4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." - Mt 5:10-12a

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MATT

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I was in to visit my dear uncle, Fr. Bob McCreary, recently. He is a Capuchin, just like Fr. Ward and Fr. Jim. My uncle lives with the Friars at St. Augustine's in Lawrenceville. My uncle has been pretty sick recently and is really slowing down. One of the Friars sent a message to all of Fr. Bob's family and some friends and asked that some funny stories be written down. I'm sure that there are going to be a lot of them. He is a really funny guy. My uncle is honestly the holiest man that I have ever met. Goodness just pours out of him. He is one of those guys who just makes you feel better just being with him. A few years ago, at a jubilee celebration for a number of Friars, the provincial spoke of him as a man who has influenced so many others in the Church. It was a beautiful tribute. So often I just think of him as my uncle. He is that, but that night we learned that he is also so much more.

The day that I visited him, he had a little portable desk pulled up to his comfortable chair and was writing something. I asked what he was working on and he couldn't really say. I looked at his paper and read these words; "I am not worthy of any prayer I pray. Humility makes prayer, prayer." I thought that was so beautiful. So humble. So very much not what our culture is like today.

These days we seem to all believe that we are owed answers and explanations, from God and from others. We feel that we are entitled to our prayers being answered, and when they are not, we get angry or we quit. We say things like, "the God I believe in wouldn't let this kind of thing happen" so we decide not to believe in God. We demand that others see things exactly the way we see them, and when they don't, we try to cancel them or demand an explanation as to why your beliefs are not exactly the same as mine. We see ourselves as righteous when we are this way. But we aren't. We are arrogant. Arrogance leads to bitterness and disappointment. There is another way. It is the way of my uncle. It is the way of humility. Humility makes prayer, prayer. Humility leads to peace. Humility leads to blessedness.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit" Jesus says in the Gospel today. The "poor in spirit" are those who are humble. Those who know that they are not worthy of any of the graces and blessings that God gives them. Blessed are those who know they cannot earn by their own merits and deeds, any of the mercy God shows to them. We cannot earn it. We do not deserve it. We are not entitled to it. It is all grace. Blessed are those who realize this. In each reading this week, we are reminded of the blessings that come when we are humble. "Seek the Lord, all you humble of heart" we hear in the First Reading. This will lead you to peaceful pastures. The Lord will sustain the humble, we hear in the Responsorial Psalm. Boast only in the Lord, not in yourself, St. Paul tells us in the Second Reading.

This week, let's be on the lookout for any arrogance in our lives and in our hearts. In your relationship with God and with others, what do you feel entitled to? What do you think you deserve? What do you think you merit because of the work that you have done. Remember that this kind of stuff, stuff that makes us feel righteous, is just arrogance in disguise. Arrogance leads to bitterness and disappointment. The holiest man I have ever known doesn't believe that he is owed anything. He is not even worthy of the prayers he prays. It is all grace. This is humility. Humility leads to peace and blessedness. Yes, how blessed are the poor in spirit!

Peace and Love,
Fr. Matt

IMPORTANT! In an effort to reduce the amount of scam emails that frequently circulate, any email address published in the bulletin will now contain braces around the at symbol {@}. The braces are not part of the actual email address and need to be removed for the address to be valid. This technique helps cut down on the automated address harvesting by scammers. DID YOU KNOW?

ST. BLAISE FEAST DAY IS FEBRUARY 3RD.

St. Blaise was a physician specializing in ailments of the throat.

Some parishes have a tradition of blessing throats on this day. The priest holds two blessed candles crossed in the form of an X. The candles are held to the throat of the person while a prayer is said.

Please continue to pray for the following babies our parishes have "spiritually adopted":

Hannah, Savannah Marie, Lilliana Rose, Olive, Charlie, Suzanna Marie, John, Joy, Hannah, Zander, Angel, Sophia, Grace, Edward, Satinka, Stacy and Molly
Prayer cards can be found in the church entrances. Spiritual Adoption Certificates are available as well should you wish to "adopt", name and pray for a pre-born child and their family. The Pledge (to pray) Card can be returned in the collection basket.
