St. Anthony of Padua (+1231)

- "Christians! Recognize the great worth of the wisdom that is yours. Recognize too the discipline you must exercise, and the great prize you are called to. Mercy demands that you be merciful, righteousness that you be righteous, so that the creator may be shown forth in the creature and that, in the mirror of man's heart as in the lines of a portrait, the image of God may be reflected."

St. Leo the Great (+461)

- "The world tells you that you are made for comfort. You are not made for comfort, you're made for greatness!"

Pope Benedict XVI

St. Joseph, Patron of the Church,

"A Word From the Pastor" 24th Word from Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Along the way Jesus asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that I am?' They answered, 'Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, others one of the prophets.' 'And you,' he asked, 'who do you say I am?' Peter replied, 'You are the Christ.'" (Mark 8: 27 - 29) It is one of the key questions that Jesus asks in the Gospel, and he asks it of us as well as of the Apostles, "Who do YOU say that I am?" If, like Peter, we say that Jesus is the Messiah, the Christ, the Son of God, then we cannot stop listening when Jesus follows up with, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." (Mark 8: 34)

Following Christ means embracing the cross; it means dying to selfishness, pettiness, and worldliness. It means never separating Faith from Action, as St. James tells us: "Indeed someone might say, 'You have faith and I have works.' Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works." (James 2: 18) If we say Jesus is the Son of God, then we MUST follow him and imitate him by our actions. St. Anthony of Padua once said, "Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak!" It is not easy to follow Christ and live the gospel. It is not easy to take up our cross each day and follow the Lord. But as Pope Benedict XVI once said, "We are not made for comfort; we're made for greatness!" Jesus offers us all the grace we need to carry any cross and reach the ultimate greatness of being a child of God!

Our Music Director search continues. . .

We need everyone to pray and search to see if they know someone who could do the job!
