This Week's Prayer Intentions

For all who are sick, for the homebound of our parishes and for those who have asked for our prayers, especially Bonnie Day, Casey Bonneau, Michelle Warman, Edward Quintal, Noella Berthiaume, Denise (Laramée) King, Lise & Conrad Coulombe, Craig Hansen and Donald St Onge.

“Lord, look upon all the above with Mercy. May Your Healing Hand rest upon them. May Your life-giving powers flow to the depths of their souls, cleansing, purifying, restoring them to health of mind and body”.

For our recently deceased family, friends and community members especially Arnold McAllister and Frances Routhier. “Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.”

Prayer for the Sick

Almighty and Everlasting God, the eternal salvation of those who believe in You, hear us on behalf of Your servants who are sick, for whom we humbly beg the help of your mercy, so that, being restored to health, they may render thanks to you in your Church. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Message from Bishop Coyne

It is with an abundance of joy and gratitude that I announce the first phase of the reopening of our churches to celebrate daily and Sunday Mass beginning June 1. The obligation to attend Sunday Mass remains lifted until further notice, especially if you are part of a vulnerable population and/or have an underlying health condition. Please approach the celebration of Mass with charity and love for our clergy and faith community by following the protocols:

- Stay home if you are sick or not feeling well.
- Wear a mask in Mass.
- Sanitize your hands upon entry. Due to shortages of sanitizer, please bring your own if possible.
- Sit in designated pews and respect social distance between others of 6 feet or more unless you are one family unit.
- Refrain from congregating in tight areas or entering cordoned off areas.
- Follow the protocols to receive Holy Communion in hand at Mass.
- Follow your church protocols regarding registration if necessary due to the 25% capacity limit.

For more details about church protocols visit: vermontcatholic.org/covid-19.

While these protocols are intrusive, they are necessary as they allow us to celebrate the Sacraments in person while doing our part to help stop the spread of coronavirus.

Looking forward to seeing some of you “live” at Mass again, I remain,
 Sincerely yours in Christ,

– Bishop Christopher Coyne

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

This is the day the Lord has made;

We will rejoice and be glad in it. (Psalms 118:24)

With my heart filled with love and joy, I express my heartfelt thanks to everyone who made the Sunday liturgy wonderful by observing the guidelines perfectly. You all made my day by your presence. I felt refreshed when I met my parishioners. It was really a great joy to meet you all.

I must express my appreciation to you all for a smooth Mass without any complaint. Jesus never complained about his passion. He knew that passion was a temporary one and the Resurrection was his goal. The pain during his passion doubled the joy at the resurrection.

We are all walking with the Lord, with our masks on, who carried the cross to Calvary. I understand now in faith that the way to Calvary should be short. It is time to walk with Christ in patience.

I do pray for all of you that God helps you to follow the guidelines with the feeling of sacrificing your comfort for others and doing it as an act of mercy for our parishioners.

I hope that my people understand my situation and wear the mask during the Mass. I like your support always.

Holy Communion will be distributed only in hands according to directives of the diocese. I understand that this could be painful for some people. Holy Communion can be received on tongue after the Mass in private. I am available for counseling or guidance if this is something you are concerned about.

I'm much thankful for your very generous Sunday offertory. Please support our parish by buying the raffle tickets. Let us pray for each other and make our parish stronger in faith and spirit.

Corpus Christ Reading

16 The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? 17 Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. 18 Consider the people of Israel; [d] are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar? 19 What do I imply then? That food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? 20 No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons. 21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

(1 Corinthians 10:16-21 – NRSV)

NEWS FROM The Inland See

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

June 13-19, 2020

Virtual Youth and Young Adult Ministries

Bill Gavin, director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries for the Diocese of Burlington, has been thinking about future challenges that might necessitate parishes and the Diocese to do ministry “in our new virtual world” post Covid-19 pandemic.

He and his administrative assistant, Rachel Lavallee, have created an online retreat for teens who were not able to attend a confirmation retreat as well as trainings and webinars for youth workers in Vermont.

“Our summer events are on hold for now, and we are waiting to see how the situation evolves,” Gavin said.

But youth ministry continues.

“Our biggest success has been a young adult Theology on Tap that we have moved online,” Gavin reported. Nearly 50 young adults participated in the first one.

“We are excited about this prospect moving forward as a challenge with Theology on Tap has been figuring out a way to better reach young adults from all over the state,” Gavin said. “This virtual Theology on Tap is a great way of doing so.”

Although the Diocese is “obviously facing a paradigm shift,” Gavin said the Church can emerge from the pandemic with a better use of technology: “Online Masses, virtual presentations, virtual classrooms, etc. are just some of the things that can supplement our incarnational ministry.”

Maryann McGinnis of St. John the Evangelist Church in Northfield attended two online programs — a presentation on Creating a Healthy and Holy Home and Youth Discipleship after Confirmation. “The former had some very good suggestions, ideas and reminders, some of which we already practice as a family,” she said.

The youth discipleship conversation was helpful because it was “comforting to know we are not alone,” she said, adding that she was encouraged to see pastors on the call.

“This conversation has motivated me to sign up for additional programs/presentations about youth discipleship,” she said.

Even after physical distancing requirements are eased, Gavin said online programs will be continued.

“I enjoy being able to participate in different programs, prayer services, webinars and discussions,” McGinnis said. “Online offerings enable me to attend programs in the comfort of my home and encourage me to try new things. The obstacle of the program not being local disappears.”
