This Weeks Prayer Intentions

For all who are sick, for the homebound of our parishes and for those who have asked for our prayers, especially Roger Decheneaux, Noella Berthiaume, Denise (Laramée) King, Lise Coulombe and Conrad Coulombe.

"Lord, look upon all the above with Mercy. May Your Healing Hand rest upon them. May Your life-giving powers flow to the depths of their souls, cleansing, purifying, restoring them to health of mind and body".

For our recently deceased family, friends and community members especially Doris Talty, Micheline Auger, Jean Real Limoges, & Bernard Bonneau.

"Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace."

Calendar Correction: Traditional Latin Mass on May 30th

The Latin Mass in Newport on Ascension Thursday will be at 12 noon, not 11 am.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I have written this letter on Monday, May 6th, and Tuesday May 7th, within my first 24 hours in Jerusalem. Over the past several days I have made some very specific prayers, for you in our parishes, and for many people in Vermont and throughout the world. Thus I send my prayer notes to you, to share right away. In the order of the places I have visited on this pilgrimage, here are those that I prayed for.

On the site where Jesus multiplied the bread and fish to feed the 5000 people, I prayed for Eucharistic devotion to grow within you all. On the site where the Resurrected Lord gave cooked fish to the disciples, the same place where He asked Peter three times "do you love me?", I prayed for our Holy Father, our bishop, and all bishops. (See John 21 where Jesus said to Peter "feed my lambs, feed my sheep.")

On top of the Mountain where Jesus preached the Sermon on the Mount, and the Beatitudes, I began to pray for all our priests. On the top of Mount Tabor where Jesus was Transfigured before Peter James and John, I continued to pray for the rest of the priests in the Diocese.

At the chapel in Cana, the place where Jesus performed his first public miracle at a wedding, I prayed for all couples whom I have worked with or presided at for a wedding ceremony. At Nazareth, I prayed for all the families of my parishes, reading through the family names printed out as best as I could.

In Jerusalem at The Church of the Pater Noster, said to be the place where Jesus taught his disciples the Our Father, I made an offering and inscribed this intention; "For the faithful and the Dioceses of the United States, and our non-Catholic baptized brothers and sisters in Christ, and all who profess the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, in Jesus Christ our Savior."

In the Garden of Gethsemane, where our Lord prayed on the Mount of Olives before he was betrayed by Judas, I left the printed names of the families of our parish, and of the priests in the Diocese. (A pile of papers with prayers collected at the base of one of the largest olive trees seemed to be the "common" place to do so).

All these prayers I have already carried in my heart to the Holy Sepulcher of Jesus, and to the place where Mary Magdalene met the risen Lord. I also got to receive benediction through the Blessed Sacrament there, from the same risen Lord. Peace be with you this weekend. See you soon.

In Christ, with Mary,

Fr. Timothy Naples

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

May 12, 2019

The 2019 World Day of Prayer for Vocations is observed on Sunday, May 12, also known as “Good Shepherd Sunday.” The purpose of this day is to publically fulfill the Lord’s instruction to, “Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest” (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained

Prayer for Vocations

GOD OUR FATHER, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son’s Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

ministries (priesthood and diaconate), to the Religious life in all its forms (male and female, contemplative and apostolic), to societies of apostolic life, to secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life, in the particular sense of mission “ad gentes”. Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord’s call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes. You can find many resources to promote a culture of vocations on the USCCB Vocations webpage (www.usccb.org/vocations). 2019 marks the 56th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.
