General Information

Fr. David's Reflection,

On behalf of Fr. Prabhu, Mr. Kavanagh, School Principal, and the entire Holy Family Catholic Church and School Community, I wish you all a very blessed and merry Christmas. As we celebrate the birth of our savior, the Prince of Peace, let us keep in mind all those areas in the world that are torn by strife, war, and division. At the time of Jesus' birth, the earth was shrouded in darkness, I pray that the light of Christ may reign in every heart and every home. I am looking forward to seeing everyone at Mass as we celebrate the greatest gift of all, Jesus Christ our Lord.

"Blessing requires that what is blessed be conformed to God's will, as expressed in the teachings of the Church."

-Fiducia Supplicans

Like many of you, I have allowed myself to be distracted this week by the headlines surrounding a document that was released by Pope Francis and the Vatican on Monday. The document entitled Fiducia Supplicans (On the Pastoral Meaning of Blessings) caused quite a stir as many in the media rushed to tell the world that Pope Francis is now allowing priests to bless same-sex marriages and irregular unions (i.e., divorced and remarried couples/cohabitating couples). This is far from the truth and intentionally misleading. I strongly suggest everyone read the declaration for yourself and not rely on the interpretations of those who seem to delight in fermenting chaos and division as they undermine the Church and Her teachings. The document was written to clarify the distinction between liturgical and pastoral blessings; and it clearly upholds the truth about marriage - the union of one man and one woman who are bound together for life and open to natural means of procreation. Anything other than that is not marriage, and the Church cannot recognize it as such.

We are all sinners in need of God's grace and blessing. But as we know, the Church cannot bless sin. So, when someone requests a non-liturgical blessing, it is assumed that the person, in some way, is already oriented toward the Truth, and is desiring to live according to God's will and the teachings of Holy Mother Church. The blessing is given as an aid to this desire and not as an endorsement of any sinful lifestyle choices.

It is sad that so much time has been spent this week discussing this; we are so close to the celebration of the Nativity of our Lord. Let us, in these remaining days and hours, quiet our minds and our hearts and prepare the "manger of our hearts" to receive our Savior and Our Lord.

"We wish to make it clear that departure from the Church's teaching, or silence about it, in an effort to provide pastoral care is neither caring nor pastoral. Only what is true can ultimately be pastoral." – Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger (Pope Benedict XVI)

Next week the Parish Office will be closed and please note the adjusted Mass schedule

Tuesday, December 26th - Friday, December 29th - 7:00 am Mass - canceled - 9:00 am Mass only

Wednesday, December 27 - evening Mass and confession canceled

Sunday December 31st is the Feast of the Holy Family. Please make plans to join us in the Parish Life Center after the 7:00 and 9:00 am Masses for our annual Holy Family Breakfast sponsored (and provided) by the Men's Club.

As we know there has been turmoil and upheaval in the Holy Land for many years, and the past few months have been devastating. Did you know that there is a Catholic parish in Gaza named Holy Family? During this Holy Season, I think it will be nice if we took up a special collection for our Catholic brothers and sisters in a parish with which we share a name and patrons. I know that there is a lot going on over there, and the politics can be a bit messy. I don't intend for this collection to be interpreted as any type of political stance or endorsement. Our brothers and sisters are in need; we can help them. So please bring your monetary gift to the Parish Office or drop it in the offertory basket on the Feast of the Holy Family, Sunday, December 31st, as we celebrate our Patronal Feast. We will send all proceeds to Holy Family Parish in Gaza. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Offertory 2023 Contributions: Thank you for your continued generosity to our parish. Please note that all contributions for 2023 need to be received by December 31. Anything received after this date will be credited to 2024.

Safe Environment: The Diocese of St. Augustine treats all allegations of sexual misconduct seriously and deals with all allegations in a prompt, confidential, and thorough manner. To report abuse, call the police or the Department of Children & Families at (800) 962-2873; or Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (904) 208-6979; or e-mail inquiries@dosaf.com. Weekend pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe and a visit to the Sisters of Mary Girlstown with Fr. David Keegan

Don't miss this opportunity to see the most visited Marian shrine in the world, the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe, where an estimated 18-20 million come annually to see the miraculous 500-year-old cactus-fiber tilma of visionary St. Juan Diego, upon which Our Blessed Mother imprinted her image.

This tour includes visiting the renowned Girlstown begun by Fr. Al Schwartz (now declared venerable) and the Sisters of Mary. Located in Chalco, MX - about an hour outside of Mexico City, it is one of 12 Girls and Boystown schools established by Fr. Al to serve the poorest of the poor. It serves over 3,000 underprivileged girls, giving them new hope and perspective on life.

HOLY FAMILY

CATHOLIC SCHOOL

FR. DAVID M. KEEGAN, PASTOR
MICHAEL A. KAVANAGH, PRINCIPAL

Dear Holy Family Community,

From the entire faculty and staff of Holy Family Catholic School, Merry Christmas to you and your families!

The Christmas season is one that is truly unique. No matter the age a person is, Christmas brings with it a flood of childhood memories, nostalgia, and the wonder of all that Christmas represents.

It's a time to gather as a family, to embrace a spirit of joy and generosity, and to reflect on the miraculous gift of God becoming one of us.

At school this year, we have committed to seeing all the ways God is present in our lives, and there is no better time to reflect on this idea than at Christmas, when God Himself became the most vulnerable of us, a newborn infant. Like each of us, Jesus had to be nourished and cared for by his parents. He learned, He made friends, and He followed the path laid out before Him by His Father in Heaven. This is the goal we strive to accomplish with all our students each and every day, to let them encounter Jesus and to encourage them to live as He did.

Traditions are of particular importance this time of year, and each family is unique in how they will celebrate Christmas. Recently our staff reflected on how every great tradition must start with a great "first." A tradition is simply a continuation of that first time, a recognition that it's something worth commemorating by repeating it year after year. One that comes to mind is decorating the Christmas tree, stringing lights, and hanging ornaments from its branches. Those ornaments often tell a story all their own: from Baby's First Christmas to Pre-K handprints to all the milestone events our families achieve.

Each year is an opportunity to trace all the way back to that first Christmas, the greatest of "firsts," the original tradition we've all adopted as our own and then personalized over time by infusing the season with love, joy, and family. Of course, that's what Christmas has always been: a season born out of God's love for each of us, a time when we can rejoice knowing that two thousand years ago, a small family on the other side of the world shared with all mankind the greatest gift we could be given. This Christmas, as you enjoy the many traditions you've established over the years, remember that most important Baby's First Christmas, the one that is the true source of our joy this season.

We at Holy Family Catholic School are honored and blessed to have the opportunity to help form the children of this faith community. It's a tradition like no other. I wish you all God's blessings this Christmas and throughout 2024.

Merry Christmas!
