FREE WILL

Did you know that 70 percent of people do not update or complete a will? August is National Make a Will Month and the Vermont Catholic Community Foundation (VCCF) recently engaged with a company, FreeWill, to provide free, confidential, online assistance with creating a will, advance directive, and power of attorney in addition to outlining your wishes for a Catholic funeral and burial.

Estate planning is traditionally considered complex, scary, and expensive. That’s why FreeWill built a simple tool that anyone can use to create these important documents. All estate plans made using FreeWill are 100 percent confidential, legal, and specifically tailored to our jurisdiction.

In addition, setting up a Legacy Gift is easy, and only takes a small amount of effort. This can be done by a simple bequest in your will specifying an amount or percentage of your estate that would benefit a specific Catholic ministry, school, cemetery, parish fund or other charity. You can also designate a beneficiary to receive a gift from your IRA, 401(k), or other retirement plan. All of these are options on the FreeWill software if you so choose.

To explore this complimentary service from FreeWill, visit FreeWill.com/vccf.

REFLECTIONS

Mar 17, Sun

As we approach Holy Week, the themes of suffering, surrender and dying are repeated. The prayer in today’s gospel passage is known as the “Gethsemane prayer” of John’s gospel. In that prayer, Jesus himself was “troubled” by the reality of suffering that he had to endure. But he understood the mystery of the wheat grain and was ready to surrender to the Father. To our way of seeing things, pain and suffering are not only an utter waste; the suffering of the innocent is a great scandal. We look for painless ways of being fruitful. Yet, Jesus asserts: “if it dies, it bears much fruit”. Jesus did not go in search of suffering. But when love and fidelity and one’s mission involve the cross, one has to let go of all that we cling to: our love of life. What appears to be failure, loss and extinction, will bear fruit in unimaginable ways. Like Christ, we will become a source of life for others.

NEWS FROM The Inland See

March 16–22, 2024

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Chrism Mass 2024

On MONDAY, March 25, at 11 a.m., priests from throughout the Diocese of Burlington will join Archbishop Christopher Coyne, coadjutor Archbishop of Hartford and former bishop of Burlington, at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Burlington for the celebration of the Chrism Mass.

This annual Mass traditionally is celebrated on the morning of Holy Thursday but (as is done in most dioceses in the United States) can be moved to another time around Easter. The Chrism Mass brings the diocesan community together as the priests of the diocese renew their priestly promises, and the holy oils that will be used in the sacramental life of the Church in the coming year are blessed and distributed to parishes.

During the liturgy, the priests of the diocese will stand before the archbishop and renew the promises they made at their own ordination. They resolve to be “faithful stewards of the mysteries of God in the Holy Eucharist” and “discharge the sacred office of teaching ... not seeking any gain, but moved only by zeal for souls.” The archbishop also exhorts everyone to pray for the priests and finally to pray for him so that he “may be made day by day a living and more perfect image of Christ, the Priest, the Good Shepherd, the Teacher, and the Servant of all.”

During the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the sacred oils are blessed. Containers holding the three oils — Oil of the Sick, Oil of the Catechumens, and the Sacred Chrism — as well as the perfume that is mixed into the Sacred Chrism to give it its rich aroma — are presented by deacons serving in the diocese. The Oil of the Sick is blessed for the healing of body, mind, and spirit. The Oil of Catechumens is blessed for the anointing of those preparing for baptism. Through this anointing, they are strengthened by Christ to resist the power of evil in all its forms. The Holy Chrism is consecrated by the archbishop and priests of the diocese to anoint infants after baptism, those who are to be confirmed, and bishops and priests at their ordination. It is also used to anoint altars and churches at the time of their dedication. After the Mass, the oils are distributed and brought back to all the churches in the diocese.

All are invited to attend this special liturgy to pray especially for our priests and for all who will be anointed by these oils in the coming year. As the archbishop will pray at the Chrism Mass: “May the Lord keep us all in his charity and lead all of us, shepherds and flock, to eternal life.”

The Mass will be live-streamed on the diocesan website. Following the Chrism Mass, a reception will take place in the parish hall, and priests or parish representatives designated by their pastors may come down to the lower chapel to pick up the holy oils for their respective church(es).

Please note: The Chrism Mass will be celebrated on a MONDAY this year to accommodate the archbishop’s schedule.*

— Josh Perry is the director of the Office of Worship for the Diocese of Burlington.

Universal Synod Update

Following the Synod Assembly of Bishops in October 2023, each diocese around the world has been asked to continue the conversation by reflecting upon the synthesis report. The US Synod Team is asking each diocese to hold 2-3 listening sessions during Lent to reflect upon two guiding questions. A 3-5 page document synthesizing what was heard at the diocesan listening sessions will be incorporated into a summary from the USCCB to the Secretariat due in April 2024. Synod Zoom meetings for parish delegates and parishioners have been scheduled bi-monthly on the second Tuesday of the month at 6 pm. Meetings are planned for May 14, July 16, Sept. 10, and Nov. 12.

Registration required: vermontcatholic.org/universalsynod.
