Fr. David's Reflection:

Each year, during the first week in October the priests of our diocese gather at Marywood Retreat Center for our annual retreat. The week always begins with a meeting with the bishop who shares some general information and updates about the diocese. He also shares some thoughts and ideas about how we can better evangelize the faithful and help to lead you into a deeper encounter with the Lord in the Sacred Liturgy.

I would like to share two of the points that Bishop Pohlmeier mentioned as a result of his observations as he has visited parishes throughout the diocese. (these shouldn't be new to you as I have mentioned them before.) He challenged us to focus on fostering sacred silence and prayerful preparation in the nave of our churches before Holy Mass begins. And he did put a special emphasis on the liturgical ministers who help prepare for Mass, especially ushers, sacristans, and music/choir. He said these groups are usually the most distracting to those who are trying to pray.

As he was sharing, I did start to feel a little bit of fatherly pride welling up inside, thinking that he wasn't referring to Holy Family, because for the most part we are doing well with these. There is no doubt that over these past 5 years, I have witnessed a tremendous improvement in the prayerful atmosphere prior to Mass. And this is more than obvious when I visit other places. Thank You!! But let's take the bishop's challenge and to strive to continue to improve. Yes, there will always be some noise, especially with the large number of young Catholics at our parish. But if the Holy Mass and the Holy Eucharist are what we say they are - a true encounter with Jesus' Paschal Mystery and his Real Presence in the Eucharist - then can there be anything more important than our proper preparation through sacred and prayerful silence. After all, we have a beautiful campus that is perfect for talking and sharing after Mass.

The instructions that Mother Church gives us in this regard say this: "Sacred silence also, as part of the celebration, is to be observed at the designated times." You can read more about it here and here. And here are Pope Francis' recent remarks on the need for silence. Bishop Pohlmeier reminded us that we priests need to be the first ones to set the example of sacred silence, and that we also have a duty to assist you in knowing how to best spend those moments before Holy Mass. I will be sharing some thoughts and ideas in the coming weeks.

Our Annual Parish Picnic is next week after the 4:00 pm Mass. Don't miss out on this fun event for our parish and school family of all ages. There is a rumor that Fr. David will be in the dunk tank again this year! Purchase your tickets ONLINE today. See flyer on page 8 of this bulletin.

Stay up to date on the USCCB's Eucharistic Revival Initiative, and stay tuned for our local diocesan initiative which will be released soon.

Please contact Elizabeth Miller (emiller@holysfamilyjax.com) to determine the right track for your family. To register, CLICK HERE.

After Confirmation, our young Catholics should continue their formation: FRATERNUS is for the young men, and BE LOVE is offered for the young ladies. Contact Annie Resendez (aresendez@holysfamilyjax.com) for more information.

We do offer a Montessori-style program for our youngest (ages 3-6) called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, because of the high-demand, there is limited space. Contact Jenny Bayo for more information bayo.jennifer@gmail.com.

Latest News and Updates

Music Ministry

NOW IS THE PERFECT TIME to join one of our choirs! Adult and Children's choirs offer opportunities to meet new people, build friendships and be part of a Church community which joins together in prayer and song. Singers, we have 3 Choirs: ADULT CHOIR, CHILDREN'S CHOIR and MENS SCHOLA INSTRUMENTALISTS, if you play flute, violin, cello, viola, clarinet, and other similar instruments, we would love to have you join us at Mass!

Our CHILDREN'S CHOIR is for all children both in the Parish and the School. The focus is to prepare for Sunday Masses; children are not required to sing at School masses. This year, we have a very special goal : a children's choir Christmas concert on Saturday, December 2nd at 7 p.m., to be held at San Juan Del Rio Catholic Church with two other Children's Choirs. This event will simultaneously function as a fundraiser for patients of Nemours Children's Hospital here in Jacksonville. Both Adult and Children's Choirs are also scheduled to sing for residents in Assisted Living facilities. This weekend, our Adult Choir will sing the setting of The Prayer of St. Francis by Allen Pote.

More information is available on the website, or to join our Music Ministry, please email Kimberly Conway.
