12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus calm the raging sea as His disciples cling to the storm-tossed boat. The disciples were terrified that they would die, but Jesus suggests that their faith should have reassured them. Many of us can probably recall a time when our father came to our rescue, protecting or supporting us, making everything all right. Today, we honor our dads, our grandfathers, godfathers, uncles, and all who have acted as fathers in our lives. May their protection and constancy be a model of God's care for us.

We're back to "Normal"!!

Beginning immediately there will be

- no mask mandates to attend Masses (but you may wear if you wish to for personal reasons)
- no social distancing required
- no limits on the number of people who may congregate
- our churches can be at full capacity
- gatherings in our parish halls, etc, can resume at full capacity
- our music ministries may resume in full

The only concession that will remain is that we are asked to refrain from touching those not in our immediate families during the "sign of peace".

Bishop Coyne anticipates reinstating the requirement to attend Mass in person around the weekend of July 3-4. Please check the diocesan website if you have questions.

CONGRATULATIONS VERMONTERS!

We're the first state in the nation to reach an 80% vaccination rate! Thanks to everyone who took part in this monumental effort, from the medical personnel to the people receiving the vaccines. We did it! Now get out there and enjoy all the Islands have to offer this summer!

The Deacon's Bench

Thoughts...

Thinking of the storms life gives us and how we respond, living this year of Saint Joseph, and honoring fathers this weekend, I propose this small poem I found.

Strength of a Mountain

God took the strength of a mountain,
 The majesty of a tree,
 The warmth of a summer sun,
 The calm of a quiet sea,
 The generous soul of nature,
 The comforting arm of night,
 The wisdom of the ages,
 The power of the eagle's flight,
 The joy of a morning in spring,
 The faith of a mustard seed,
 The patience of eternity,
 The depth of a family need,
 Then God combined these qualities,
 When there was nothing more to add,
 He knew His masterpiece was complete,
 And so, He called it ... Dad

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

The Patience of a Father

One of my favorite parts of the baptismal rite, outside of the actual baptism, is the blessing of the parents. The blessing of the father includes, “...bless the father of this child, so that, together with his wife, they may, by word and example, prove to be the first witnesses of the faith to their child. ...” Receiving that blessing, with my head bowed, is always very moving, very necessary, and quite frankly appreciated! I need all the prayers and graces I can get, especially so that my own example and words may give authentic witness to the faith.

As the father of seven children now ranging in age from three to 15 years, life is joyful, but challenging. And yet, these have been the most fulfilling and beautiful years of my life.

However, parenting doesn't come with a roadmap or instruction manual. That's why I ask the Lord for the grace to be as gentle and loving as St. Joseph was.

During this year, we have added another petition to our family prayers at dinnertime. After saying grace, I invoke one of the titles from the Litany to St. Joseph, asking that he “pray for us.” It has been a small and beautiful way for us as a family to mark the Year of St. Joseph. The title that I find myself most frequently invoking, as my children can attest, is “St. Joseph, mirror of patience, pray for us!”

Fatherhood has a way of making us face our weaknesses and failings. We are confronted with them daily, especially and too often in our interactions with those closest to us, our wife and children. I know I am.

And yet, as St. Paul reminds us, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness” (2 Cor 12:9). With our Lord's help, we can be like St. Joseph as loving, self-sacrificing, and yes, even as patient, as we are called to be.

One image of St. Joseph from the film, “Jesus of Nazareth” clearly shows his patience and kind disposition even in the face of adversity: A customer comes up to Joseph to pick up a wood tool that Joseph made. The man is clearly agitated and not satisfied, and yet St. Joseph remains calm, patient and never raises his voice or shows any agitation throughout the conversation.

While this may not be the usual reaction of a person to a difficult situation, it is for St. Joseph, as a fruit of his life rooted in grace and prayer.

And indeed, that's a model worth striving for.

In evangelization, patience is often the key to helping a person come to know our Lord. Consider how patient the Lord is with His disciples and those who come to Him seeking truth. In the example our Lord gave of the Prodigal Son, the father exemplifies patience as he waits and watches for his lost son to return home (along, no doubt, with many prayers).

An old hymn, “O Blessed Saint Joseph” includes the prayerful verse, “The father of Jesus! I wish you would be ... a father to me” (Paderborn, 1765). I pray that we in turn may be so loving and patient with those to whom we are father and that our example and witness may draw many others to that same life of faith.
