Dear Parishioners,

Over these past few weeks we’ve all encountered some folks coming to Mass who either were not Catholic or perhaps had not been practicing for some time. First of all, thank goodness they were there to celebrate with us, as some of these folks may be family or friends of yours. Without making any presumption or judgment on what people know or don’t know, but because I’ve received some feedback on some inappropriate conduct or behavior and parishioners not sure what to do in certain situations, the next few bulletin columns will offer some helpful tips regarding “Mass etiquette.”

Is it ok to chew gum in Church? For several reasons, the answer is no. First, it violates the hour fast we are asked to make before receiving communion. Second, if we intend to receive communion, it is sacrilegious and disrespectful to the divine presence of Christ in the host to consume the Eucharist while chewing gum. Finally, it’s just plain rude and inappropriate. What if you see someone chewing gum at Mass? WITH CHARITY, mention to them that Father has asked us not to chew gum during Mass.

Is it ok to leave Mass early, like after receiving communion? Technically, the Mass is not concluded until the priest or deacon give the dismissal, “The Mass is ended, go in peace.” However, our custom is to pray the St. Michael prayer as a community and then sing the recessional hymn together. Sometimes people have an emergency – and obviously, that’s an exception. However, some folks rationalize that they don’t want to get stuck in the parking lot, or have a more important place to be. Again, this is inappropriate and just plain rude. Suppose you prepared a beautiful meal for someone and after they finished eating, they just left. No thank you. No gratitude. Just eat and run. This is a very dangerous habit to fall into regarding Mass because it puts ourselves above God and treats Mass with a consumerist mentality. Either we believe that Mass is the most important aspect of our faith or we don’t believe it. If we do believe that it is – then it demands respect and reverence. If we don’t – then why bother going? As I saw posted over the exit of a Church I was visiting: “Leaving Mass Early? One of the 12 did too!”

Have a blessed week!

With Mary,
In Christ,
Fr. Jon

NEWS FROM The Inland See

January 14–20, 2023
FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY 2023

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2023

Imagine what it must have been like to attend the Wedding Feast at Cana — the dancing, the days of celebration, the foods and the wine. Jesus, His mother Mary and the disciples are in attendance. And then through Mary's intercession and to everyone's amazement, Jesus chooses to perform His first miracle of turning water into wine.

This particular banquet, divine miracle and "act of love" prompt us to ponder and reflect upon the importance of marriage and family.

We can divine the significance of water, the choicest wine served last and the love to be matured over time through the newly married couple.

The Sacrament of Marriage between a husband and wife takes courage, commitment, sacrifice and vulnerability. Each of us can be encouraged by witnessing the sacramental love through a committed relationship which is cause for celebration.

The 2023 World Marriage Day will be celebrated in February. In Vermont, married couples who will be celebrating a milestone anniversary this year and were married in the Catholic Church are invited to the 10 a.m. Mass at The Cathedral of St. Joseph on Feb. 5. Recognition of couples married 5, 10, 15, 20 ... 50-plus years will follow the Mass. There will be a reception in the parish hall after Mass.

Please contact Nicole Hamilton at 802-658-6110, ext. 1131 or nhamilton@vermontcatholic.org by Jan. 27 to register. Include the couple's names, anniversary year (5, 10, 15, 20 ... 50, 51 or more), Catholic parish married in and name of priest/deacon who officiated. Requests will be accepted through Jan. 27.

Congratulations to all married couples. Let their love bear witness to God's faithful love and a little bit of heaven on Earth through their marriage covenant.

— Terri McCormack, Diocesan Coordinator of Marriage & Family Life

Marriage for Life Prayer

God of Blessing, God of Love, in this lifelong covenant of marriage, may we always be aware of your presence.

May our home be filled with the light and goodness that come from You.

May our marriage become the gift to the world you intend it to be.

May our joy in each other be abundant as your joy is abundant in us.

May our family reflect the image of Your absolute and unfailing love.

Through all trials and blessings of family life, may we turn and surrender to you in every moment, growing stronger in the faith, hope and love that binds us ever closer to you.

Grant that we may nurture in each other grace and wisdom, rooted in you while daily growing toward your heavenly kingdom.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

First Saturday Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary — February 4, 2023

In these times, let us seriously consider one of the important messages from Our Lady of Fatima — the First Saturday devotion for Reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This includes attending five consecutive first Saturday masses, going to confession within eight days, receiving Holy Communion, and meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary for fifteen minutes.

All Saints, Richford	Confession 7:30 am, followed by First Saturday Mass at 8 am, then devotional prayers.
Essex Catholic Community	The Saturday Vigil Mass may be used for the First Saturday Devotion: St. Lawrence at 4 pm and St. Pius X at 4:30 pm.
St. John Vianney, S. Burlington	Confession at 3 pm, Rosary at 4 pm and Vigil Mass 4:30 pm.
St. Mark, Burlington	First Saturday Mass at 9 am.

Does your parish offer special Marian devotion? Post it to the diocesan calendar and we will list it in The Inland See: vermontcatholic.org/events/community/add
