

Father

ONE GOD
and Father of all,
who is over all
and through all
and in all.
Ephesians 4:6

Son

THE WORD became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace
and truth.
John 1:14

Holy Spirit

THE ADVOCATE,
the holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name ~ he will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.
John 14:26

Fr. David's Reflection:

The Most Holy Trinity: from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (234) "The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them." As we find in the Athanasius Creed: "the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God, and yet there are not three Gods but one God."

June – the Month of the Sacred Heart

No matter what the mainstream media, our favorite big box store, national beer company, a major league sports team, or your social media feed are telling us: the image of the Sacred Heart is THE image of true love. Yes, love does win, but love does not promote or endorse sin, love is found in self-denial and self-gift, not in a militant insistence on self-acceptance, promotion and gratification. And love cannot be separated from the truth. There can be no love outside of the Truth, as sacred scripture reminds us: God is Love (1 Jn 4:16) & I am the Truth (Jn 14:6). Pope Benedict XVI dedicated one of his encyclicals to this topic. Caritas en Veritate \(Charity in Truth\).

Let us remember the words of Jesus: "learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart (Matt 11:29), and that pride is one of the 7 Deadly Sins, it should not be celebrated.

Next week we celebrate Corpus Christi and then follows the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. As the lives of countless saints reveal, when we encounter this truth, the Love of Jesus found in the Eucharist and in His Sacred Heart, our lives will be radically changed, and then we will be able to be effective witness to the world of True Love. Perhaps our failure to follow the command to love just as God loves is one of the reasons why we are being bombarded with endless counterfeit forms of love.

Renovation (new roof, new paint) on the church begins this Monday. Holy Mass Monday through Friday will be in the Parish Life Center. Locations for confessions will be posted. The total cost of the project is expected to be $180,000. Contact the Parish Office if you wish to contribute to the Capital Project Sustainment/Maintenance Fund.

MASS TIMES FOR TRAVEL

As "vacation season" is now upon us, please remember that there is a grave, moral obligation to attend Mass each Sunday, check out this video. Please consider this when making travel plans; do be caught unprepared. (The sin is amplified if children are forced to skip Mass). Download masstimes.org to have quick and easy access to the nearest Mass whenever you travel.

Rosary Makers Ministry will meet on Monday, June 12, at 9:30 am, immediately following the 9:00 am Mass, in Parish Life Center. Room 204. This will be our last meeting until September (date TBD). We are welcome to join in our work of spreading devotion to the Rosary, and we are happy to teach you the craft. For questions, please e-mail rosary@holyfamilyjax.com.

Music Ministry

At our 9:00 am Mass, the Choir will sing a setting of Of the Father's Love Begotten, a hymn written around the year 400 by Aurelius Clemens Prudentius and later translated by John Mason Neale. This is particularly fitting for our Masses this weekend because it was written to defend and fight for what we believe and celebrate as The Holy Trinity. Prudentius (348-c. 413) was a prominent lawyer and judge who began writing poetry at age 57 because he wanted to make more meaning of his life. Interestingly, he used his legal skills to fight against the heretics, and this hymn written 16 centuries ago is the fruit of this work. Attacks against Christianity included ones from Arius (c. 250-336), who said that God the Father and the Son did not co-exist throughout eternity. This heresy stated that Jesus was created before his incarnation and that he was not equal to God the Father. Prudentius defends against that heresy right from the first line and title, "Of the Father's love begotten" which was translated from the Latin words, "Corde natus ex parentis ante mundi exordium". Literally, it means "Born from the parent's heart before the beginning of worlds" As we sing or listen to this ancient hymn, it can have deeper meaning if we contemplate its purpose of teaching the truth of the Holy Trinity that God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit have always co-existed and will for evermore. A few of the nine verses are included below.

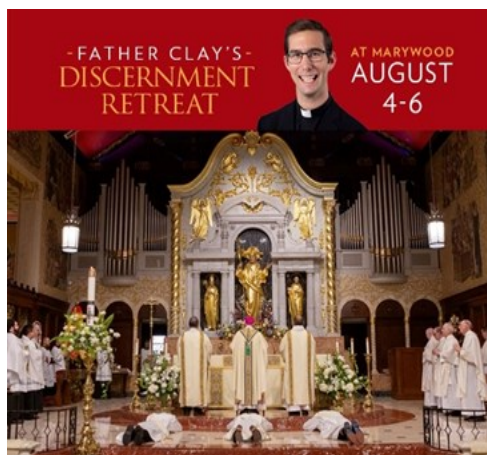

"Of the Father's love begotten,
Ere the worlds began to be,
He is Alpha and Omega,
He the source, the ending he
Of the things that are, that have been
And that future years shall see,
Evermore and evermore."

This is He Whom seers in old time
Chanted of with one accord;
Whom the voices of the prophets Promised in their faithful word;
Now He shines, the long expected,
Let creation praise its Lord,
Evermore and evermore!

O ye heights of heaven adore Him;
Angel hosts, His praises sing;
Powers, dominions, bow before Him,
and extol our God and King!
Let no tongue on earth be silent,
Every voice in concert sing,
Evermore and evermore!

Christ, to Thee with God the Father,
And, O Holy Ghost, to Thee,
Hymn and chant with high thanksgiving,
And unwearied praises be:
Honour, glory, and dominion,
And eternal victory,
Evermore and evermore!
