on the voices that we have allowed into our homes. Are they leading us closer to Jesus or not?

The month of May has traditionally been dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary and many families and parishes have found various ways of paying special devotion to our Blessed Mother during these days: daily family rosaries, home altars dedicated to her intercession, and crowning a statue of Mary are some examples. In his letter Deus Caritas Est (God is Love) Pope Benedict wrote this about the Blessed Mother:

"The lives of the saints are not limited to their earthly biographies but also include their being and working in God after death. In the saints one thing becomes clear: those who draw near to God do not withdraw from men, but rather become truly close to them. In no one do we see this more clearly than in Mary. The words addressed by the crucified Lord to his disciple - to John and through him to all disciples of Jesus: "Behold, your mother!" (Jn 19:27) - are fulfilled anew in every generation.

Mary has truly become the Mother of all believers. Men and women of every time and place have recourse to her motherly kindness and her virginal purity and grace, in all their needs and aspirations, their joys and sorrows, their moments of loneliness and their common endeavors. ... Mary, Virgin and Mother, shows us what love is and whence it draws its origin and its constantly renewed power. To her we entrust the Church and her mission in the service of love."

May 1st is the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker, as we honor the memories of 2 of our parish patron saints, let us pray for an increase in devotion them as we seek to imitate their virtues.

LET'S CELEBRATE!!!! Saturday May the 6th marks the 49th anniversary of the dedication of our amazing parish! To honor this great day everyone is invited to a light reception in the PLC following the 4pm Mass. And we have some exciting news to announce during the reception. You won't want to miss it.

Youth Discipleship

To all the youth, parents, and families at Holy Family,

At the end of May, I will be leaving my role as Coordinator of Youth Discipleship at the parish and Annie Resendez will be taking over the role moving forward. It has been such a gift to minister to the youth at Holy Family for the past two and a half years. It is truly a blessing to have walked alongside so many youth as they developed their personal relationships with the Lord. While the Lord is calling me from this season of life to the next, Holy Family is always my parish and home, and I hope to stay as involved as I can with the youth—especially with my girls at Be Love Revolution! The youth are in great hands with Annie and I can't wait to see what the Holy Spirit does under her leadership moving forward!

- Josie Delac

Music Ministry:

As we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday, we reflect on Jesus, the Good Shepherd who restores, guides, protects and nurtures us, and who laid down His life for us. Our music will be comprised of texts about Jesus, the Good Shepherd including the Children's Choir Anthem which is a setting of Psalm 23, our Responsorial Psalm.

At 11am, the Adult Choir will sing, I Lift My Eyes, by John Carter. Though it is based on Psalm 121, the text clearly includes themes and images from the 23rd Psalm. In the busyness of today's world, I believe it is a comforting text for us as we lift our hearts to Jesus and pray each day for His help, love, protection, guidance, strength and salvation.

I lift my eyes to the quiet hills in the press of a busy day. As green hills stand in a dusty land, so God is my strength and stay.

I lift my eyes to the quiet hills to a calm that is mine to share; secure in the Father's will and kept by the Father's care.

I lift my eyes to the quiet hills with a prayer as I turn to sleep. By day, by night through the dark and light, my Shepherd will guard His sheep.

I lift my eyes to the quiet hills and my heart to the Father's throne. In all my ways, to the end of days, the Lord will preserve His own.

If you are interested in joining the Music Ministry, please email Kimberly Conway, Director of Music kconway@holymfamilyjax.com.
