MESSAGE FROM FR. JACK GRAHAM, PASTOR

This weekend the Church celebrates the end of the Easter Season with the great feast of Pentecost. Pentecost marks fifty days since Easter Sunday, and is the celebration of the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church. It has often been said that with the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles in the upper room on Pentecost that the Church came into existence. This, in essence, is the birthday of the Church.

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Trinity. To be totally honest, I have always found it difficult to speak about the Holy Spirit. When I pray I usually find myself praying to God the Father or God the Son. I don't often find myself praying to the Holy Spirit. I think that this may be because it is easy for me to visualize God the Father and God the Son. I am not sure how exactly to visualize the Holy Spirit. I don't think that I am alone; many Catholics find it difficult to incorporate the God the Holy Spirit into their spiritual lives.

Recently I was fortunate to hear something that helped me to understand the Holy Spirit in a way that I never had before. Two weeks ago I was fortunate to have Deacon Paul preach at one of the Masses that I had at Saint Joseph. He told a story about his son Dylan. Paul and his wife Cheryl were young parents, Dylan was about four. It was a hectic Saturday morning and Paul and Cheryl took a break from the busy morning to sit together on the living room couch and try to catch their breath. Dylan came into the room, saw them sitting together, and ran up and jumped in between them. Paul said that Dylan had looked around and saw that the greatest love in that room existed in the almost nonexistent space between his mother and father. He decided that was where he wanted to be; he wanted to burrow himself into the great love that flowed between his mom and dad. As I listened I thought to myself, that may be the best description of the Trinity and the Holy Spirit that I have ever heard. The Holy Spirit is the love that flows between the Father and the Son; a love so powerful that it actually becomes the third Person of the Godhead. The selfless love of a husband and wife is a great example of what the Holy Spirit truly is.

On Pentecost God sent the Holy Spirit, the love that eternally flows between the Father and the Son, into this world and into our lives. That love is still with us, in the Church and in us by the grace of our baptism. Like Paul's son Dylan, we should want to do all that we can to burrow into that love; to be bathed in it; to be nourished by it. On this great day of Pentecost we should stop and be overwhelmed by the great love that God has offered to each one of us in the great gift of His Holy Spirit.

God Bless,
Fr. Jack Graham
