General uniform information: 25-26 School Year

- Students participating in Scouts are encouraged to wear appropriate uniforms on meeting days.
- Smock/jumper/skirt length should be no higher than 3 inches above the knee.
- Socks must come up at least 3 inches above the uniform shoe.
- Students are expected to be in full uniform each day of the school year, starting with the first day of school; including shirts tucked in all day.
- Students (boys and girls) in Grades 1-7 are required to wear the Mass uniform shirt and tie on all Mass days. PE uniforms are to be worn under the Mass uniform.

Hair, Accessories, Dress Down Days: 25-26 School Year

Haircut (Boys):

Male students must have a neatly groomed, moderate haircut that must not extend below the top of the collar of the school shirt in the back, not hang in the student's eyes in the front, be neatly cut above and around the ear, and is not excessively bushy. Extremes (i.e. wedge cuts or shaved heads) are to be avoided. No highlights or colored hair is permitted. Boys may not have a haircut with visible, distinctive lines.

Haircut, Cosmetics, Fingernails, and Headbands/Bows (Girls):

Female students must keep a clean, neatly groomed head of hair that is cut appropriately. No highlights or hair color is allowed. Hair accessories must be kept simple and in keeping with the school color scheme. No cosmetics or make-up of any kind should be worn by students during the school day.

Girls may wear fingernail polish that is of one solid color with no ornamentation. Permitted colors are clear, red, pink, white, and nude. French manicures are also acceptable. "Tips", false finger nails, and sculptured nails are not permitted.

Headbands and bows must be in the school plaid pattern or school colors (red, yellow, black, white). Girls may wear holiday headbands and bows during the week a holiday takes place or, if school will be out on the holiday, for the week preceding the holiday.

Jewelry (Boys and Girls):

Boys and girls may wear a watch (without remote control capacity, calculating capacity, the ability to message, the ability to access the Internet or audible beeps and alarms). Boys and girls may wear a small link chain with a religious medal or cross. Girls may one small earring per ear lobe in gold, silver, or solid colors of the uniform. Boys are not permitted to wear earrings of any type. Students should wear only one bracelet per wrist. Any jewelry that is not aligned with the Catholic teachings will not be allowed. Students will be asked to remove excessive jewelry.

*Permanent or temporary tattoos are not acceptable for any student, male or female.

Dress Down Days Dress Code

When "dress down days" are announced, information will be shared about what students will be permitted to wear. Students will be permitted to wear some shirt or top that is not the usual school uniform shirt/top. Students will also be permitted to wear their normal uniform shorts/skirt, PE shorts, PE shorts with leggings underneath, or full-length pants/athletic pants/or jeans. Tennis shoes may be worn (no Crocs or sandals). Socks are required. These policies extend to any "dress down day" offered by SPN, unless otherwise stated.

*The administration reserves the right to determine the appropriateness of grooming, outerwear, uniform, and all uniform accessories: including haircut, cosmetics, nails, headbands, bows, jewelry, and dress down items.
