Upcoming Classes/Events

Our next class will be on October 30th when we will be talking about Living and Dying to become a Saint. We will start at 8:45 upstairs in the Church.

Laura Underhill

PCL at Immaculate Heart of Mary, Williston

Calling all students 14 and up!

Back from the Dead: The dead would like to speak with you! Take a walk at night through Resurrection Park Cemetery. As a guide leads you through the dark by candlelight, saints and martyrs come to life to tell you about "Last Things": death, judgment, heaven, and hell. Hear from the dead who describe the tortures they endured for the sake of Christ. St. Teresa of Avila will share her visions of hell with you. Through these encounters with saints and martyrs, you'll discover what it means to be truly alive, both now and in the life to come.

Join us on Saturday, October 29 at 6:45 p.m. at St. John Vianney Parish Center in South Burlington. We are accepting nonperishable food items that will be donated to a local food shelf. If you have questions, contact me at vparzyck@vermontcatholic.org. We hope to see you all there!

Join us for ongoing Bible study on Tuesdays at 4pm, downstairs in the Library. We will be looking at the Gospel for the following Sunday so join us for what weeks you can.

Immaculate Heart of Mary reached 92% of our Bishop's Annual Appeal Goal on 10/4/2022.

MADE RIGHT BEFORE GOD

Although the opening lines of today's first reading claim that the Lord "knows no favorites" (Sirach 35:15) and is "not unduly partial toward the weak" (35:16), the remainder of the passage makes it clear that the Lord does indeed pay special attention to the weak, the oppressed, and the orphans and widows. The psalmist reiterates: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor" (see Psalm 34:18). In the Gospel, Jesus claims that a tax collector is more justified in his prayer for mercy than the Pharisee, whose prayer was an account of his own righteous deeds. Jesus' point could not have been clearer: tax collectors in the Jewish society of Jesus' day were not just lowly; they were considered outcasts and cheaters. They collected taxes for the hated Romans and almost certainly collected enough to assure a generous income for themselves. Tax collectors were among society's outcasts; didn't this one just admit his own sinfulness? How could a tax collector be "justified" (that is, made right) before God, while the Pharisee was not? Why would God even listen to the prayer of a tax collector? This surely was a surprise, upsetting common assumptions about righteousness.

ALWAYS FAITHFUL

Whether you like it or not, you will always grow apart from human beings. Christ is faithful and always with you.
—St. John of God

Looking Forward:

Tuesday, November 1st is All Saints' Day. This day is a holy day of obligation. Our Lady of the Holy Rosary parishioners may attend the Immaculate Heart of Mary Mass at 7pm to fulfill your obligation.

St. John Vianney in South Burlington is offering the following All Saints Day Masses:

Monday, October 31st Vigil Mass at 5:00 pm

Tuesday, November 1st at 8:30 am

Tuesday, November 1st at 6:00 pm

The All Souls Day Mass will be offered the next morning at Our Lady of the Holy Rosary Church at 8:30AM. The All Souls Day Mass is not obligatory.

As in the past, envelopes will be available at entrances to the church that you may use to honor and remember the souls of your departed loved ones. These envelopes will be placed on the Altar for the entire month of November.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Thirtieth
Sunday in Ordinary Time

Almighty ever-living God,
increase our faith,
hope and charity,
and make us love
what you command,
so that we may merit
what you promise.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns
with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
