6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The words of the leper, "If you will, you can make me clean," reflect his disposition and his openness to the power of God and the will of God. He knew he was with the Divine Healer, but he left the choice to Jesus as to whether to heal him or not. Jesus' response "I will, Be clean" tells us that He desired the man's healing and not only in word but by way of immediate action. Jesus gave back to the leper healthy skin, a sense of confidence and an increase of faith that propelled him to spread the word about what had taken place. From the ostracized and outcast position of the leper, Jesus raised his dignity and restored him body, soul, and spirit. What would I ask of Jesus if I met Him on the same road? Would I leave my life in His hands and trust that He know best: Lord Jesus, save me from my present challenges and suffering if you choose to.

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Vermont Catholic Charities Ash Wednesday Collection

On Feb. 14, we begin our Lenten journey with Ash Wednesday. These 40 days are a time when we can give things up, prioritize prayer, grow closer to God, and find ways to care more for the good of others than for self. We do this to prepare ourselves for the joy of Easter morning when we celebrate that Christ has risen!

As I begin to think about my own Lenten journey, I have been drawn to the parable of the Good Samaritan. Who today is lying by the side of the road needing my help? Who has been forgotten or marginalized? How can I reach out to support the stranger?

St. Augustine said, “Do you wish your prayer to fly toward God? Make for it two things: fasting and almsgiving.”

On Ash Wednesday, parishes throughout the Diocese of Burlington will take up a collection to support the outreach work of Vermont Catholic Charities. For more than 95 years, Vermont Catholic Charities has met individuals and families where they are — serving anyone in need, regardless of their faith, gender, race, or ethnicity. Serving means walking alongside our neighbors in need, making sure they are seen and heard. It means allowing ourselves to experience some part of their pain, so that we can truly connect with them, so that we can help them to find services and resources that will ease their burdens.

Guided by our faith, we do what we do because we are Catholic, not because those we serve are Catholic.

The clients that come to our “doors” are some of the most vulnerable in our communities. Due to budgetary constraints and increased needs because of rising costs, we are calling on you to join us in being a Good Samaritan so we can continue to serve fellow Vermonters. The work that you will support will help transform people’s lives.

Emergency Aid: Assisting more than 2,100 children and adults

Betty cares for her adult daughter and was concerned about how they would pay for their next fuel bill as the colder days of winter approached. “Thank you for ensuring we have continuous heat in our home,” she said.

Prison Ministry Transition Assistance:

Helping more than 28 clients

Mike had just been released after 12 years of incarceration and was in desperate need of warm clothing as well as items to help set up his residence. Vermont Catholic Charities provided vouchers to help acquire the items he needed. “I am grateful for this support to assist me in getting a good start to re-establishing myself as a productive member of the community,” he said.

Counseling Services:

Supporting more than 160 clients a year

Megan and Dan shared the impact of counseling on their relationship: “Our marriage was good the first few years, and then we became overwhelmed with the stressors of children, work, etc. and in addition did not have good communication and conflict-resolving skills. We lived in silent misery and even considered divorce but are so glad we decided to go to marriage therapy. Our marriage is better than ever.”

Residential Care Homes: Caring for more than 150 residents a year with more than 80 percent on Medicaid

“How do we measure how grateful our families are for the wonderful care given to our mother and our children’s grandmother and our children’s children’s great grandmother? You have a magical way of making it all work so seamlessly. Our mother is always made to feel comfortable, special, and dignified. You do this and so much more with such grace!”

As we begin this Lenten journey together, we ask you to prayerfully consider participating in the Ash Wednesday collection — any gift, no matter the size, makes a difference. As a Catholic community, let us be the hands and feet of Christ to our neighbors in need. Let us be like the Good Samaritan who bent down to the stranger in need and took care of him. Let Christ’s love shine through our actions.

Donations can be given in pew during your parish’s Ash Wednesday Mass, mailed to Vermont Catholic Charities, 55 Joy Drive, South Burlington, VT 05403 or made online at vermontcatholic.org/ministries-programs/catholic-charities/ash-wednesday-appeal.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Mary Beth Pinard". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Mary" and last name "Pinard" clearly legible.

Mary Beth Pinard

Executive Director of Vermont Catholic Charities.

Universal Synod Update

Following the Synod Assembly of Bishops in October 2023, each diocese around the world has been asked to continue the conversation by reflecting upon the synthesis report. The US Synod Team is asking each diocese to hold 2-3 listening sessions during Lent to reflect upon two guiding questions. A 3-5 page document synthesizing what was heard at the diocesan listening sessions will be incorporated into a summary from the USCCB to the Secretariat due in April 2024. Synod Zoom meetings for parish delegates and parishioners have been scheduled bi-monthly on the second Tuesday of the month at 6 pm. The second Lenten meeting to reflect upon the two guiding questions is March 12, with additional meetings planned for May 14, July 16, Sept. 10, and Nov. 12.

Registration required: vermontcatholic.org/universalsynod.
