If I Am God, What Would You Ask of Me?

During the Korean War, an American journalist was in Korea reporting for a newspaper in the United States. While he was at the battlefield, he met a group of soldiers who were very tired and weak. As there was nothing interesting to report that day, he said to them: "Imagine that I am God and that I can grant you any request." Then with a smile, he asked them, "If I am God, what would you ask of me?" "Please give me tomorrow," replied one soldier immediately.

Of all the things he could think of, he only asked for tomorrow. Why? Because he knew he could get killed at any time at the battlefield. He knew how precious his life was. Hence, he asked for a chance to live. That was all that he asked for!

By the grace of God, we are all alive, even though some of us may have major health challenges. We have survived the pandemic so far and have been lucky to see the New Year 2022. So many people who thought they would be here to see the New Year are no more. That is all the more reason for us to thank the Lord for giving us a New Year. But how grateful are we to God for all

His blessings, especially for the gift of this New Year?

As we begin this New Year, we must realize how precious our life is. Also, we should remember how precious our time is. If we know how precious our time is, we will make use of our time carefully, never wasting it. If we responsibly use our time given by God, then our life will be a success. On the contrary, if we waste our time doing useless things, our lives will end up in tragedy.

As we begin this New Year, let us offer our lives into the hands of God completely. Let us also ask him to be with us to guide us in everything we say and do during this New Year. When the Lord is with us, there is no need for us to be afraid of anything. As St. Paul says, "If God is with us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31). Yes, when we are with God, He will always protect us and guide us on the right paths. May the Lord bless you all abundantly during this New Year. See you in church.

New Year Quotes and Prayer

A New Year Prayer: Grant that I May bring no tear to any eye/ When this New Year in time shall end/ Let it be said I've played the friend, Have lived and loved and labored here, / And made of it a happy year. - Edgar Guest

New Year Thoughts: Another fresh new year is here/ Another year to live!/ To banish worry, doubt and fear,/ To love and laugh and give!/ This bright new year is given me/ To live each day with zest/ To daily grow and try to be My highest and my best./ I have the opportunity/ Once more to right some wrongs,/ To pray for peace, to plant a tree,/ And sing more joyful songs. - William Arthur Ward

Object of A New Year: The object of a New Year is not that we should have a new year. It is that we should have a new soul and a new nose; new feet, a new backbone, new ears, and new eyes. Unless a particular man made New Year resolution, he would make no resolutions. Unless a man starts afresh about things, he will certainly do nothing effective. Gilbert K. Chesterton

Hope: Hope smiles from the threshold of the year to come, whispering, 'It will be happier. Alfred Lord Tennyson

Better man: Be at war with your vices, at peace with your neighbors, and let every new year find you a better man. Benjamin Franklin

Funny Stories

Erma Bombeck's New Year Resolutions : 1. I will go to no doctor whose office plants have died. 2. I'm going to follow my husband's suggestion to put a little excitement into my life by living within our budget. 3. I'm going to apply for a hardship scholarship to Weight Watchers. 4. I will never loan my car to anyone I have given birth to. (via Fr. Tony)

Resolutions: Someone once said, "I made 6 resolutions last year and I kept them all year long: they are in an envelope on the top of my file cabinet." (via Fr. Tony)

Giving up cigarettes: Mark Twain wrote: "Giving up cigarettes is easy. I do it a hundred times a week." Many of us, like Twain, grow easily discouraged from one broken resolution or other. I heard about one poor fellow who decided to make only resolutions this year he could keep. He resolved to gain weight, to stop exercising, to read less and watch more TV, to procrastinate more, to quit giving money and time to charity, not to date any member of the cast of Baywatch, and never to make New Year's resolutions again. (via Fr. Tony)

New Year Prayer: Dear Lord! So far this year I've done well. I haven't gossiped, I haven't lost my temper, I haven't been greedy, grumpy, nasty, selfish, or indulgent. I'm very thankful for that. But in a few minutes, Lord, I'm going to get out of bed, and from then on I'm probably going to need a lot more help. Amen. (via Fr. Tony)

Si Soy Dios, ¿Qué Me Pedirían?

