Una vez concluida la Temporada de Pascua el Día del Pentecostés, pasamos a la Época Ordinaria del Año que este fin de semana está marcada por dos celebraciones importantes. Primero, en el Día de los Caídos recordamos y honramos a todas las grandes mujeres y hombres uniformados que sacrificaron sus vidas y murieron, para que podamos disfrutar de la libertad que tenemos hoy. Directa o indirectamente podrían haberse inspirado en la enseñanza de Jesús: "Nadie tiene más amor que poner su vida para sus amigos...". Nos siguen inspirando a hacer lo que sea necesario para responder al llamado al deber por el país que amamos. También honramos a los que sobrevivieron y siguen con nosotros, y a todos aquellos que continúan haciendo sacrificios por nosotros.

En segundo lugar, celebramos la solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad que nos recuerda el vínculo especial que existe entre/entre las Tres Personas de Un Solo Dios. Dios padre nos creó a Su imagen y semejanza "para conocerlo, amarlo y servirle", según El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica. Cuando no cumplimos con los altos estándares establecidos para nosotros, Él envió a Su hijo unigénito, Jesucristo, para salvarnos de nuestro pecado. Sin embargo, seguimos necesitando constantemente que el Espíritu Santo, el Santificador, viva una vida de santidad mientras nos esforzamos por hacer de este mundo un lugar mejor para nosotros mismos y para aquellos que vendrán después de nosotros.

La relación simbiótica que une a las Tres Personas de la Trinidad debe inspirarnos en nuestras familias, comunidades, instituciones... recordándonos lo mucho que necesitamos para fortalecer nuestras propias relaciones interpersonales; tenemos que dar más de nuestro precioso tiempo el uno al otro para evitar la superficialidad que a veces marca nuestras amistades, e incluso los matrimonios, en nombre de estar demasiado ocupados. Creo que no hay nada más importante que estar ocupados por nuestras familias y las personas que amamos. Cualquier cosa menos que eso destruye la familia, la célula básica de nuestras sociedades y comunidades y parroquias.

Moisés, en primera lectura, nos recuerda el amor especial que Dios tiene por nosotros al elegirnos como Su pueblo especial; de todas las bendiciones especiales que hemos recibido de Dios en el pasado, las que seguimos recibiendo en el presente y muchas más que aún están por venir. Por nuestra parte, nos pide que guardemos los estatutos de Dios para nuestro propio bienestar y para aquellos que vendrán tras nosotros. Por lo tanto, amemos a Dios y nos amamos a nosotros mismos como nos amamos a nosotros mismos.

Que esta solemnidad nos haga verdaderamente interdependientes mientras nos esforzamos por fortalecer nuestras relaciones interpersonales.

Fr. Grace

Having concluded the Easter Season on Pentecost Day, we move into the Ordinary Time of the Year which this weekend is marked by two important celebrations. First, on Memorial Day we remember and honor all the great women and men in uniform who sacrificed their lives and did die, that we may enjoy the freedom we have today. Directly or indirectly they might have been inspired by Jesus' teaching, "No one has greater love than to lay his(her) life for his(her) friends...". They continue to inspire us to do whatever it takes to answer the call to duty for the country that we love. We also honor those who survived and are still with us, and all those who continue to make sacrifices for us.

Secondly, we celebrate The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity that reminds us of the special bond that exists between/among the Three Persons in One God. God the Father created us in His image and likeness "to know, love and serve Him", according to The Catechism of the Catholic Church. When we failed to live up to the high standards set for us, He sent His only begotten son, Jesus Christ, to save us out of our sinfulness. However, we remain in constant need of the Holy Spirit, the Sanctifier, to live a life of holiness as we strive to make this world a better place for ourselves and for those who will come after us.

The symbiotic relationship that binds the Three Persons of the Trinity should inspire us in our families, communities, institutions... reminding us of how much we need to strengthen our own interpersonal relationships; we need to give more of our precious time to one another in order to avoid the superficiality that sometimes marks our friendships, and even marriages, in the name of being too busy. I believe there is nothing more important than being busy for our families and the people we love. Anything short of that destroys the family, the basic cell of our societies and communities and parishes.

Moses, in the first reading, reminds us of the special love God has for us in choosing us as His special people; of all the special blessings we have received from God in the past, the ones we continue to receive in the present and many more that are yet to come. On our part he calls on us to keep God's statutes for our own wellbeing and of those who will come after us. Let's, therefore love God and love each other as we love ourselves.

May this Solemnity make us truly interdependent as we strive to strengthen our interpersonal relationships.

DECLARACIÓN DE LOS OBISPOS DE NUEVA JERSEY

Sobre restablecer la obligación general de asistir a Misa

En este momento, debido a la práctica de protocolos de seguridad y a un aumento en la disponibilidad y acceso a las vacunas, hemos iniciado un regreso a un cierto sentido de normalidad en varios sectores de nuestra sociedad.

Por consiguiente, nosotros, los Obispos católicos de Nueva Jersey, levantamos la dispensa del precepto dominical y festivo, comenzando el fin de semana del sábado y domingo, 5-6 de junio de 2021, Solemnidad del Cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo (Corpus Christi). Acogemos a los fieles en su regreso a la participación continua de la eucaristía dominical, fuente y culmen de la fe católica (véase Código de derecho canónico, 1247 y Catecismo de la iglesia católica, n. 2180).

Esta obligación no aplica para aquellos que estén enfermos; para aquellos que tengan una razón de peso y crean que recientemente estuvieron expuestos al coronavirus o a otra enfermedad seria o contagiosa; para aquellos que estén confinados en sus hogares, en un hospital, u hogar de ancianos; o para aquellos con condiciones serias de salud. Debes consultar con tu párroco local si surgen preguntas sobre la obligación de asistir a Misa (Canon 87).

Finalmente, siguen vigentes los protocolos de seguridad (llevar mascarilla, distancia social, etc.) y las directrices litúrgicas (comunión en la mano, comunión bajo una sola especie, etc.) en cada Diócesis de Nueva Jersey, hasta que se modifiquen o revoquen estas directrices por el respectivo Obispo diocesano del área.

Stewardship of Inheritance

The Most Holy Trinity

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ…" - ROMANS 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good Stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

30 de mayo de 2021

La Santísima Trinidad

"Y ese mismo Espíritu es el que, uniéndose al nuestro, da testimonio de que somos hijos de Dios. Y si somos hijos, también somos herederos: herederos de Dios y coherederos con Cristo…" ROMANOS 8:16-17

¿Si somos herederos del reino de Dios, no deberíamos trabajar para construir Su reino? ¿No deberíamos ser buenos administradores de su herencia, utilizando nuestro tiempo para orar, nuestro talento en obras de caridad y nuestros tesoros para cuidar de la Iglesia que Dios nos dejó? Nuestra Iglesia es un preciado legado de Dios. ¿La tratamos cómo lo que es?
