Requiescat in Pace

Please pray for the repose of the souls of the departed, and for the consolation of their families: Peggy Coleman, John McKinley, Jr. (father of Wendy Shaw), Ronald Warner, Frieda Kloeckner, Patricia Coursey, James Bougor
V/. Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord.
R/. And let perpetual light shine upon them.
V/. May their souls, and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. R/. Amen.

Sign of Peace

As we move past the pandemic, please be aware that some people may still choose to greet you at the Sign of Peace simply with a nod of the head or a smile.

Prayers are requested for Laurie Desautels

Congratulations to Fr. Robert Murphy
And to Deacon Greg Caldwell

Confession and Children

Ask any mom about her children, and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong ... and they often know they're doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong. The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, however, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future. Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what's wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God's unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an "Our Father" or two!

Hymnals

It is now permissible to leave hymnals in our pews. If you feel comfortable leaving yours for another person to use, please do so. However, if you do not feel comfortable, please continue to bring yours. In the coming weeks, we'll get a sense of how many hymnals to order, to get us through to Advent.

Liturgical Music and Singing at Mass

This weekend of July 3rd/4th, we will resume posting the hymn numbers. We will also maintain the Entrance Antiphon, and the Communion Antiphon, which was a pleasant realization that these are part of the Liturgy. Thus:

At the beginning of Mass: there will be a hymn, immediately followed by the Entrance Antiphon (which can be found with the readings).

At Communion: the Communion Antiphon will be chanted, followed by a hymn/anthem.

Please join in by chanting the Antiphons, and singing the hymns!
