

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

First Reading Isaiah 50:4-7
From the third suffering servant song of the prophet Isaiah. This song tells how the Messiah will be treated when He comes. Like the prophets before Him, the servant is ignored and even maltreated. In His treatment, He is steadfast. From the Cross, He does not despair but prays the Psalms.

Second Reading Philippians 2:6-11

Christ, Who existed from before the Creation of the world, did not exploit His Divinity for selfish gain. In emptying Himself He rendered Himself powerless – exactly as a slave is powerless. He did not empty Himself of Divinity, but of the status of Glory to which He had a right and which would be restored at His Exaltation.

The selfless attitude of Christ, shown in His original disposition to take on the slave-like, mortal human condition, continues throughout His human history. Throughout His whole life, Christ lived out perfectly the demands of human existence before God. Death was not simply the terminal point of His obedience; it was the inevitable consequence of being both fully human and totally obedient in a world alienated from God.

Gospel Luke 22:14 - 23:56

We hear today the Passion discourse from Jesus entry into Jerusalem, Last Supper, Betrayal, Trial, to His Crucifixion. In the Passover liturgy the head of the house took the bread for distribution as a symbol of how he provided for his own. Jesus now provides not bread, but His Own Body to sustain His family. The Passover meal was a memorial sacrifice which made the participants present at the original Passover meal in Egypt.

After Supper, Judas has gone to betray Jesus. In the garden, Jesus accepts, with total submission, God's Plan. The angel comforts Jesus, strengthening Him in His Redemptive Mission.

Judas now appears using the oriental form of greeting as the sign of treachery. A scuffle occurs and Peter cuts the ear of the priest's servant. Jesus heals the servant's ear.

Now St. Luke records the trial of Jesus. St. Luke's purpose is to describe a formal trial of Jesus by Israel. Jesus' witness at His trial becomes the model for the witness of Peter (Acts 4-5), Stephen (Acts 6-7), and of Paul (Acts 21-26) at their trials; trials which were predicted by Jesus.

The fullness of the judicial procedure by Pilate is arrest, charges, examination, verdict of innocent, supporting verdict of Herod, acquittal of Jesus, judicial warning. St. Luke has taken considerable pains to present Jesus' hearings before Pilate as forensic trials, legally correct in all aspects, and readily recognizable as such. <http://www.schoromeo.org>

Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión del Señor

Primera Lectura
Isaías 50:4-7
 Del tercer cántico del siervo sufriente del profeta Isaías. Esta canción dice cómo será tratado el Mesías cuando venga. Como los profetas antes que Él, el siervo es ignorado e incluso maltratado. En Su trato, Él es firme. Desde la Cruz no se desespera sino que reza los Salmos.

Segunda Lectura Filipenses 2:6-11

Cristo, Quien existió desde antes de la Creación del mundo, no explotó Su Divinidad para obtener ganancias egoístas. Al vaciarse a sí mismo, se volvió impotente, exactamente como un esclavo es impotente. No se despojó de la Divinidad, sino del estado de Gloria al que tenía derecho y que sería restituido en Su Exaltación.

La actitud desinteresada de Cristo, manifestada en su disposición original de asumir la condición humana mortal de esclavo, continúa a lo largo de su historia humana. A lo largo de toda su vida, Cristo vivió perfectamente las exigencias de la existencia humana ante Dios. La muerte no fue simplemente el punto final de su obediencia; era la consecuencia inevitable de ser plenamente humanos y totalmente obedientes en un mundo alienado de Dios.

Evangelio Lucas 22:14 - 23:56

Escuchamos hoy el discurso de la Pasión desde la entrada de Jesús en Jerusalén, Última Cena, Traición, Juicio, hasta Su Crucifixión. En la liturgia de la Pascua, el cabeza de familia tomaba el pan para distribuirlo como símbolo de cómo él proveía para los suyos. Jesús ahora no provee pan, sino Su propio Cuerpo para sostener a Su familia. La cena de Pascua era un sacrificio conmemorativo que hacía que los participantes estuvieran presentes en la cena original de Pascua en Egipto.

Después de la cena, Judas ha ido a traicionar a Jesús. En el jardín, Jesús acepta, con total sumisión, el Plan de Dios. El ángel consuela a Jesús, fortaleciéndolo en su Misión Redentora.

Judas aparece ahora usando la forma oriental de saludo como señal de traición. Se produce una pelea y Peter corta la oreja del sirviente del sacerdote. Jesús sana la oreja del sirviente.

Ahora, San Lucas registra el juicio de Jesús. El propósito de San Lucas es describir un juicio formal de Jesús por parte de Israel. El testimonio de Jesús en Su juicio se convierte en el modelo del testimonio de Pedro (Hechos 4-5), Esteban (Hechos 6-7) y Pablo (Hechos 21-26) en sus juicios; pruebas que fueron predichas por Jesús.

La plenitud del procedimiento judicial de Pilato es arresto, cargos, interrogatorio, veredicto de inocente, veredicto de apoyo de Herodes, absolución de Jesús, amonestación judicial. San Lucas se ha esforzado considerablemente en presentar las audiencias de Jesús ante Pilato como juicios forenses, legalmente correctos en todos los aspectos y fácilmente reconocibles como tales. <http://www.scborromeo.org>
