

Catholic Schools Week: Lots of Prayer, Lots of Fun, and Open House!

It's Catholic Schools Week, and as you may know, Lumen Christi does it up right. Our Headmaster, Bob Collins, was interviewed on the Catholic Radio Indy program Faith In Action for Catholic Schools Week. To hear a podcast of the Faith In Action program (Episode 2), click here.

The culmination of the week is the extremely popular volleyball matches on Friday in which students face off against faculty—but the true focus of our Catholic schools celebration is prayer.

On Monday we pray for our Nation, Tuesday we pray for guidance in knowing our Vocation (including for Sam Rosko, seminarian who graduated from Lumen Christi), Wednesday is the prayer for St. Michael (a special prayer for police as they protect our nation's cities), Thursday we pray for teachers, and Friday we pray for students. Throughout the week we collect power snacks for the police and write notes and cards for them. Students also create a "Spiritual Bouquet" for Fathers McCarthy and Newton. Plus many more fun activities combined with spirituality!

Open House at Lumen Christi – Wed., Feb. 3, 12-2pm

Wednesday of Catholic Schools Week features Open House for families considering Lumen Christi, 12-2 pm. Please pass the word and invite your friends who might be interested! (Our ad in The Criterion is above.)

$103,000! God Has Truly Blessed our Annual Appeal!

The goal for the 2020 Annual Appeal was $68,000 and our amazing families, friends and supporters have donated over $84,000! And with matching corporate gifts of $19,000, God has given Lumen Christi over $103,000. We're thankful for our outgoing Development Director, Ellen Sanders, for all of her hard work on this appeal. Please join all of Lumen Christi in a prayer of thanksgiving to God for all of the incredibly generous donors who recognize the value of an independent, classical, Catholic education.

Our Annual Light in the City Dinner Will Be Here Before You Know it!
