Dear Parishioners,

With summer upon us and the celebration of our country's Independence this week, one thing for us to keep in mind this week is what is actually meant by the separation of Church and State.

Most people are misled to believe that the separation of the institution of Church and State also requires a separation of religion from public life, and a separation of morality from law. But this understanding is erroneous. It is true that the jurisdiction (governing power) of Church and State are and ought to be separate with distinct authority, but this doesn't mean that we should separate our religious convictions and values from shaping public life or law. When discussing important public topics, each viewpoint – especially the different ethical systems that comprise our country – ought to be part of that conversation. Why?

Every piece of law or legislation embodies some aspect of morality, some belief – which is why as Catholics we need to respect the institutional separation of juridical authority between Church and State, while also being responsible as Catholics, who with our Catholic morality and worldview, help to inform and shape the public laws of our state and country. Not all morality is good morality – for example, laws that promote abortion or euthanasia of the elderly, or legislation that neglects the poor or vulnerable in our society – and these are laws we should fight against because they go against the core beliefs taught by Jesus and handed on through the Church.

As you celebrate our Independence Day this week, please remember to pray for our country, and especially its return to the Judeo-Christian values upon which it was founded. Have a blessed week.

With Mary,
In Christ

Prayer for our Nation

God our Father, giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for your glory and dwell among your people.

Send your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing your will.

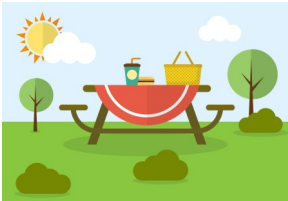

Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death." Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ Our Lord.
Amen.

Week of July 02, 2023

Maria Goretti: The Story of the Patroness of Modern Youth
Learn more about the holy life and martyrdom of St. Maria Goretti in this moving documentary. In particular, the film highlights her ultimate act of love: forgiving her murderer on her deathbed.

The Annie Moses Show - Salute To America
Based on the historical records and the personal testimony of his fellow friars, this is the amazing true story of the life of the famous stigmatic monk, St. Padre Pio, a contemporary saint who died in 1968.

The Resurrection of Jesus:
Luke 24 | The Bible Project | Book Collection
This video concludes Luke's epic portrait of Jesus of Nazareth. The disciples discover the empty tomb and eventually have their entire view of the world turned upside-down as they meet the risen Jesus. Luke shows how Jesus' kingdom of God mission to its climactic moment, and he sets the stage for its continuation in Luke's second volume, Acts.

SoulCore will be on hiatus for the summer. It will resume in September. Enjoy your summer!

There is no second collection next week.

Please note the adjusted Mass schedule this week.

The office will be closed Tuesday, July 4th. And during July and August, the office will be closing Fridays at noon.

Lamoille County Food Share has seen an increase in people asking for help. Please donate to the basket in the back of the church. Please be mindful of the expiration dates as donating something that has expired helps no one.

NEWS FROM The Inland See

July 1–7, 2023
FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

The Spiral of the Liturgical Year

“Sound familiar?” is what I’m always tempted to ask after the readings on Holy Days, such as Christmas Day or Easter Sunday. The nature of the ritual involves repetition. The liturgical year is arranged the same way each year (with minor adjustments from year to year), but we can safely say Advent always comes before Christmas and Lent before Easter. There is an extended season of Christmas after Christmas Day; likewise, an extended time of Easter follows Easter Sunday. The lectionary, the book that contains the readings we hear at Mass, assigns particular readings to every day of the year. Although the priest has some discretion to choose other readings within limited circumstances, we often hear the same readings from year to year, every other year, or every three years.

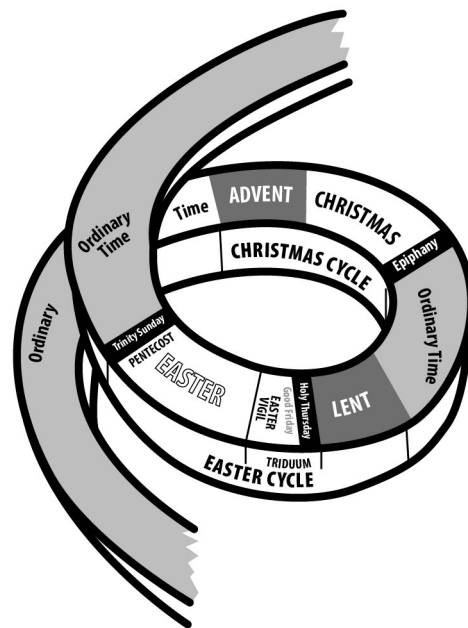

The readings that are assigned in the lectionary for weekday Masses are arranged in a 2-year cycle: Years I and II. The readings that are assigned to Sunday Masses (and Saturday Masses of anticipation) are arranged in a 3-year cycle: Years A, B, and C. On certain Holy Days of Obligation such as Christmas Day and Easter Sunday — because of their importance to the Catholic faith — the same readings are assigned every year. We will hear the story of Jesus’s birth on Christmas morning and the story of the Resurrection on Easter Sunday. Currently, in July 2023, we are in Year A/Year I.

Notice that I used the term “cycle” above. Oftentimes, we think of the liturgical year or the cycle of readings in a circular way; they repeat after a certain duration, and we’re back to where we began one, two, or three years ago. But the liturgical year and the cycle of readings can be better thought of in terms of a spiral. There’s a circular motion in a spiral, but the design of the spiral never returns to the original point. This is a better description of the liturgical year and the cycle of readings. Even though the readings repeat from year to year, you and I are different than we were the last time we encountered particular words from Scripture, and we might hear those words of Scripture very differently than before. I hear the Christmas story and the Resurrection story differently than I did three years ago, 10 years ago, or 50 years ago. My life experiences have changed me, and hopefully, my faith life has deepened. So even though the Church will not surprise you with a different passage of Scripture read on Pentecost Sunday, and you will hear the story about the Holy Spirit coming to the Apostles, you may be surprised by what God says to you in the hearing of that same Pentecost story this year.

Listen carefully, then, to the readings proclaimed in Scripture. Listen as if you’re hearing those readings for the first time. Let your life experiences interact with the Holy Word of God, and in that space of interaction, allow the Holy Spirit to enter and communicate what God needs to communicate to you. You may be surprised at how unfamiliar, new, and exciting the story seems to you.
