Raising Holy Families

Faith Formation is a life-long journey, and the parish is the privileged place for this to take place. For our young students, we desire to help equip parents with their most important task of raising their children in the faith. All children in 1st-8th grades are expected to be enrolled in a formation program (parish school/homeschool/parish program). All immediate sacramental preparation is done through the parish. Please contact Elizabeth Miller emiller@holyfamijax.com to determine the right track for your family.

After Confirmation, our young Catholics should continue their formation: Veritas is for the young men and you can contact Chris Muller for more information: cmuller@holyfamijax.com.

We do offer a Montessori-style program for our youngest (ages 3-6) called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Because of the high-demand, there is limited space. Contact Jenny Bayo for more information: bayo.jennifer@gmail.com.

Adult Discipleship At Holy Family we desire to help each adult grow as a disciple of Christ. Don't know where to begin? Reach out to Chris Mueller, at cmueller@holyfamijax.com to get started!

If you are interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about your faith, reach out to Chris for more information.

Planning Study Update, Attend a Listening Session! Bishop Pohlmeier is working to address several challenges facing our diocese. Over the next several weeks, the bishop is asking every household to complete a planning study survey in order to gather your feedback regarding the proposed diocese needs. You are invited to learn more about these proposed needs and complete the survey by attending one of the upcoming Listening Sessions and then providing your feedback.

Please consider attending one of next week's meetings:
Tuesday, August 5 – 6:30 to 8 p.m., at Holy Faith, Gainesville
Wednesday, August 6 – 6:30 to 8 p.m., at Queen of

August Meditation

from Father David Keegan

The Collect (Opening Prayer) for the 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time invites us to reflect on the amazing work the Lord does in our lives:

Draw near to your servants, O Lord,
that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide,
you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored.

There is so much here to reflect on, and Mother Church invites us to keep this prayer in our minds and hearts throughout the week. Here is a brief reflection to guide your prayer:

- “Draw near to your servants, O Lord...”

With the boldness we saw last week in Abraham, we dare to approach the Lord and ask Him to be near. We do not ask timidly or from a distance. We speak to Him as children speak to their Father—with humble expectation that He will respond and come close.

Throughout Scripture, God is the One who draws near: to Moses in the burning bush, to Elijah in the whispering wind, to the Apostles in the Incarnation, and to each of us in the Eucharist. To pray “Draw near” is to ask God to do what He most desires—to dwell with His people.

- “that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide...”

To glory in God means more than offering Him praise—it means placing our confidence in Him, resting securely in His providence, and even boasting in it. Our identity is not rooted in possessions, accomplishments, or status, but in belonging to the One who made us and leads us.

He is our Creator and Guide, our Author and Perfecter (cf. Heb 12:2). We are not self-made, self-sufficient, or self-determining. We know that apart from Him we can do nothing, and we depend on Him for everything.

- “restore what you have created.”

This is the heart of the Gospel: God does not discard what is broken—He redeems it. To be restored is to be brought back to our original dignity. And in Christ, it means even more. Through the waters of Baptism, we become a new creation. This is what Baptism begins, what Confession renews, and what Heaven fulfills.

- “keep safe what you have restored.”

God is faithful. He does not redeem us and then leave us to fend for ourselves. In the daily spiritual battle, with its confusion, temptation, and fear, the Lord surrounds us with grace. To keep us safe He has left us the Church, the priesthood, the Sacraments, the Scriptures, the Liturgy, the Catechism, the example of the lives of the Saints, the writing of the Church Fathers, spiritual friends and holy communities, and so much more. All these assist in our response to the invitation to live lives of virtue and grace.

Let this prayer echo in your hearts this week. Let it draw us nearer to the One who first drew near to us.

Luca Gabriel, son of Pierra & Natalia Galea

The Touching the Divine Bible study focuses on qualities of Jesus revealed through the Gospel of John. This study draws us into a deeper, loving relationship with Jesus as we reflect on His life and personality.

Saint John referred to himself as “the disciple whom Jesus loved,” and as we study, John will teach us how much Jesus loves us and how His love is the true satisfaction of our souls.
