St. John Vianney Catholic Parish

St. Paschal Catholic Parish

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 29, 2023

What do the Beatitudes mean? Perhaps we must first look at the fruits and rewards of the beatitudes in order to deem them desirous in our own hearts. Do we want to possess the Kingdom of God, to be comforted, to inherit the land, to see God? Only when we are convinced that these rewards are a desire of ours, can we begin to look at the first part..

...the poor in spirit… those who mourn...the meek...they who hunger…

If these are properly understood in the context of the blessings they produce, then our desire for the means to that good fruit should grow as well. Perhaps, today, you look at which Beatitude is most difficult for you to desire. Look at the fruit it produces and spend time looking at that Beatitude within that context.

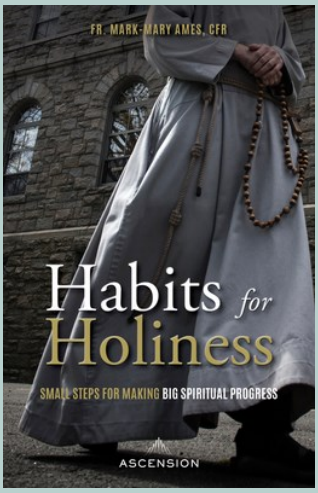
Let us keep all of the men attending in our prayers. That our Lord may preserve them in grace, protect them from all evil, and lead them in faith. Our Father...

From Fr. Kevin…

For those who wish to take on something a little extra for Lent, consider ordering and going through the short book Habits for Holiness. This is a helpful book written by a Franciscan friar to help its readers make greater strides in their spiritual lives. It is nine chapters long, so we will begin in early February in order to end by Easter. We will have some time blocked out at the parish each week for people to meet and discuss the chapters, (days and times TBD) or you are welcome to form your own small groups to have similar discussions.



Welcome to Ordinary Time!

It may seem to oppose it's own name, but there is nothing ordinary about this liturgical season. Ordinary in this context means "to have order". That is why our weeks have ordinal numbers (first, second, third, etc.). To help us celebrate Ordinary Time, the Church has gifted us with themes for each day of the week:

Sunday: The Weekly Easter– set the day apart and feast
Monday: Honor the Holy Angels– talk to your Guardian Angel
Tuesday: Honor the Apostles– pray for their intercession
Wednesday: Honor St. Joseph– pray for fathers
Thursday: Reverence for the Holy Eucharist– go to Adoration
Friday: Meditation on Christ's Passion and Death– make act of sacrifice or abstinence
Saturday: Honor the Blessed Mother– pray and meditate on the mysteries of the Rosary

Lent is Approaching

The Lenten season will begin February 22nd on Ash Wednesday. With less than 25 days before the start of the Lent, we are invited to ponder about the intentions we want to bring into this season of preparation.

How will we deepen our prayer life? What are we being called to fast from to give the Lord more space to work in us? What can we offer as almsgiving to others who need of Christ's light?

"He (the Devil) runs away when we make the sign of the cross." St Anthony the Abbot
