St. Anthony Parish would like to welcome all those who are visiting with us this weekend.

“Lord, will only a few people be saved?”

Wow! Now there is a loaded question!

Jesus’ answer is unsettling. Our Lord speaks of the way to Heaven as a “narrow gate”, that is to say it requires effort and attention. It is something that will require not physical strength, but, if you will, moral strength and determination to walk a difficult road and pass through a narrow gate. Impossible? No, of course not, but yes, it will be hard. Our Lord goes on to say that no doubt many will be surprised both with who is and who is not with us in Heaven, because some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last.

We are now in the process of planning this year’s Christmas craft and bake sale. There will be a meeting on Wednesday, August 31, 2022, in the parish hall at 6:00 pm for anyone who is interested in helping with this event.

If you are unable to help in the planning or at the event itself but would like to contribute in other ways, please keep us in mind when you are making jam, jellies, pickles, preserves, etc. this season. A variety of homemade canned and baked goods are always welcome.

Weekly Bulletin: Our bulletin is on our website <https://stanthony.vermontcatholic.org>. For those who do not have online access and would like a copy of the printed bulletin, you may pick one up outside the parish office from the wooden box on the small porch near the office door. You will also find copies of the Living Faith booklet and the Vermont Catholic magazine.

Sanctuary Lamps: The Sanctuary Lamps that are always burning in front of the tabernacle may be sponsored for your intentions. Each candle burns for 14 days. A donation to help defray the cost of the candle is appreciated, but not necessary. Please contact the office for availability.

Assistance to Our Neighbors in Need: As a parish, we have opportunities to support those in our community who are in need, both through our prayers and our financial help. Saint Anthony Parish publishes the Haven’s weekly list of needs in the bulletin and has collected food weekly for them. This parish project helps people year-round. We also have a fund that allows us to provide individuals and families financial assistance for emergency needs such as fuel, shelter, and other essentials. Donations to replenish our Assistance Fund allow us to continue to provide for these needs. A check made out to Saint Anthony Church marked “Assistance” will ensure your donation is used for this purpose. Thank you for your generosity.

Mass Intentions: If you would like to have a Mass offered for your intentions, for loved ones living or deceased, or for a special occasion, please contact the parish office by email, phone, or drop a note in the collection box. Please include the name of the person for whom the Mass will be offered and who is requesting the Mass. Let us know if you want a specific date or if you would prefer the first available Mass, weekday, or weekend. We will do our best to accommodate your requests. Please include your contact information in the event that we are unable to reserve the date you have requested. The customary offering is $10. Thank you.

2022 Bishop's Annual Appeal: Gifts made online of $1,000 or more to the 2022 Bishop's Annual Appeal will be matched with $1,000 up to $20,000 (one match per parish). To make a gift online visit: vermontcatholic.org/giveonline. As of August 16, 2022, our parish donations, and pledges total $10,488.00, or 30% of our parish goal of $35,032.20. Extra envelopes with pledge cards may be found on the tables at the entrance of the church and in our bulletin box near the door of the parish office. Thank you for your support of the important work of the Diocese of Burlington. We all share in the benefits of that work.

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Priest's role at Mass is multi-faceted

One of my earliest memories of attending Mass as a child involved my thinking that God must be in the attic of the church. My mother and I most often sat about half-way back from the sanctuary; a perfect spot for a child like me to see not the altar or the priest, but the back of people's heads. I couldn't see a thing when everyone was standing, but I could hear everything through the sound system. I heard the voice over the sound system "Glory to God in the highest ... Let us pray ... This is my body ... This is my blood." Our speakers were hung from the ceiling, and so it sounded like a booming voice from above. For whatever reason, I associated that voice with God. And with the voice coming from above, I thought, "Could God be in the attic of the church?"

I find it intriguing that this memory came back to me as I began writing this article on the role of the priest at Mass. You see, the priest isn't the voice of God in the attic. The priest, through the Sacrament of Holy Orders, stands in the midst of, or more appropriately, at the head of the liturgical assembly — the Body of Christ — as the very person of Christ as head of that body. No, Josh, God isn't in the attic when we celebrate liturgy. He is much, much closer.

The priest's role at Mass is multi-faceted, and the confines of this article unfortunately do not allow me to dive into the beauty of the priesthood as exercised in the liturgy. There's so much important imagery to uncover! At a very basic, human level though — perhaps the most fundamental level — the priest is seen as presiding over the gathered assembly. He leads the prayers and prompts the participation of the people. His leadership in the liturgical assembly can help express the faith of the Church (or obscure that expression of faith); his role can be instrumental in fostering unity in worship with the Church Universal (or fostering division).

He fulfills this role in the very way he celebrates the liturgy. It is for this precise reason that a priest is entrusted not only with the reverent celebration of liturgy but with the very careful preparation of the liturgy. Too often the temptation is to fall back onto the "ritual" and not be attentive to how one leads the liturgical assembly. Although there is comfort in following the ritual structure, the danger is that one falls into a ritual "rut" and neglects attention to the preparation needed to celebrate liturgy "worthily and well."

This applies not only to the preparation of the priest but the preparation of all the ministers and to everyone who gathers for liturgy! In their 2009 document on music, "Sing to the Lord," the bishops of the United States said "faith grows when it is well expressed in celebration. Good celebrations can foster and nourish faith. Poor celebrations may weaken it" (my emphasis).

