Latest News and Updates

Raising Holy Families

Faith Formation is a life-long journey, and the parish is the privileged place for this to take place. For our young students, we desire to help equip parents with their most important task of raising their children in the faith. All children in 1st-8th grades are expected to be enrolled in a formation program (parish school/homeschool/parish program). All immediate sacramental preparation is done through the parish. Please contact Elizabeth Miller emiller@holyfamijax.com to determine the right track for your family.

After Confirmation, our young Catholics should continue their formation: Veritas is for the young men and you can contact Chris Muller for more information: cmuller@holyfamijax.com.

We do offer a Montessori-style program for our youngest (ages 3-6) called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Because of the high-demand, there is limited space. Contact Jenny Bayo for more information: bayo.jennifer@gmail.com.

Adult Discipleship At Holy Family we desire to help each adult grow as a disciple of Christ. Don't know where to begin? Reach out to Chris Mueller, at cmueller@holyfamijax.com to get started!

If you are interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about your faith, reach out to Chris for more information.

July Meditation

from Director of Sacred Music, Lindsey Tran

We all know what the Liturgy of the Word is: On any given Sunday in Ordinary Time, the first reading is drawn from the Old Testament to complement the Gospel reading. This is followed by a Responsorial Psalm that is our direct “response” to the first reading. The second reading is drawn from the New Testament, which leads to the highest point of the Liturgy of the Word: the reading of the Gospel. We hear all of these out loud, every Sunday. However, there is another important part of the Mass that oftentimes gets overlooked, and those are the Mass Propers.

The text of the Mass Propers change with the daily readings and are composed of the Introit (entrance) antiphon, the Gradual (we use the Responsorial Psalm in its place), the Alleluia, the Offertory antiphon, and the Communion antiphon. These antiphons are usually psalms or short excerpts from scripture chosen specifically for us to fully understand and meditate on the Liturgy of the Word. Thankfully at our parish, we get to hear most of these antiphons at Daily Mass. However, on Sundays, even though we do proclaim the communion antiphon, we replace the Introit and Offertory antiphons with hymns. But what if we actually participated in praying with all these Propers every Sunday, and instead of singing at Mass, we can sing the Mass?

In August of last year, we changed the tune of the Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei. These are the texts of the Mass that don’t change called the Mass Ordinary. And even when we changed the tune to these, we all made the effort of learning it, and now the congregation can be heard singing the Ordinary from all corners of the church. Why can’t we do the same with the Mass Propers? This is not to say that we’ll do away with hymns, because, when chosen correctly, the hymns will often reflect the Propers and the Liturgy of the Word. Instead, we can make the same effort that we did to learn the new settings for the Mass Ordinary to then learn a handful of chant modes to proclaim and sing the Mass Propers.

Last week, Father David wrote about fully participating in the Mass. Why not take this step in fully participating? Singing the Mass is not just reserved for the cantor or the choir. It is meant for full participation by all members of the church. Participating in the Mass does not mean just showing up to sit, stand, and kneel at the right times, but to fully live out the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist, which includes proclaiming the Ordinary and the Propers. Luckily for us, our Source and Summit Missal provides the Propers for every Sunday integrated in the correct spots within the order of the Mass. When you hear the cantor begin these antiphons, try to fully enter into prayer and participate in chanting alongside them.

The Men’s Group prepared and served dinner to Campers, Buddies and Staff at Camp I am Special this past Thursday. They grilled burgers and hot dogs to go with fries, mac and cheese, and ice cream sandwiches for dessert. As always this is a very rewarding experience for anyone that gets to see the interaction between campers and their buddies. Thank you to all who participated in this great event!

Mass time change

A Change to Friday & Saturday Morning Mass Times

After consultation with the Parish Council and input from parishioners, we are announcing a change to our Friday & Saturday Morning Mass schedule, effective August 1, 2025:

New Morning Mass Schedule:

Friday: 7:00 AM and 8:00 AM

Saturday: 8:00 AM Mass, followed by Confessions from 8:30 AM to 10:00 AM

2026 Mass intention book will open in August!

The 2026 book for Mass intentions will open on August 5th, and for the first two weeks we will take Mass intentions on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday's only. After the first two weeks you can come into the office on any day.

Mass intentions allow us to unite our specific prayers with the sacrifice of the Mass, the highest form of prayer in the Catholic Church. When a Mass is offered, it invokes God's grace, and through this offering, the graces from the Mass can provide spiritual benefits according to God's will.

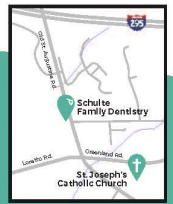

There is no cost to request a Mass intention, though a donation is customary and gratefully accepted. While the usual stipend is $10.00, if your financial situation doesn't allow it, please don't let that stop you - your intention is always welcome!