Durante la Guerra de Corea, un periodista Estadounidense estaba en Corea informando para un periódico en los Estados Unidos. Mientras estaba en el frente de batalla, se encontró con un grupo de soldados que estaban muy cansados y débiles. Como no había nada interesante que contar ese día, les dijo:

"Imagínense que yo soy Dios y que les puedo conceder cualquier petición". Luego, con una sonrisa, les preguntó: "Si yo soy Dios, ¿qué me pedirían?". "Por favor, dame mañana", respondió un soldado de inmediato.

De todas las cosas que se le ocurrieron, solo pidió mañana. ¿Por qué? Porque sabía que podía morir en cualquier momento en el frente de batalla. Sabía lo preciosa que era su vida. Por lo tanto, pidió la oportunidad de vivir. ¡Eso fue todo lo que pidió!

Por la gracia de Dios, todos estamos vivos, aunque algunos de nosotros tengamos importantes problemas de salud. Hemos sobrevivido a la pandemia hasta ahora y hemos tenido la suerte de ver el Año Nuevo 2022.

Muchas personas que pensaban que estarían aquí para ver el Año Nuevo ya no están. Ésa es una razón más para agradecer al Señor por darnos un Año Nuevo. Pero, ¿qué tan agradecidos estamos con Dios por todas Sus bendiciones, especialmente por el regalo de este Año Nuevo?

Al comenzar este Año Nuevo, debemos darnos cuenta de lo preciosa que es nuestra vida. Además, debemos recordar lo valioso que es nuestro tiempo. Si sabemos lo valioso que es nuestro tiempo, lo utilizaremos con cuidado, sin perderlo nunca. Si usamos responsablemente nuestro tiempo dado por Dios, entonces nuestra vida será un éxito. Por el contrario, si perdemos nuestro tiempo haciendo cosas inútiles, nuestra vida terminará en tragedia.

Al comenzar este Año Nuevo, entreguemos nuestras vidas en las manos de Dios por completo. Pidámosle también que esté con nosotros para guiarnos en todo lo que decimos y hacemos durante este nuevo año. Cuando el Señor está con nosotros, no es necesario que tengamos miedo de nada. Como dice San Pablo, "Si Dios está con nosotros, ¿quién contra nosotros?" (Romanos 8:31). Sí, cuando estamos con Dios, Él siempre nos protegerá y nos guiará por los caminos correctos. Que el Señor los bendiga abundantemente durante este Año Nuevo. Nos vemos en la iglesia.

Citas y oración de año nuevo

Una Oración de Año Nuevo: Concédeme que no me llene de lágrimas los ojos / Cuando este año nuevo termine en el tiempo / Que se diga que he jugado el papel de amigo, He vivido, amado y trabajado aquí, y hecho de él un año feliz. -Edgar Guest

Pensamientos de Año Nuevo: ¡Otro nuevo año nuevo está aquí / ¡Otro año más para vivir! / Para desterrar la preocupación, la duda y el miedo, / ¡Amar, reír y dar! / Este brillante año nuevo se me ha dado / Vivir cada día con entusiasmo / Para Crecer a diario y tratar de ser lo mejor y lo mejor de mi. / Tengo la oportunidad / Una vez más de corregir algunos errores, / Orar por la paz, plantar un árbol, / Y cantar canciones más alegres. - William Arthur Ward

Objeto de Un Año Nuevo: El objeto de un Año Nuevo no es que debamos tener un año nuevo. Es que deberíamos tener un alma nueva y una nariz nueva; pies nuevos, columna vertebral nueva, oídos nuevos y ojos nuevos. A menos que un hombre en particular hiciera una resolución de Año Nuevo, no haría ninguna resolución. A menos que un hombre comience de nuevo con las cosas, ciertamente no hará nada efectivo. Gilbert K. Chesterton