I'll conclude with a word of gratitude to all the liturgical ministers — especially our priests and deacons — who, week after week, take the time to carefully prepare the liturgy, whether it be through attention to their homily, or to the ritual and music, or to how they voice the prayers or bodily express the faith. Your preparation fosters faith. Perhaps your preparation will even make a young child think that God can be found in the attic of the church. Or better yet — even closer.

AFFIRMING A CULTURE OF LIFE

It is time for some of us to confess/repent of a serious sin: judging the struggling, single mother and thinking "this situation is her fault, the result of her irresponsible behavior and poor choices." "A person reaps what they sow..." We resent that we are now burdened by her needs (and the needs of the child), because of her "poor choices."

Shame, shame, shame on any of us who have such thoughts. This mother chose life! She chose life for her child, and we should celebrate and rejoice. Rather than the easy way, she has chosen the hard path, the path of self-sacrifice for the sake of her child. It is on us to walk beside her, and help however we can. There are only two choices that really matter in life — the last one, and the next one. Her last choice was life. Let us rejoice!

Let us affirm life — please vote "no" to Article 22.

Don't leave home without it

If you've ever been locked out even once because you forgot your key, chances are you now check your pockets before you step outside the door. Being on the wrong side of a barred door is tough when it's due to hapless error. It's positively brutal when a door remains shut in your face because of something you did or failed to do. We've all received the key to a warm welcome at the threshold of God's realm: love. Church-going and check-writing may be basic but not key. The door opens to those whose hearts are open. Wherever you go today, check your pockets for love.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 66:18-21; Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13; Luke 13:22-30 (123). "I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers!"

A throne on high

In many ancient cultures, including Israel's, it wasn't the wife of the king who was queen. Rather, the mother of the king was queen. And while her son was the unquestionable ruler, she often had tremendous influence over him. The same goes in heaven.

Today's memorial is eight days—an octave—after celebrating Mary's Assumption. Pope Pius XII, who declared the dogma of the Assumption, said of his instituting the feast of Mary's Queenship, "so that all may recognize more clearly and venerate more devoutly the merciful and maternal sway of the Mother of God."

Remember to hail your queen, Mary, today.

MEMORIAL OF THE QUEENSHIP OF MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Thessalonians 1:1-5, 11-12; Matthew 23:13-22 (425). "One who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by him who is seated on it."

It's your serve

Saint Rose of Lima—like her saintly role model before her, Catherine of Siena—proved that you didn't need to become a nun to live a notable life of Christian piety and service. Both women were drawn to holiness at a young age, both resisted their parents' pressure to marry, both even took measures to make themselves less attractive to suitors. Each joined the lay Dominicans. Rose sought a sacrificial life as she brought home needy people to care for, saying, "When we serve the poor and the sick, we serve Jesus." How will you serve Jesus today?

MEMORIAL OF ROSE OF LIMA, THIRD ORDER DOMINICAN

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Thessalonians 2:1-3a, 14-17; Matthew 23:23-26 (426). "Cleanse first the inside of the cup, so that the outside also may be clean."

As I lay dying

Elisabeth Kübler-Ross died on this date in 2004. Early in her medical training, she was horrified to see the term "hopeless patient" commonly applied to the terminally ill, who were often overly sedated and neglected. She went on to transform the way we look at terminal illness. A pioneer in hospice and palliative care, bioethics, and near-death research, she led the movement to "treat the dying with dignity" and her 1969 classic On Death and Dying changed the way we look at grief. Perhaps appropriate that today is also the feast of Saint Bartholomew, the apostle famed for his painful death as a martyr. We can all play a part in bringing comfort and dignity to the dying process.

FEAST OF BARTHOLOMEW, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 21:9b-14; John 1:45-51 (629). "Philip said to him, 'Come and see.'"

Be resilient in the face of resistance

Saint Joseph Calasanz is now widely recognized for his devotion to educating needy students. However, during his 17th-century lifetime Joseph encountered strong resistance. His family opposed his becoming a priest, and after he had founded innovative schools for the poor and the Piarist religious community to tend those schools, enemies attacked. In his 80s, the church removed Joseph from education leadership, and dissolved the Piarists. After his death, the Piarists were restored, and they continue their education ministry around the world today. If you struggle with a seeming failure, look to the life of Saint Joseph of Calasanz for a model of faithfulness and endurance.

MEMORIAL OF JOSEPH CALASANZ, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 1:1-9; Matthew 24:42-51 (428).

"Jesus said to his disciples: 'Stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.'"

Dialogue to break new ground

There's a lot of talk right now. Talk about gun control, women's rights, dismantling racism—or not. The conversations are urgent yet often feel futile. What we need, writes Father Raimon Panikkar, whose anniversary of death is today, is not talk, but dialogue. Dialogue "is not a simple conversation, not a mere mutual enrichment by the supplementary information that is contributed; it is not exclusively a corrective of misunderstandings . . . It is the joint search for the shared and the different." How can you foster this kind of dialogue that nourishes what each person contributes?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 1:17-25; Matthew 25:1-13 (429).

"Where is the wise one? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made the wisdom of the world foolish?"

Don't stop believing

At some point or another, each of us loses our way in life. Some only briefly, others for a long time. Sadly, some never find their way home. But if we are blessed with someone as special as Saint Monica, we might be fortunate enough to share the fate her famous son, Saint Augustine. He wrote in his Confessions that she had "brought me to birth, both in her flesh, so that I was born into this temporal light, and in her heart, that I might be born into eternal light." Give thanks for the people in your life who never stopped believing in you.

MEMORIAL OF MONICA, MOTHER OF AUGUSTINE

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 1:26-31; Matthew 25:14-30 (430).

"His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant.'"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
