Dear Parishioners,

This past week the youth of our parish participated in TOTUS TUUS, a diocesan wide Catholic Youth camp that sends a team of missionary teachers (college-aged) to parishes to run the day program for the youth and the evening program for the high schoolers – and it was a tremendously successful week!

Not only did our youth learn a ton about their faith, but they encountered why being Catholic is so enlivening and fun. From awesome songs, competitive games, learning to pray, receiving the sacraments, and the grand finale – water fight on Friday afternoon for the day program kids, to the engaging talks, family-style dinners, celebration of the sacraments and Thursday fun night finish at Stowe Bowl for the high school group, the youth and families of our parish have been filled to overflowing with the joy of living and sharing our Catholic faith and our love for Jesus Christ!

Fr. Paul and I want to thank all the volunteers and parents who did so much work behind-the-scenes to help make this week so successful, especially Michelle Tomlinson and Gabrielle Hopkins who were the on-site program coordinators. For all who donated time, money, and food, and to those who opened their homes to the missionary teachers – thank you! Many of our homebound and nursing home folks also supported the program by praying a daily rosary for specific intentions each day this past week, lifting up the children, their families, and the teachers in prayer. It was a tremendous gift to have so many join us for daily Mass at Blessed Sacrament this week to pray with and for our youth – your presence was a powerful witness to encourage them that our faith is lifelong commitment to God!

Finally, Fr. Paul and I would like to thank the 2023 Totus Tuus team - Joey, Anthony, Alyssa, and Brigitte who gave so tirelessly of themselves to share their faith in God and their love for Jesus with our youth. As a parish we are grateful for your generous heart and willingness to give 100% to our young people. Your faith is beautiful and contagious, and please know of our gratitude for sharing your time, your summer, and yourselves with us. May our Lord Jesus bless you for your goodness in teaching, loving, and serving his children!

With Mary,
In Christ

Divine Office Hymnal Now Available

Sixty years ago, the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council expressed an earnest desire that the entire Church join in offering praise to God in the Divine Office. The Council encouraged praying the Hours in common whenever possible -- prayer that is expressed with music, and prayer that is carried out with understanding. The International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) spent several years translating the nearly 300 Latin hymns of the Divine Office. These translations were approved by the USCCB in 2019. In addition, ICEL proposed melodies suited to each text -- including the Gregorian chant melodies of the Liber hymnarius as well as public domain tunes. The hymnal makes use of these suggestions by presenting both metrical and plainsong settings for each hymn. The USCCB has worked with GIA in the production of this hymnal and GIA was granted publishing permission. The hymnal is NOW AVAILABLE. GIA Publications - The Divine Office Hymnal

NEWS FROM The Inland See

July 29 – August 4, 2023
FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Celebrating Founder's Day: 170 years of the Diocese of Burlington

On July 29, 1853, the Roman Catholic Diocese of Burlington was founded and every year on July 29th we celebrate Founder's Day. In this commemorative anniversary of 170 years, we celebrate all the bishops, pastors, and lay leaders who built our Diocese over the years to our current parishes and ministries.

Bishop Louis deGoës Briand was the first bishop of the Diocese of Burlington and served until his death in 1899. The 'founding bishop', he used all his inherited wealth to build the Church in Vermont, bringing it from missionary territory to leaving behind a Church that had grown in number of Catholics, number of churches, and number of Catholic schools. By 1891, there were eight academies and 16 parochial schools in the Diocese with seven congregations of women religious to staff them, six of the schools founded during this time are still around today. Five priests had awaited his arrival, and the number of Vermont priests grew to 52 in 1892 thanks to his efforts to foster vocations in Vermont and recruit priests from France, Canada and Ireland. The number of churches increased from 10 to 78 during his episcopacy, and the number of Catholics grew from less than 20,000 to more than 46,000 — most Irish or French-speaking Canadians. "There is no nook, no corner, no hamlet, no village, no town, no city of this Diocese which has not been repeatedly blessed by his presence and his labors," said a bishop during Bishop deGoës Briand's funeral.

We have once again found ourselves as a missionary diocese with an aging population and declining participation, making the ministries of the Bishop's Annual Appeal essential, which include supporting our pastoral ministries, Catholic schools, emergency aid, vocations, and faith formation programs.

This year we are excited to announce that we have received a matching grant of $10,000 from Vermont Catholic Community Foundation and will be matching all gifts on July 29th, until fulfilled. Please prayerfully consider a gift in honor of the work of the diocese over the last 170 years and in honor of Archbishop Christopher Coyne.
