The Christian Crisis of Teen Doubt:

Young Catholics leave their faith at rates higher than almost any other religious group. Today, 79% of Catholics who have left the Church did so before age 23. As parents and grandparents, aunts and uncles, we need to understand why so many young people are abandoning their faith. We must develop not only Christian hearts, but the Christian minds of our teens. Our guest speaker, Joe Blanchette, will share important insights about this problem and how we can help. You won't want to miss this 3-part seminar!
