Fr. David's Reflection:

I have been away this week attending a Priest Conference with Dr. Scott Hahn and Dr. John Bergsma in Wheeling WV, and this weekend I will be accompanying some of our high school youth (and a couple of thousand others from across the state) at the Steubenville Conference in Orlando. I will be back in the parish on Monday. Please continue to pray for me and know of my prayers for all of you.

For the reflection this week, I simply share a reflection on the Sunday's Gospel passage from Pope Benedict XVI from the summer of 2011.

In this Sunday's Gospel (Mt 13:1-23), Jesus recounts to the crowd the well-known Parable of the Sower. In a certain way it is an "autobiographical" passage, for it reflects the very experience of Jesus, of his preaching. He identifies himself with the sower who scatters the good seed of the Word of God and notes the different effects it obtains, in accordance with the way in which people hear the proclamation.

Some listen superficially to the Word but do not take it in; others accept it at the time but are unable to persevere and lose it all; there are those who are engrossed by worldly concerns and enticements; and those who listen receptively, like the good soil: here the word bears an abundance of fruit.

However, this Gospel also puts the accent on Jesus' preaching "method", that is, on his use of parables. "Why do you speak to them in parables?", his disciples ask (Mt 13:10). And Jesus answers distinguishing between them and the crowd: to his disciples — namely to those who have already decided for him — he can speak openly about the Kingdom of God, to others, instead, he must proclaim it in parables, precisely to encourage their decision, conversion of the heart; indeed, by their very nature parables demand the effort of interpretation, they not only challenge the mind but also freedom. St John Chrysostom explained: "And this he [Jesus] says to draw them unto him, and to provoke them and to signify that if they would convert he would heal them" (see Homily on the Gospel of Matthew, 45, 1-2).

Basically, God's true "Parable" is Jesus himself, his Person who, in the sign of humanity, hides and at the same time reveals his divinity. In this manner God does not force us to believe in him but attracts us to him with the truth and goodness of his incarnate Son: love, in fact, always respects freedom.

Music Ministry

It is good to praise the LORD and make music to your name, O Most High, proclaiming your love in the morning and your faithfulness at night. For you make me glad by your deeds, LORD. I sing for joy at what your hands have done. How great are your works, LORD. (PSALM 92;1,4-5)

It is an overwhelming joy to praise God! Even more, it is incredibly uplifting to glorify God with the gifts and talents that He gave us! Our gifts come from God for the very purpose of worshipping His Holy Name. Ephesians 5:19-20 tells us: "And do not get drunk with wine, in which there is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your hearts to the Lord." Notice in those verses that the songs we sing to the Lord come after we are filled with the Holy Spirit. This weekend we will sing a song which illustrates this, How Can I Help from Singing. Music emanates from our Spirit filled hearts!

Do you have a musical gift you would like to use for God's glory? Perhaps you sing or play an instrument? All are welcome in our Music Ministry! Choir Rehearsals will resume in September. Our Adult and Children's choirs offer opportunities to meet new people and build friendships. Holy Family's Children's Choir is for all children in grades 2-8 from both the Parish and the School. All singers in high school and above are welcome in our Adult Choir and this year, Adult Choir rehearsals will be on a different night from Youth ministry so that highschoolers will be able to participate in both ministries.

Please join us as we worship, pray, and make music for the glory of God!

The Gift Shop

Our summer hours will be in effect June, July & August we will be open the following weekends:
July 22/23      August 12/13      August 26/27

Latest News and Updates

The Rosary Makers Ministry honors Our Blessed Mother's request for devotion to the Rosary. In the last 9 years, members have made and distributed over 65,000 rosaries throughout the world. Do you know of a worthy organization that could use Rosaries? We have supplied churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and prisons. We are thrilled to share this powerful weapon of prayer. Contact Mary Scagliarini at rosary@holyfamilyjax.com