Esperanza: La esperanza sonríe desde el umbral del año venidero, susurrando: "Será más feliz". Alfred Lord Tennyson

Mejor hombre: Esté en guerra con sus vicios, en paz con sus vecinos, y deje que cada año nuevo encuentre un hombre mejor. Benjamin Franklin

Cuentos Graciosos

Erma Bombeck, Resoluciones de Año Nuevo: 1. No iré a ningún médico cuyas plantas de consultorio hayan muerto. 2. Voy a seguir la sugerencia de mi esposo de poner un poco de emoción en mi vida viviendo dentro de nuestro presupuesto. 3. Voy a solicitar una beca por dificultades económicas para Weight Watchers. 4. Nunca prestaré mi coche a nadie que yo le haya dado a luz. (a través del P. Tony)

Resoluciones: Alguien dijo una vez: "Hice 6 resoluciones el año pasado y las guardé todo el año: están en un sobre en la gaveta superior de mi escritorio". (a través del P. Tony)

Dejar Los Cigarrillos: Mark Twain escribió: "Dejar los cigarrillos es fácil. Lo hago cien veces por semana". Muchos de nosotros, como Twain, nos desanimamos fácilmente por una resolución u otra que no cumple. Escuché acerca de un pobre tipo que decidió hacer solo resoluciones este año que podía cumplir. Decidió subir de peso, dejar de hacer ejercicio, leer menos y ver más televisión, posponer más las cosas, dejar de dar dinero y tiempo a la caridad, no salir con ningún miembro del elenco de Baywatch y no volver a hacer nunca más las resoluciones de Año Nuevo. (a través del P. Tony)

Oración de Año Nuevo: ¡Querido Señor! En lo que va de año lo he hecho bien. No he chismeadado, no he perdido el genio, no he sido codicioso, gruñón, desagradable, egoísta o excesivamente indulgente. Estoy muy agradecido por eso. Pero en unos minutos, Señor, me voy a levantar de la cama, y de ahí en adelante probablemente voy a necesitar mucha más ayuda. Amén.

Se eu fosse Deus, o que é que você me pediria?

Durante a Guerra da Coreia, um jornalista americano esteve na Coreia como jornalista para um jornal nos Estados Unidos. Enquanto estava na frente na guerra, ele conheceu um grupo de soldados que estavam cansados e fracos. Como não havia nada de interessante para relatar naquele dia, ele disse-lhes: "Imagine que eu sou Deus e que posso conceder-lhe qualquer pedido." Então, sorrindo perguntou-lhes: "Se eu sou Deus, o que é que você me iria pedir?" "Por favor, dê-me o amanhã", respondeu um soldado imediatamente.

De todas as coisas que ele poderia pensar, ele só pediu um amanhã. Porquê? Porque ele sabia que poderia ser morto a qualquer momento na frente na guerra. Ele sabia como a sua vida era preciosa. Por isso, ele pediu a chance de viver. Isso foi tudo o que ele pediu!

Pela graça de Deus, estamos todos vivos, embora alguns de nós possamos ter grandes desafios de saúde. Sobrevivemos à pandemia até agora e tivemos sorte de ver o Ano Novo de 2022. Tantas pessoas que pensaram que estariam aqui para ver o Ano Novo não existem mais. Essa é mais uma razão para agradecermos ao Senhor por nos dar um Ano Novo. Mas quanto estamos gratos a Deus por todas as suas bênçãos, especialmente pelo presente deste Ano Novo?

Quando começarmos este Ano Novo, devemos perceber o quanto preciosa é a nossa vida. Além disso, devemos lembrar como o nosso tempo é precioso. Se soubermos o quanto precioso é o nosso tempo, faremos uso do nosso tempo com cuidado, nunca o desperdiçando. Se usarmos o nosso tempo dado por Deus, então a nossa vida será um sucesso. Pelo contrário, se perdermos o nosso tempo fazendo coisas inúteis, as nossas vidas acabarão em tragédia.

