THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

A Letter from Father Maassen

Dear missionary disciples of Christ,

Thank you so much for the prayers, the gifts, the sugar, adult beverages, the blessed Christmas sentiments and all that I have received for Christmas. Thank you again to all our music coordinators, musicians, cantors, lectors, choir members, extraordinary ministers, decorators and our Tech man for the Christmas season. The liturgies were sacred and beautiful, the church most beautiful.

Last Saturday evening and then very early Sunday morning, I anointed two people who died relatively soon after they received the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick...The proper time for receiving this holy anointing has certainly arrived when the believer "begins to be in danger of death because of illness or old age". Each time a catholic falls seriously ill, she may receive the anointing of the sick, and also when, after she has received it, the illness worsens. If you wish to read more about this sacrament, you may visit the archdiocesan web site which contains information on all the sacraments. If someone is dying, please call in a priest, especially if they have been away from the church or the practice of the faith. Certainly if you have any questions, you can call myself or Fr. Doyle.

If you are going to make any resolutions, what could be more important than resolving to grow in holiness. Blessed and joyful, holy new year to all.

In Christ,

Fr. Maassen

Strategic Planning

Although many will be happy to enter a New Year, we as a parish have accomplished so much in 2020. We have worshipped and prayed. We have educated and formed. We have served those in need in so many ways. We have strengthened our school and our family faith formation. We have successfully completed a campaign to address our debt. We have accomplished so many things this year at Sacred Heart, far too many to recall in more detail. Below you will find the results from our Visioning Days. This is a summary of the four sessions we undertook with parishioners in October to recognize our strengths and voice our aspirations. We look to the future of Sacred Heart as we become and form missionary disciples of Jesus Christ, while strategically planning for the future.

Epiphany Prayer – from faithandworship.com

We are drawn to your feet in worship, your creation facing its creator, Hearts laid bare by your light, humbly asking for your mercy. We come to You as a people in need of assurance and forgiveness. We come to You as a people in need of healing and wholeness. We come dependent upon your love. Draw us close. Enfold us in your arms. Fill us with your Spirit that we might reflect your light within this dark world, speak your Word with boldness and draw others to your feet. We ask this through your dear Son, Jesus Christ. Amen

May Christ bless you and your family this Christmas season and bring you peace in this New Year!

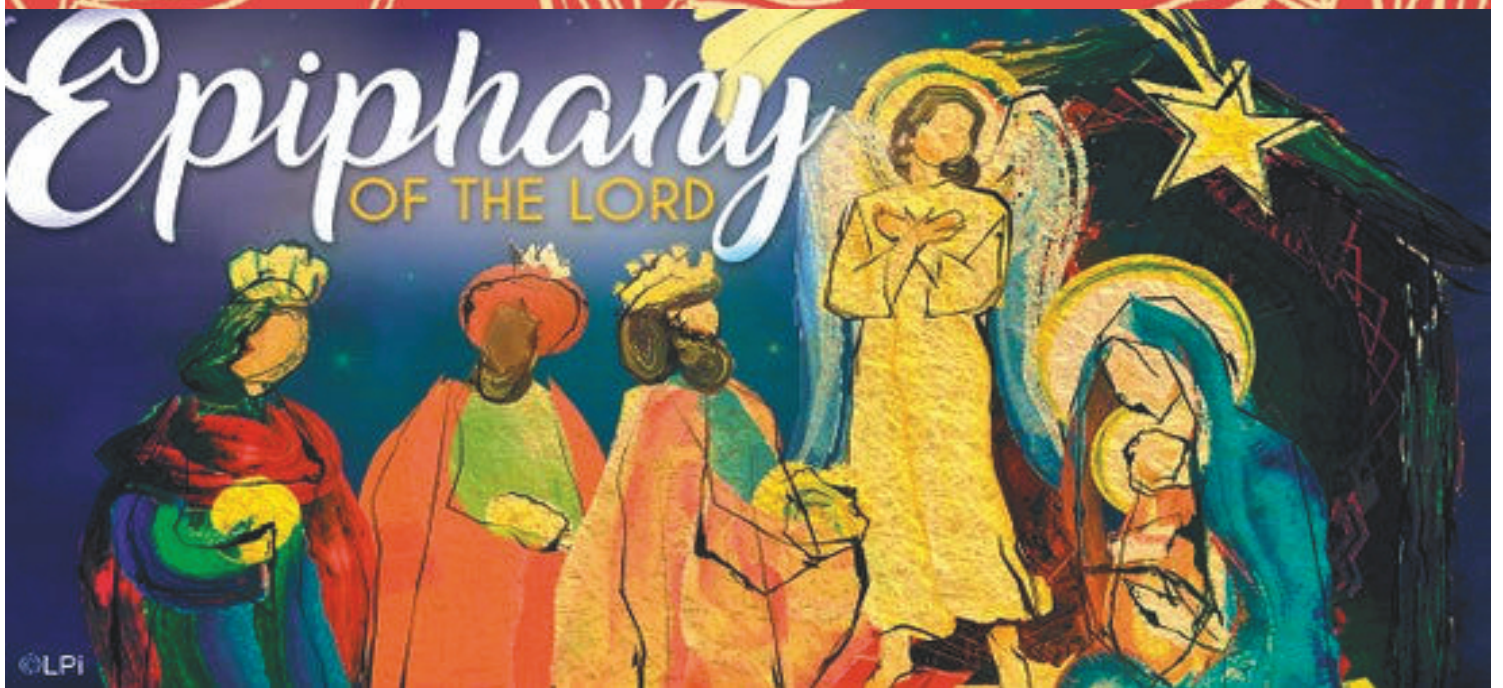

Blessings of Christmas joy,
Fran Hanson

Everyday Stewardship

Wise Men See God in the Simple Things

If you're on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: "God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace."

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration.
