A Note From Fr. Kareem

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word." 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

There are two important lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope with others. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.

"Que nuestro Señor Jesucristo mismo y Dios nuestro Padre, que nos amó y por su gracia nos dio consuelo eterno y una buena esperanza, a través de su gracia, los anime y les fortalezca el corazón, para que tanto en palabra como en obra hagan todo lo que sea bueno." 2 Tesalonicenses 2:16-17

Allí tenemos dos lecciones importantes. Primero, somos llamados a ser generosos con nuestro consuelo y esperanza con otras personas. Así como Dios nos muestra su misericordia, debemos ser misericordiosos con los demás. Segundo, ¡la alegría es contagiosa! La alegría que recibimos al hacer buenas obras no solo nos fortalece, sino que también anima a los demás. Comparta la alegría de vivir su fe siempre que pueda.

SAINT MICHAEL'S CELEBRATES BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH

St. Martin de Porres (1639)

St. Martin de Porres was born in Lima, Peru, on December 9, 1579. His father was a Spanish nobleman and his mother a black freed slave from Panama. At fifteen, he became a lay brother at the Dominican Friary in Lima and spent his whole life there as a barber, farm laborer, almoner and infirmarian among other things.

St. Martin had a great desire to go off on a foreign mission to earn the palm of martyrdom. However, since this was not possible, he made a martyr out of his body, devoting himself to ceaseless and severe penances. In turn, God endowed him with many graces and wondrous gifts, such as, aerial flights and bilocation.

Martin's love was all-embracing, shown equally to humans and to animals, including vermin, and he maintained a cat and dog hospital at his sister's house. He also possessed a spiritual wisdom, demonstrated in his solving his sister's marriage problems, raising a dowry for his niece in three days and resolving theological problems. He was a close friend of St. Rose of Lima. He died on November 3, 1639 and was canonized on May 6, 1962.

VOTE, VOTE, VOTE!!!

As Roman Catholics, authentic followers of Christ, we desire that every person come to know the truth of our Lord Jesus and, thereby, gain eternal happiness. When choosing our political leaders, we should remain faithful to our Lord Jesus and be true witnesses of His Gospel. Therefore, we strive to always foster the good for all people doing our part to build a culture of life and love where each and every person can grow in their relationship with Christ, so as to grow in His image as a child of Almighty God. Being responsible, thinking, and faithful participants in nation's political process, we defend and promote the truth as revealed by the light of both our Catholic Faith and human reason. We need to prayerful consider how we use our given power as voters to best defend, promote, and manifest more fully the Kingdom of God, a Kingdom of true freedom, justice, peace, joy, and love, for all.