Quando começarmos este Ano Novo, vamos oferecer as nossas vidas completamente às mãos de Deus. Vamos também pedir-lhe para estar connosco para nos guiar em tudo o que dizemos e fazemos durante este Ano Novo. Quando o Senhor está connosco, não há necessidade de ter medo de nada. Como Diz S. Paulo: "Se Deus está connosco, quem pode estar contra nós?" (Romanos 8:31). Sim, quando estivermos com Deus, Ele sempre nos protegerá e nos guiará pelos caminhos certos. Que o Senhor nos abençoe abundantemente durante este Ano Novo. Espero ver você na igreja.

Sunday Readings Explained- 128- Fr. Tony Kadavil

The Epiphany of the Lord, Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3: 2-3a, Mathew 2: 1-12

Gold of Love, Myrrh of humility, Frankincense of Adoration

Introduction: The Greek word Epiphany (ἐπιφάνεια), which means appearance or manifestation or showing forth, is used to describe Jesus' first appearance to the Gentiles. Originally, the word Epiphany referred to the visit of a king to the people of his provinces. In the context of Christianity, "Epiphany" refers to God's Self-revelation as well as to the revelation of Jesus as His Son. The Feast of the Epiphany, having originated in the East in the late second century, is an older celebration than the feast of Christmas. In Italy and Spain, the gifts traditionally associated with the Christmas season are exchanged today, on the feast of the Epiphany. Among Italians, it is believed that the gifts are brought by the old woman, Befana (from Epiphany), whereas Spanish custom attributes the gifts to the Kings or Magi.

In the Western Church, the feast commemorates the coming of the Magi as the occasion for the first manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles; in the Eastern Church, the feast also commemorates the baptism of Christ. The angels revealed Jesus to the shepherds, and the star revealed Jesus to the Magi, who had already received hints of Him from Jewish Scriptures. Some thirty years later, God the Father revealed to Israel Jesus' identity as His Son, as John baptized Jesus in the Jordan. In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus revealed Himself as the promised Messiah. Finally, Jesus revealed His Divinity by turning water into wine at the wedding of Cana. These multiple revelations are all suggested by the Feast of the Epiphany.

First Reading, Isaiah 60:1-6

Today's Old Testament reading, is chosen partly because it mentions non-Jews bringing gifts in homage to the God of Israel. Here the Prophet Isaiah, consoling the people in exile, speaks of the restoration of New Jerusalem from which the glory of Yahweh becomes visible even to the pagan nations. "Jerusalem," the prophet Isaiah cries out, "your light has come in the midst of darkness and thick clouds covering the earth; the glory of the Lord shines upon you." For the people of Israel, then in exile in a foreign land, Isaiah was promising redemption, renewal, and restoration -- a new life, to be lived in their own land. And the promise goes beyond the Jewish people to include all peoples. For the prophecy continues, "Nations will come to your light and kings to the brightness of your dawn." Thus, in this passage, the prophecy which the Lord God gives His people celebrates the Divine Light that will emanate from Jerusalem, and it pictures all the nations acknowledging and enjoying that Light and walking by It.

As a sign of gratitude for the priceless lessons of Faith offered by Jerusalem, the nations will bring wealth by land and sea, especially gold for the Temple and frankincense for the sacrifice. Everyone will be drawn to Jerusalem because the radiance of God's favor rests on her. This prophecy of Isaiah is realized in Jesus Christ, God's Anointed One (Christ; Messiah), Savior of the world, and in His Church, the New Jerusalem made up of Jews and Gentiles. Today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 72) declares "The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts; the Kings of Arabia and Seba shall bring tribute. All kings shall pay Him homage, all nations shall serve Him" (vv 12-13) In Christ, God is calling together the one human race to acknowledge and serve Him in holiness. Thus, this reading with its response expresses Hope for a time when "the people of God" will embrace all nations.

