MISSIONARIES OF MERCY

Pauls back! After last weeks violent abuse, opponents organized a lynch mob that beat Paul nearly to death. But call Paul the energizing evangelist, transforming deadly cruelty into life-giving zeal. Pauls past courage should inspire our commitment; Revelations future new heaven, new earth should inspire our optimism. But Revelations present assurance, Behold, Gods dwelling is with the human race, should challenge us to become missionaries of mercy. Because Pope Francis declared that the Churchs credibility is completely dependent on our showing unconditional mercy. Mercy, said Francis, makes the Church, the world, and everyone young again, reawakened to lifes noblest virtues. Fittingly, in todays Gospel Jesus reinforces that theme: This is how all will know you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

"the life of Jesus is a life for others. It is a life of service." -Pope Francis

Thank you to all those who have been able to make a gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal.

Your gift helps families like "Amber" who found housing through Vermont Catholic Charities' Emergency Aid program after being homeless of 10 months. Each year an average of 2000 people in financial crisis receive emergency aid. We ask that you prayerfully consider donating to the appeal to support the Catholic Church in Vermont. The Richmond Historical Society is seeking volunteers to serve as guides at the Old Round Church this season. The church will be open to visitors on weekends beginning on May 25, and daily from June 17 to Labor Day as well as during the fall foliage season. Each guide serves a three-hour shift (10:00 AM -1:00 PM or 1:00 PM -4:00 PM), typically once or twice a month.

Every year, visitors from around the U.S. and about two dozen other countries make their way to the Old Round Church. Guides share information about the church as well as supervise sales of postcards and other memorabilia. A one-hour training/orientation session will be held in mid-June. If you'd like to help keep this beautiful National Historic Landmark open throughout the season, please contact guide coordinator Martha Turner at turnerbatt@aol.com or 434-6453.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Frequent fliers today have many ways to accrue air miles, so one doesn't always have to endure long hours in cramped seats to earn free hours in cramped seats. In St. Paul's day, there were no such perks, nor would there have been any legal system for him to protest the shipwrecks he endured. He had other rewards in mind. The churches that he established in the catalogue of cities from today's first reading must have been very different from one another. Language, culture, customs, religious history, obstacles to community, social challenges, the places where they met, their clothing, their bread and wine, all distinct, particular to the area. There were social customs as well: in a Christian household, the only place where a slave would be able to stand legally as an equal with the master would be at the table of the Lord, because at that table a new world of reconciliation was imaged. While Paul revered local customs, he was relentless about challenging the ways that people lived their Christian lives and how their worship reflected them. It is much the same today, as a global Catholic Church seeks to respect local customs and culture, allowing for differences in many things, yet always giving expression to the underlying presence of Christ, who binds us all together into his body.
