Reflections

July 23, 2023
16th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Year A
(Today's Gospel)

THE SOWER WENT OUT TO SOW

On this 16th Sunday in ordinary time, we are approximately half way through the Church's Liturgical Year. It is fitting for us to take stock, to assess the state of our garden. We check what plants are blooming, what crops are bearing fruit, what unwanted weeds are appearing. The garden of course is really a metaphor for our heart and the relationship we have with the Master Gardener, God himself. Accordingly, our three readings are designed to colour what we hear, say, do, so that our harvest will truly reflect the promised hundredfold. Our 1st Reading invites us to notice the splendid qualities of God-Gardener – justice, strength, protection which inspire hope-and learn from them.

In the 2nd Reading we learn that it is the Spirit who pre-sides and gives life and meaning to our labour. The Gospel brings our lessons to a climax and reminds us that the key is deep listening. Anyone who has ears should listen! God will never fail to cast the seeds according to the season. We need a fertile openness that is figured by good and productive soil. In this way our garden will shine like the sun. Try to imagine a world where everybody's garden is fully blooming. May the Spirit in us pray for the coming of such a Kingdom.