Second Reading, Ephesians 3: 2-3a:

As a privileged recipient of a Divine "epiphany," Saint Paul, in today's second reading, reveals God's "secret plan," that the Gentiles also have a part with the Jews in Divine blessings. Affirming the mystery of God's plan of salvation in Christ, Paul explains that the plan of God includes both Jews and Gentiles. Jesus implements this Divine plan by extending membership in the Church, making it available to all peoples. Thus, the Jews and the Gentiles have become, "coheirs, members of the same Body and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel." Hence, there are no second-class members in the Church among Christian believers. Paul declares that he has been commissioned by Christ to make this mystery known to the world. Today's Gospel teaches us how Christ enriches those who bring Him their hearts. These pagan Magi were acceptable to God because they feared God and did what was right. Since the Magi came with humble joy in their hearts to visit the Christ Child, God allowed them to see wondrous things. At the same time, today's Gospel hints at different reactions to the news of Jesus' birth, foreshadowing Jesus' passion and death, as well as the risen Jesus' mandate to make disciples of all nations (Mt 28:19).

Gospel Reading, Mathew 2: 1-12:

The first two chapters of Matthew's Gospel together with Luke, Chapters 1 and 2, come under the heading "infancy narratives." They have been described by Raymond E. Brown (The Birth of the Messiah, Image Books, New York: 1979), as a "Gospel in miniature," in which the evangelist has set forth the basic tenets of the Good News, namely, (1) the universal scope of salvation; (2) an affirmation of Jesus' Divine origins and Messianic mission; (3) the implications of God's plan and of Jesus' mission for the Church, i.e. a missiology of world-wide proportions.

Magi and the Star: The Magi were not Kings, but a caste of Persian priests who served kings by using their skills in interpreting dreams and the movements of the stars. The sixth century Italian tradition that the Magi finding Jesus were three Magi, Casper, Balthazar, and Melchior, is based on the fact that three gifts are mentioned in Matthew's Gospel: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Matthew nowhere says that there were three wise men from the East. Tradition holds each of them came from a different culture: Melchior was Asian, Balthazar was Persian and Caspar was Ethiopian - thus representing the three races known to the ancient world. "They are supposed to have been kings, but this stems from a very literal translation of a psalm verse: "The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts" (Ps 72:10). Ancient depictions of them never involved symbols of royalty, but simply the Phrygian cap and garments of noble Persians" (Dr. M Watson). The Magi may actually have been Persian priests or Babylonian astronomers or Nabataean spice-traders. Eventually, however, they were pictured as representatives of different peoples and races.

Star: Commentary on the Torah by Jewish rabbis suggests that a star appeared in the sky at the births of Abraham, Isaac, and Moses. Similarly, in the Book of Numbers, the prophet Balaam speaks of "a star that shall come out of Jacob." Stars were believed to be signs from God, announcing important events. Thus, the brightness of the Light to which Magi were drawn was made visible in the star they followed. (In the last 40 years, a number of scientists and astronomers have pointed to particular clusterings of planets or stars around the time of Jesus' birth, which would have created an unusual or dramatic heavenly "portent," suggesting that perhaps Matthew's account is more historical than some exegetes might choose to believe). The star which shone over the area and served as a beacon for the astrologers can be explained scientifically. Johannes Kepler (1571-1630), a German astrologer and mathematician, calculated that the planetary conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn which occurred ca 7-6 B.C.E. could have produced such an illumination in the sky over Bethlehem.

However, the star featured in Matthew's narrative figures more importantly because of its theological significance. No doubt, Matthew, with his mission to demonstrate that Jesus was the Promised One and the fulfillment of all Jewish hopes and prophecies, intended his readers to recall the story of Balaam in the book of Numbers (chapters 22-24). Therein, Balaam, a pagan seer from the East was co-opted by Balak, king of Moab to curse the Israelites. Prevented by Yahweh from uttering the curse, Balaam blessed Israel and prophesied, "a star shall rise from Jacob and a scepter shall arise out of Israel" (Numbers 24:17). Matthew portrayed the astral herald that proclaimed the appearance of Jesus and beckoned the Gentiles to salvation as the fulfillment of Balaam's prophesy. (Sanchez Files).

