This Weeks Prayer Intentions

For all who are sick, for the homebound of our parishes and for those who have asked for our prayers, especially Edward Quintal, Roger Decheneaux, Noella Berthiaume, Denise (Laramée) King, Lise Coulombe and Conrad Coulombe.

“Lord, look upon all the above with Mercy. May Your Healing Hand rest upon them. May Your life-giving powers flow to the depths of their souls, cleansing, purifying, restoring them to health of mind and body”.

For our recently deceased family, friends and community members especially Doris Talty.

“Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.”

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With this note I offer another farewell and many continued prayers. So many people have welcomed me in the Northeast Kingdom, and joined me at the offering of the Eucharistic Sacrifice, where I stood as an unworthy servant "in persona Christi Capitis." He is the Good Shepherd who will not desert his flock. He will not desert you, notwithstanding any hardships he asks you to carry as a share with His cross.

I give my fervent prayers for Fr. Curtis and Fr. Paul as they separately take over the parish locations that had slowly and unexpectedly fallen to me in the past years. There remains a great need for continued pruning and readjusting for the priests and the people to find anew the unity expressed in Acts 2:42: "They devoted themselves to the teaching of the Apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the Bread and to the prayers."

Let us continue with prayers for each other. Christ our Lord deserves everything, and in all that He deserves, let us count on those prayers as something He desires.

Sincerely, in Christ, with Mary,

Fr. Timothy Naples

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I remain thankful to God for the Priesthood. With gratitude to the Diocese of Burlington, I am very glad to take up St. Andre Bessette Parish. As we share in One Catholic and Apostolic Church, St. Andre Bessette Parish is going forward as a single unit even though it has three different churches. I acknowledge and thank Fr. Tim Naples for all the endeavors he took upon his shoulders for the growth of our Parish. Our prayers for him may grant him success in all his faith promoting life in South Burlington.

I do understand that the changes in the Mass schedule are heartbreaking to many in our parish. Let us understand the mind of the Diocese and the needs of our parish. The change in no way is permanent. As Jack Canfield said, "change is inevitable in life. You can either resist it and potentially get run over by it, or you can choose to cooperate with it, adapt to it, and learn how to benefit from it. When you embrace change you will begin to see it as an opportunity for growth." St. Kolbe is quoted saying "Let us remember that love lives through sacrifice and is nourished by giving. Without sacrifice, there is no love." Let us go forward to achieve something from this change and sacrifice to benefit the parish. Let us try to accommodate this change for a period.

As I take up St. Andre Bessette parish, I urge my parishioners to make better use of your priest for your spiritual growth. "The priest is not his own" says Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. I want to be with the Lord for the people. I am open for all the Sacraments, to visit the sick, perform house blessings and for any prayer requests. When we all work together for the parish, the next generation is going to benefit greatly. Let us rejuvenate the parish by our active participation.

I thank Theresa McAvinney, the lady's groups, Knights of Columbus and all those who helped through donations or manual labor for the success of our Family Day retreat.

May our Patron saint St. Andre Bessette take all the needs of our parish and families to the Sacred Heart of Jesus by his powerful intercession.

With prayers,

Fr. Sahaya Paul Siluvai Sebastian

Catholic Tidbits

ST. THOMAS was one of the fishermen on the Lake of A Galilee whom Our Lord called to be His apostles. By nature slow to believe, too apt to see difficulties, and to look at the dark side of things, he had withal a most sympathetic, loving, and courageous heart. Once when Jesus spoke of the mansions in His Father's house, St. Thomas, in his simplicity, asked: "Lord, we know not whither Thou goest, and how can we know the way?" When Jesus turned to go toward Bethany to the grave of Lazarus, the desponding apostle at once feared the worst for his beloved Lord, yet cried out bravely to the rest: "Let us also go and die with Him" After the Resurrection, incredulity again prevailed, and whilst the wounds of the crucifixion were imprinted vividly on his affectionate mind, he would not credit the report that Christ had indeed risen. But at the actual sight of the pierced hands and side, and the gentle rebuke of his Saviour, unbelief was gone forever; and his faith and ours has ever triumphed in the joyous utterance into which he broke: "My Lord and my God!"
