Those serving in the Military Throughout the world

Joe & Reese Rose
Andrew Danilich
Erik Karstensen

Daniel Kalagher
Devon Duquette

Please let us know of any family members serving in the military, no matter where they are stationed, so we can pray for them.

COMMUNION AT HOME

Parishioners wishing to be visited by a Eucharistic Minister for Communion and who are not worried about accepting community members into their homes during the COVID-19 pandemic, may call or e-mail either office.

We would also like to hear from parish Eucharistic Ministers who are feeling ready to bring Communion to the homebound.

Masses are commonly offered for the souls of our departed loved ones, but Mass may also be offered for the intentions of those still with us, or in thanksgiving for blessings received. The Mass is the heart of our Catholic faith, and so it is the most potent prayer we can offer. Contact either rectory to schedule. The customary donation is $10.

Church Reopen Protocol

Please DO NOT COME to church, if you:

- have a cough or fever
- are feeling sick
- are at a high risk from COVID-19
- care for the sick

You can watch TV/live streaming (internet) Masses and participate in spiritual Communion.

Call your parish office to make a reservation for weekend Mass

- See office hours on page one of this bulletin
- We need your name, your phone number, the number of people coming with you
- You will be provided with a seat number
- Reservations are not needed for daily Mass

Drive through Communion is available if you must stay out of church

- Available on weekends after each church Mass
- Please arrive at the church before Mass ends
- Park in the parking lot
- Father will offer Communion in the back of the church
- For the occupants of one car at a time
- Try to see a TV/live streaming (internet) Mass before coming for Drive through Communion

We are excited to share some news regarding the Capital Campaign. Thanks to a generous anonymous donor, the Christ Our Hope campaign expenses for both parishes have been covered and then some. The anonymous gift is three times more than the actual campaign expenses for our parishes. This gift not only ensures that 100% of all gifts made moving forward go directly towards the campaign goals, but the additional funds move us closer to meeting our objectives.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK 11/2 - 11/8

SAINTS AND SINNERS

The only difference between the saint and the sinner is that every saint has a past, and every sinner has a future.

—Oscar Wilde

Advent by Candlelight Event

All women of IHM & OLHR parishes are invited to join us for our 7th Annual Advent celebration through narration, readings, prayer and music.

Due to Covid 19 this event will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday, November 30, 2020 in the IHM church.

We will adhere to the social distanced seating already established in the Church for Masses; and will therefore limit the number of participants, so reservations are required by contacting Bernie Ferenc (bferenc309@gmail.com) or by calling her at (802) 338-0589.

Please join us in this quiet setting to focus on the true meaning of Christmas.

Matthew 14:18-20: "...Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people. They all ate and were satisfied..."

There is never a gift that is too small. Never a gift that won't make a difference. Each received, regardless of the size, is reason for celebration. Each takes us a step closer toward campaign success. Please consider how you can make a difference for the Diocese and our parishes with your commitment to the Christ Our Hope: Building a Vibrant Church campaign.

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES (1579-1639) November 3

An old illustration pictures Martin de Porres, finger to his lips - "Shhhh!" - as several mice peek out of sacristy vestment drawers, preparing to join a rodent "procession" following him out of church! Martin's rescue of these unwelcome guests, and statues depicting him, broom in hand, feeding a dog, cat, bird, and mouse from the same dish symbolize his life and sanctity. Initially denied entrance by the Dominicans because of his mixed race (Spanish father, Panamanian mother), Martin cherished society's marginalized. For him, menial tasks, lovingly done, were sacred. Great and lowly alike feasted on his charity. Enemies were reconciled by this "poor mulatto" (his self-description), kind even to those whose racism demeaned him. Apprenticed to a surgeon-barber in his youth - thus patron saint of hair stylists and public health providers - Martin dispensed healing and dignity to Lima's poorest, serving in them the Christ he adored for hours in the Blessed Sacrament. By the time he died, all Peru called him Martin the Charitable, a title even those of us who will never be called "saint" might still aspire to.