Gifts: Gold, frankincense and myrrh may be thought of as prophesying Jesus' future. Gold was a gift for Kings; frankincense (an ancient air purifier and perfume), was offered to God in Temple worship (Ex 30:37); and myrrh (an oriental remedy for intestinal worms in infants), was used by the High Priest as an anointing oil (Ex 30:23), and to prepare bodies for burial. These gifts were not only expensive but portable. Perhaps Joseph sold the gifts to finance the Holy Family's trip to Egypt. The gifts might have been God's way of providing for the journey that lay ahead.

Triple reactions: The Epiphany can be looked on as a symbol for our pilgrimage through life to Christ. The feast invites us to see ourselves in the Magi – a people on a journey to Christ. Today's Gospel also tells us the story of the encounter of the Magi with the evil King Herod. This encounter demonstrates three reactions to Jesus' birth, a) Hatred: a group of people headed by Herod planned to destroy Jesus; b) Indifference: another group, composed of priests and scribes, ignored Jesus; c) Adoration: the members of a third group -- shepherds and the magi -- adored Jesus and offered themselves to Him.

A. Destructive group: King Herod considered Jesus a potential threat to his kingship. Herod the Great was a cruel, selfish king who murdered his mother-in-law, wife, two brothers-in-law and three children on suspicion that they had plotted against him. In today's Gospel, Herod asks the chief priests and scribes where the Messiah is to be born. Their answer tells him, and us, much more, combining two strands of Old Testament promise - one revealing the Messiah to be from the line of David (see 2 Samuel 2:5), the other predicting "a ruler of Israel" who will "shepherd his flock" and whose "greatness shall reach to the ends of the earth" (see Micah 5:1-3) (Dr. Hann). Later, the scribes and Pharisees would plot to kill Jesus because Jesus had criticized them and tried to reform some of their practices. Today, many oppose Christ and the Church because of their selfish motives, evil ways, and unjust lives. Children still have Herods to fear. In the United States alone, one and a half million innocents, unborn children are aborted annually.

B. Group that ignored Christ: The scribes, the Pharisees, and the Jewish priests knew that there were nearly 500 prophecies in the Hebrew Scriptures concerning the promised Messiah. They were able to tell Herod the exact time and place of Jesus' birth. They were in the habit of concluding their reading from the prophets on the Sabbath day by saying, "We shall now pray for the speedy arrival of the Messiah." Unfortunately, they were more interested in their own selfish gains than in discovering the truth. Hence, they refused to go and see the child Jesus -- even though Bethlehem was quite close to Jerusalem. Today, many Christians remind us of this group. They practice their religion from selfish motives, like gaining political power, prestige, and recognition by society. They ignore Jesus' teachings in their private lives.

C. The group that adored Jesus and offered Him gifts: This group was composed of the shepherds and the Magi. The shepherds offered the only gifts they had: love, tears of joy, and probably woolen clothes and milk from their sheep. The Magi, probably Persian astrologers, were following the star that Balaam had predicted would rise, along with the ruler's staff, over the house of Jacob (see Numbers 24:17). The Magi offered gold, in recognition of Jesus as the King of the Jews; frankincense, in acknowledgment that He was God, and myrrh as a symbol of His human nature. "Like the Magi, every person has two great 'books' which provide the signs to guide this pilgrimage: the book of creation and the book of sacred Scripture. What is important is that we be attentive, alert, and listen to God Who speaks to us, Who always speaks to us." (Pope Francis)

Life Messages

1. Let us make sure that we belong to the third group.

a) Let us worship Jesus at Mass, every day if we can, with the gold of our love, the myrrh of our humility and the frankincense of our adoration. Let us offer God our very selves, promising Him that we will use His blessings to do good for our fellow men. b) Let us plot a better path for our lives. Just as the Magi chose another route to return to their homes, let us choose a better way of life, abstaining from proud and impure thoughts, words and actions, evil habits, and selfish behavior. c) Let us become the star, leading others to Jesus, as the star led the Magi to Him. We can remove or lessen the darkness of the evil around us by being, if not like stars, at least like candles, radiating Jesus' love by selfless service, unconditional forgiveness, and compassionate care.

