Fr. David's Reflection:

"Jesus said to his disciples: "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. ... If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you ... If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church." (Matthew chapter 18 from this Sunday's Gospel).

A couple of weeks ago in the Gospel we had the establishment of the Church (Mat 16), and I shared part of the section on the church from the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Again, this week's gospel allows us to reflect on the Church. Earlier this week, I came across this reflection on Jesus as the only way to salvation and the nature of the Church He established, and I think it is worth sharing and pondering:

[Adapted from a Pastoral Letter from Bishop J. Strickland, September 2023]

- Jesus Christ is the only path to everlasting life; no other path to salvation can be found!
- In order that we might participate in that promise of everlasting life, Our Lord in His great mercy established the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.
- All that the Church is, as the mystical body of Christ, flows from the truth that it was, and is, divinely constituted by Christ, and her basic elements—which include the sacred Deposit of Faith—cannot be altered by men because it does not belong to men; the Church belongs to Christ!
- There is no salvation apart from Christ and His One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church; this is an infallible teaching of the Church.
- "What about those outside the Church? What about those who have never heard of Christ? Can they be saved?" For those who are not united to Christ through His Church and through the grace of the sacraments, we simply pray for them and entrust them to God. Although we must never be presumptuous of God's grace, we recognize that God is sovereign, and if in His mercy He would choose to operate in ways beyond our knowledge or understanding, He has full authority to operate however He chooses because He is not bound by anything other than His own perfect nature.
- We ourselves must cling tightly to the Church and the sacraments as He gave them to us, but we must also pray always for souls outside the Church, that God offers His grace to those souls in ways unknown and unseen to us. Anyone receiving and accepting God's grace would never be saved through any other path or church or religion; there is One Savior, One Redeemer, for all mankind, and He established One Church for the salvation of souls.
- God desires the salvation of all, but He does not force salvation upon any of us; it requires our cooperation and free assent to His grace. He calls each one of us to participate in His plan of salvation not only for ourselves, but for the world; this is the Great Commission: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matt 28:19-20).
- We live in an age of great interconnectedness where people across the globe can share and learn with each other as never before in human history. ... True ecumenism, however, is an open invitation to all people to experience and embrace the fullness of Christ and the Christian life which can be found only in the Catholic Church. This path, although difficult at times, is the only sure path to true everlasting love, grace, and life with God. It is false charity to tell people that regardless of what path they are on, it is God's Will that they stay where they are because this does not call on people to embrace the one true path instituted by God for the salvation of souls. Therefore, the Church has a sacred obligation, borne of love, to evangelize all people.

The Church is one of the greatest gifts that God the Father has given to us. I pray that we all come to a deeper appreciation and love for Her.

Faith Formation/Raising Holy Families Classes begin Monday, September 11

Faith Formation is a life-long journey, and the parish is the privileged place for this to take place. For our young students, we desire to help equip parents with their most important task of raising their children in the faith. All children in 1st-8th grades are expected to be enrolled in a formation program (parish school/homeschool/parish program). All immediate sacramental preparation is done through the parish. Please contact Elizabeth Miller (emiller@holyfamilyjax.com) to determine the right track for your family.

To register, CLICK HERE.

After Confirmation, our young Catholics should continue their formation: FRATERNUS is for the young men, and BE LOVE is offered for the young ladies. Contact Annie Resendez (aresendez@holyfamilyjax.com) for more information.

We do offer a Montessori-style program for our youngest (ages 3-6) called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, because of the high-demand, there is limited space. Contact Jenny Bayo for more information bayo.jennifer@gmail.com.

Women's Club

We are collecting recycled plastic bags to make "plarn" sleeping mats for the homeless and donated to clients of Mission House in Jacksonville Beach. It takes between 500-700 bags to make a mat, so donations at any are greatly accepted. "Plarn" mats are lightweight, create a comfortable barrier form the ground, and are easy to clean. Drop your bags off in the box in the Narthex or bring to the monthly Women's Club meetings (first Monday of the month).

Men's Club Steak Dinner Monday. September 11th
