General Information

Fr. David's Reflection

"For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober." (1 Thes 5:5-6)

In last weekend's gospel, the 5 wise virgins were awarded for their preparedness and their vigilance. We receive the same message this weekend, in the second reading from St. Paul. It truly is a message that needs to be repeated, and repeated often. Our culture has done a very good job of keeping our focus and our attention on the chaotic activity of the here and now. And as a result, the transcendent (those things that extend beyond the natural and physical) and the eternal (that which is never ending) have all but disappeared from our perspectives and considerations. And because so many people wrongly assume that everyone goes to heaven, most have decided that there is no point in ever thinking about our eventual death, and the certain judgment that follows. This is why, especially during the month of November, the Church asks us to focus on the 4 last things: death, judgement, heaven, and hell.

As Christians, this world is not our home; we are only pilgrims on a journey. And we are called to live in joy-filled hope of the resurrection as we eagerly await the return of our savior Jesus Christ. But in order to get there, we must consciously fight against the trends of our materialistic culture which only regards the natural and physical realities as worthwhile. As I mentioned at last weekend's Masses, we must cultivate a sphere of silence in our lives. It is in the silence that the Lord speaks. It is in the silence that we encounter His voice. It is in the silence that we grow in our knowledge of and our relationship with the Lord. This living and active relationship is the foundation of our hope. And it is our hope that elevates us out of the materialistic worldview and allows us to adopt the Catholic worldview and an eternal perspective. In other words, it helps us to keep our eyes, our minds, and our hearts on Jesus.

At Mass last weekend, I also mentioned that our Bishop shared with the diocese a letter on the topic of silence, especially silence in the Church and at Holy Mass. You can find that here. Paper copies are available in the office. If you have not read the book entitled "The Power of Silence," by Cardinal Robert Sarah, I cannot recommend it enough. In this book, he reminds us: "through silence, we return to our heavenly origin, where there is nothing but calm, peace, repose, silent contemplation, and adoration of the radiant face of God."

Here is a reflection/conference that Bishop Pohlmeier gave on "Entering into the Mystery: Reverence and Sacred Silence" <https://revival.dosafl.com/entering-into-the-mystery-reverence-and-sacred-silence/>

As we prepare for the season of Advent and the coming of our King, let us also take the time to prepare our hearts, minds, and souls for the encounter with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist at each Holy Mass.

DIOCESE OF ST. AUGUSTINE

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

THE MOST REVEREND ERIK T. POHLMEIER

November 3, 2023

Dear Friends in Christ,

The national effort for a Eucharistic Revival has been underway for over a year. At the heart of every effort is a desire to respond more fully to God's invitation. The same God who gives us life wants to nourish us for our human journey. We live in a world filled with joys and challenges. We must respond, but the path forward is often difficult and uncertain. God does not abandon those who call out to him. He responds to give us strength as we follow the narrow way, as we carry our crosses alongside Jesus.

No part of human existence brings us as near to Jesus as the Eucharist. He tells us in very direct words, "Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you have no life in you." "I am the Bread of Life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." (John 6)

As powerful a promise as Jesus makes, we can easily remain indifferent. The Eucharistic Revival is meant to awaken our hearts and minds so that we receive the gift of God that gives abundant life. Every time we gather for Mass, we enter a privileged place for intimate contact with our Living God.

For this reason, I am asking every parish to begin a more direct preparation for the encounter with Jesus at Mass. I ask every parish to create a more intentional environment of prayer before Mass begins. The main area of the church, especially around the altar, should preserve silence before Mass. The goal of this silence is not merely a greater quiet. This silence should promote a kind of prayer that turns the heart to God in anticipation. Enter your parish church with expectation for the gifts that God gives. Bring your joys and sorrows to the altar. Take time before Mass to speak with the Lord in your heart. Pray for your intentions. Surrender your burdens. Open your heart and mind to the Word of God in the Scriptures.

I am also asking those who plan the liturgy and those who serve as ushers and greeters to look for ways to promote quiet prayer in the final minutes before Mass begins. While we also value the welcoming nature of our parishes, it is possible to promote both friendly interaction and intentional preparation to meet the Lord in the Eucharist. We can better use the spaces outside of the sanctuary and the time after Mass for strengthening our community.

My hope is that the Eucharistic Revival can teach us a deeper prayer, especially in the privileged location of our churches. With this initiative we are also releasing some materials to guide our prayer. Because we are easily distracted, we need help to turn our minds to God as we prepare for Mass. Please take advantage of the guidance these materials provide and develop a habit of arriving early enough to silence your heart and turn your attention to God.

Our encounter with the Lord in the silence of our hearts takes practice and is well worth the effort. Together, let us Seek First the Kingdom of God, joining in prayer for the many needs of our world and the conversion of our hearts.

In Christ,

Most Reverend Erik T. Pohlmeier
Bishop of St. Augustine

At the 9:00 am Mass, our Adult Choir will be singing, O Holy Jesus, a meditative piece based on a prayer said by Saint Richard of Chichester (1197-1253) on his deathbed. St. Richard is known for his devotion to the poor and sick, and he performed many miracles involving healing. He denounced corruption in the Church and Royal Court and held people accountable for their actions. St. Richard unceasingly helped the poor while remaining poor himself. The lyrics in the anthem come from the second part of the prayer: "May I know thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, and follow thee more nearly, day by day", which concludes with a seven-fold Amen."

Please save the dates for the joint Children's Choir Concert on December 2nd and a Lessons and Carols Service with both our Adult and Children's Choir on December 10th. Details are on flyers here in the bulletin and on the website.