2. Like the Magi, let us offer Jesus our gifts on this feast of Epiphany and every day:

(a) Gift of our life by offering it on the altar during the Holy Mass and by offering it to God every morning as soon as we get up, asking Him for the strengthening anointing of the Holy Spirit to do good and avoid evil during the course of the day. b) Gift of relationship with God by talking to Him in personal and family prayers and listening to Him by reading the Holy Bible every day. c) Gift of friendship with God by experiencing His presence in everyone we encounter, by offering Him our humble service, and by getting reconciled to God every night, asking His pardon and forgiveness for our sins and failures during the day.

Let us conclude with a 19th century English carol, Christina Rossetti's A Christmas Carol, which begins, "In the bleak midwinter." The carol sums up, in its last stanza, the nature of "giving to the Christ Child." What can I give him, poor as I am? If I were a shepherd, I could give a Lamb. If I were a wise man, I could do my part. What I can I give Him? Give Him my heart!"

Stewardship Reflections

Today is the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. For centuries we as Catholics celebrated this Feast on Jan. 6, but the decision was made a number of years ago (at least in the United States) to celebrate the Epiphany on the Sunday which falls between Jan. 2 and Jan. 8.

"Epiphany" means "manifestation." It is on this day that Jesus Christ, the Messiah, is revealed as the light of all nations. Officially Christmas is not over. In fact, the recommendation of the Church is that on this day those who display a crèche, a nativity or manger scene, should replace the shepherd and sheep with the Magi and their likely animals on which they traveled as well as their gifts. However, that is all secondary to the real meaning of this day.

At Christmas the Messiah Jesus was revealed to the shepherds, who were Jewish. But on this day the Lord is revealed to all nations and to the Gentiles (represented by the Magi). We are all familiar with the star the Magi followed, but we need to understand all that is happening and what it means. This all represents the Light of Christ, a Light which today we honor and commemorate. We are called to be the Light of Christ right now to those around us and those with whom we come in contact. That way we can be the disciples Christ wants us to be.

The poet William Cullen Bryant captures the significance of the star the Magi followed very well when he wrote, "O Father, may that Holy Star, Grow every year more bright, And send its glorious beams afar, To fill the world with light." — by Catholic Stewardship Consultants

The good news is that you can understand the Bible, and The Bible Timeline, a twenty-four-week Bible study, makes it easy. Presenter Fr. Jim May shows you how fourteen of the Bible's narrative books tell the biblical story from beginning to end and gives you the keys to understanding the amazing story woven throughout Scripture. You will learn the major people, places, and events of the Bible and discover how they all come together to reveal the remarkable story of our faith. Beginning on Monday, Jan.10 at 7:00pm (or Tuesday mornings at 9:30am), participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a group discussion and fellowship. The cost of the program is $39.00. For more information or to register contact Fr. Jim at 386 527-2247.

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Please Pray for Our Military

Although we pray for all of our military, space does not permit everyone's name to be printed.

Please advise when a person above is no longer deployed so we can remove their name from our list.

Prayer for the Unborn

Lord, Creator of Life, you have blessed us with the privilege of bringing new life into the world. May your Holy Spirit open our hearts and minds to recognize Your special gift of children, and Your great love for each of us created in Your image and likeness. You sent Your son Jesus to redeem us and through love He entered our world. We now turn to Mary, our Mother, for her intercession as we struggle to protect innocent unborn children. Following Mary's example may we proclaim the truth of our faith, assist those in crisis and protect those most vulnerable. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.
