

MINUTES

LADIES SODALITY FEBRUARY 7, 2014

The meeting was called to order by Eileen Underwood. Angela Smith read an opening prayer. Serafina Dunn led the group in the Prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel. Carmen Hank led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

Eileen Underwood welcomed Sheri Frodsen.

Gini Simpson won the door prize. The prayer basket was passed around. Prayers were requested for Maureen Butler and her family and for Pat Tusai's daughter, Patti.

Eileen reported that several members asked if the minutes could be e-mailed to members in lieu of reading them at the meeting. Eileen also discussed an e-mail she received from Pia Elsesser concerning e-mailing from Life, Inc. to members. There was some confusion as to what info would be sent and from whom it would be sent. Kathy DeLuca will clarify the issue and report back to the members.

Dottie Kime is still recovering from surgery but is progressing well.

Carol Powers read the minutes from the January meeting. The minutes were accepted as read. An invitation was received from NWFSC for a luncheon. If anyone is interested in attending please see Carol.

Judi Corney gave the Treasurer's report. As of January 31, 2014, there is a balance of $3,230.92. The report will be filed for audit.

New Business:

The pancake breakfast will be held on Sunday, March 2, 2014. Rita Milligan, Judy Boudreaux and Carmen Hank have volunteered to cook. Sign up sheets are on the tables for volunteers. Help is needed to set up, serve and clean up for the 8:00 Mass. Help is also needed for set-up, serving, and cleaning up for the 11:00 Mass. We hope to have CYM members to help with the serving. Please sign up today.

Hugs for the Homeless will be held on the weekend of Feb. 15 & 16. Volunteers are needed to collect donations and give out candy for each of the Masses. Sign-up sheets are on the table.

Dianne Hinds reported on the upcoming Convention. It will be held in Tallahassee. Information packets are available from Dianne. The cost of the complete Convention is $130.00.

Discussion was held concerning the lunch for the Charismatic Conference workers in March. Dianne Hinds had checked with Sonny's BBQ on costs. The cost per person would be $6.50. The total cost would be approximately $1,000.00. The consensus of the members was that the amount would be over our budget. Alternatives were suggested. One was that we have Olive Garden salads and make sandwiches to go with the salad. The discussion was tabled until next month.

Pat McGahey announced that the Twin Cities Hospital Auxiliary is planning a Bunco in the spring. The consensus was that a Sunday afternoon would be preferable to a Thursday evening. Pat will update us later.

Serafina Dunn spoke on the Parish intent to expand the Parish ministry. Areas of need include driving parishioners to Church, Dr.'s appointment; helping with shopping, cleaning; visits to the sick and homebound. She asked any interested members to sign up. Finger printing will be required, paid for by the Parish.

Eileen Underwood adjourned the meeting.

The meeting was followed by a Chocolate Bunco, presented by Pat Honstetter, Pat McGahey and Pat Tusai.

Prizes were won by:

Karin Riorden – Most Games

Pat Honstetter – Most Buncos

Serafina Dunn – Most Baby Buncos – also the cake

Pat McGahey – most losses

Angie Coleman – 50/50

Judy Miles – Grand Door Prize.
