FROM THE PASTOR

Usher Meeting: Tuesday, November 9, at 6pm. Please let me know if you cannot make it—otherwise, all are current ushers and those who wish to become ushers are required to attend.

Lector Meeting: Saturday, November 20, at 10am. All lectors—and those who wish to become lectors—must attend.

November is dedicated to the souls in Purgatory, and praying for them is an act of love on our part—technically speaking, it is one of the seven Spiritual Works of Mercy. Love always builds up both the giver and the receiver. In the case of praying for the dead, they obtain release from the pains of Purgatory and those who pray meet the delighted eyes of Christ, who has shown us mercy's perfect love by hanging on the Cross for us. It is no great burden, then, and will help us in the end, as well, to visit a cemetery this month and pray for the dead. Just like last year, Catholics can obtain a plenary indulgence all this month by visiting a cemetery and praying for the souls in Purgatory. If, because of Covid restrictions, the cemeteries are closed, we can obtain the plenary indulgence for someone simply by visiting a church or oratory. Here are the usual conditions for obtaining a plenary indulgence:

- 1) Detachment from all sin, even venial.
- 2) Sacramental confession, Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the pope. Confession and Communion can occur up to twenty days before or after the act performed to obtain the indulgence, though it is best that Communion take place the same day.
- 3) One Confession is enough for several plenary indulgences, but for each plenary indulgence one must receive a separate Communion and say separate prayers for the Holy Father's intentions.
- 4) Those who are unable to leave their home can still obtain the plenary indulgence by reciting prayers for the dead before an image of Jesus or the Blessed Mother.

Fr. Peter

FOR THE SOULS IN PURGATORY

The Catholic Church dwells in three realms: the Church Triumphant, in heaven; the Church Militant, on earth; the Church Suffering, in purgatory. The Holy Mass unites all three realms of the Church at the holy altar in one sacred moment. At the sacrifice of the Holy Eucharist, all of the saints and angels are present and relief is given to those suffering the purification of their sins in purgatory. As Saint Paul says, "At the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth" (Philippians 2:10).

We pray for mutual understanding in our country and an end to violence.

We pray for our front-line workers during this pandemic: our doctors and nurses, our police officers, EMT's, and firefighters, our teachers and caregivers, our grocery store clerks and restaurant workers, and all exposed to the risk of contracting Covid-19.

We pray for the members of our parish who are living alone or homebound, especially Eula Burton and Maria Santiago.

We pray for the sick members of our parish, especially Norma Padro.

We pray for the members of our parish serving in the military, especially SFC Lamont Cleare.

We pray for the protection of the unborn, of children, the sick, and the elderly.

We pray that the peace of Christ soon fill the earth.
