SAINT PIUS X (1835-1914)

August 21

Presidential vetoes we understand. But imagine vetoing a papal election! Yet in the conclave of 1903, the Archbishop of Cracow (ironically, a predecessor in that office of Karol Wojtyla, the future John Paul II) vetoed the leading candidate on the order of the Austro-Hungarian emperor. Instead, the cardinals elected Giuseppe Sarto of Venice as Pius X, the first pope, after a succession of nobles and diplomats, to hail from humble origins. Nor did the papacy alter his endearing simplicity. Tailors eventually made his cassock cuffs detachable because he absentmindedly wiped his fountain pen on them, forgetting that his old black cassock had been replaced by papal white! Taking as his motto "To restore all things in Christ" (Ephesians 1:10), Pius condemned the theological innovations called "modernism," yet dramatically altered the then-common practice whereby people rarely received Communion for fear of unworthiness, mandating early First Communion and urging everyone to frequent reception. Refusing to bless troops assembled in Saint Peter's Square—"I bless peace, not war!"—he died brokenhearted as World War I engulfed Christian Europe despite his peacemaking efforts. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. For the Intentions of Immaculate Heart of Mary
Parishioners

Masses are most commonly offered for the souls of our departed loved ones, but Mass may also be offered for the intentions of those still with us, or in thanksgiving for blessings received. The Mass is the heart of our Catholic faith, and so it is the most potent prayer we can offer. Contact either rectory to schedule. The customary donation is $10.

COMMUNION AT HOME

Parishioners wishing to be visited by a Eucharistic Minister for Communion and who are not worried about accepting community members into their homes during the COVID-19 pandemic, may call or e-mail either office.

We would also like to hear from parish Eucharistic Ministers who are feeling ready to bring Communion to the homebound.

GOOD EXAMPLE

A faithful Christian, illumined by the rays of grace like a crystal, ought to illumine his neighbor with the light of good example, through word and deed.
—St. Anthony

The Christ Our Hope: Building a Vibrant Church campaign is underway! Teamed with the rest of the parishes across the state, we will be joined together in our effort to strengthen our Catholic Church in Vermont and renew our own parishes.

You should have received a letter with Frequently Asked Questions that hopefully answered many of your questions about the campaign and why we need to do this now. This week every registered parish household will receive a packet of campaign information from our parish. The mailing will include a gift request letter signed by Bishop Coyne with instructions on how you can invest in the futures of Immaculate Heart of Mary and Our Lady of the Holy Rosary and strengthen the Catholic Church in Vermont.

The request letter is an invitation not an expectation. We understand these are difficult times, but, as a Church, our needs have not diminished and for many they have increased. We first ask you to make the gift of prayer for the success of the campaign. We then ask you to consider our shared responsibility for the needs of our spiritual home, our parish, and the future of our Catholic Church in Vermont. Finally, we invite those who can give to prayerfully consider a sacrificial gift beyond their usual offertory and bishop's appeal contribution.

To learn more about the campaign visit:

www.christourhopevt.org

As Lectors feel more comfortable coming into the church for Mass, please let your respective parish office know you are ready to approach the lectern once more.

Our Lady of the Holy Rosary will be putting together an updated Lector List for Masses beginning the weekend of August 29/30.

Great News - Worldwide Marriage Encounter has gone "Virtual"!

Worldwide Marriage Encounter is sponsoring a virtual marriage experience called Restore – Rekindle – Renew. We will meet via Zoom for seven sessions on Monday evenings September 14 to October 26 from 7-9:30 PM.

Couples will explore their individual personality styles, improve listening and communication skills, understand God's plan for their marriage, and learn how to keep their relationship a priority.

Registration is limited and a $100 application fee is required. For more information or to apply, call John & Diane Forcier at 802-657-3083 or visit them at <https://www.mevt.org/>.

How the Church Recognizes Saints

By Jeannine Marino

The process of declaring one a saint in the Catholic Church is called canonization. The canonization process is a canonical (Church law) procedure by which the Church through the Pope solemnly declares a Catholic to be united with God in heaven, an intercessory to God on behalf of the living, and worthy of public and universal veneration.

A cause of canonization examines a person's life and death to determine if they were either martyred or lived a virtuous life. Every cause of canonization has two phases: the diocesan and Roman phase. The diocese responsible for opening a cause is the diocese in which the person died/was martyred. The diocese, religious order, association or lay person(s) requesting (petitioning) for the cause asks the diocesan bishop, through a person known as the postulator to open an investigation into the martyrdom or life of the person.

The diocesan bishop investigates how the person lived a heroic virtuous life, exemplifying the virtues of faith, hope and love through the calling of witnesses and the theological examination of the candidates' writings. If the cause is based on martyrdom, the diocesan bishop investigates the circumstances surrounding the alleged martyrdom, which is also done through the calling of witnesses to the martyrdom and the examination of the candidates' life.

Once the diocesan investigation is complete, the documentation (evidence) that has been collected is sent to the Vatican's Congregation for the Causes of Saints and the Roman phase begins. The first step in the Roman phase is the examination of the diocesan documentation. If the congregation's theologians find the documentation convincing, it is sent for review by the cardinal and bishop members of the congregation. If they also find the documentation favorable, it is sent to the pope. With the pope's approval a decree is issued stating that the person lived a virtuous life thereby conferring the title "Venerable" on the person.

The next step in the process is being named "Blessed." For beatification, a miracle must be attributed to the Venerable. The miracle is verified through an examination by a team of medical experts and theologians. The three traditional standards for judging the authenticity of a miracle are: complete – meaning a total healing of the disease, it is not enough for the person to "just" feel better; instantaneous – meaning the healing occurred all at once and not over the course of several days or months; and durable – meaning the person remains permanently free from the illness that afflicted them. Once the miracle has been verified, the pope issues a decree declaring the miracle and the person receives the title of "Blessed." The pope can dispense, though he does not always do so, from the requirement of a miracle for the beatification of a martyr.

A second miracle must be attributed to the Blessed in order for him or her to be canonized a saint. A proven miracle is required, even for martyrs, for canonization. The verification of the second miracle follows the same procedure as the first. Once the person is declared a saint, he or she is worthy of universal veneration by the Church.

There are many steps to be named a saint in the Church and the canonization process is lengthy and detailed. This process ensures that the role models held up as witnesses to Christ and the Gospel as worthy of our emulation. ---

Jeannine Marino, assistant director in the Office for Evangelization and Catechesis of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, holds a licentiate in canon law from The Catholic University of America

St Mary's Parish, in Cambridge, will be holding their second annual Chicken BBQ on Sunday August 16th beginning at 11:45 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. or until sold out.

This will be a social distance event, and please wear a mask. We are asking everyone to get their meal either to go, or if there is seating available outside on the lawn to be respectful of social distancing.

The cost will be $12 per person for half a chicken, coleslaw and roll. Please call the parish office at 644-5073 with any questions.

Thank you!
