Month of the Holy Rosary

On Friday, October 7 we celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. However, since the whole month of October is dedicated as the month of the Holy Rosary we are reminded to pray the rosary daily with more devotion and love for the Blessed Mother. The feast of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary was instituted by the Church in memory of the victory of the Christian forces over the Ottoman Turks at the Battle of Lepanto in 1571.

When the Ottoman Turks continued to flex their muscle with their westward expansion in the Mediterranean the Christian forces in Europe came together under the aegis of Pope Pius V and defeated the Turks decisively at the Battle of Lepanto. However, the Christian forces won not because of the superior strength of their navy but because of the heavenly intervention of the Blessed Mother as heaven was stormed with the prayers of people saying the rosary all over Europe at the request of the Pope.

In thanksgiving for this victory Pope Pius V instituted the Feast of Our Lady of Victory. In 1573 Pope Gregory XIII changed the title of this feast to 'the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.' While the Church continued to celebrate this feast every year in October, Pope Leo XIII dedicated the month of October to the Holy Rosary in 1883. Hence, the month of October became the month of the Blessed Mother just as the month of May became the month of the Blessed Mother through the May devotions.

Let us remember to honor our Blessed Mother in a special way throughout this month of October by saying devotional prayers to her and especially by saying the rosary every day. Our Lady who intervened to help the Christian forces at the Battle of Lepanto will definitely help us in our struggles in life too.

Respect Life Month

On Sunday, October 2, we observed Respect Life Sunday. Together with Fr. Rob Trujillo, around 50 of our parishioners participated in the LIFE CHAIN organized by the Respect Life Ministry of our parish. It was a peaceful and prayerful public witness of Pro-Life individuals standing for 60 minutes praying for our nation and for an end of abortion. I thank and congratulate everyone who participated in this event for the cause of promoting pro-life issues and praying for the end of abortion.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has set apart the month of October as Respect Life Month. This year's theme for Respect Life Month is "Christ our hope: In every season of life."

Mes del Santo Rosario

El Viernes 7 de Octubre celebramos la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora del Rosario. Sin embargo, dado que todo el mes de Octubre está dedicado como el mes del Santo Rosario, se nos recuerda rezar el rosario diariamente con más devoción y amor por la Santísima Madre. La fiesta de Nuestra Señora del Santo Rosario fue instituida por la Iglesia en memoria de la victoria de las fuerzas Cristianas sobre los Turcos Otomanos en la Batalla de Lepanto en 1571. Cuando los Turcos Otomanos continuaron demostrando su fuerza con su expansión hacia el oeste en el Mediterráneo, las fuerzas Cristianas en Europa se unieron bajo la égida del Papa Pío V y derrotaron decisivamente a los Turcos en la Batalla de Lepanto. Sin embargo, las fuerzas Cristianas ganaron no por la fuerza superior de su armada sino por la intervención celestial de la Santísima Madre cuando el cielo fue asaltado con las Oraciones de personas que rezaban el rosario en toda Europa a pedido del Papa.

En acción de gracias por esta victoria, el Papa Pío V instituyó la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de la Victoria. En 1573, el Papa Gregorio XIII cambió el título de esta fiesta a "Fiesta de Nuestra Señora del Rosario". Mientras que la Iglesia continuó celebrando esta fiesta todos los años en Octubre, el Papa León XIII dedicó el mes de Octubre al Santo Rosario en 1883. Por lo tanto, el mes de Octubre se convirtió en el mes de la Santísima Madre así como el mes de Mayo se convirtió en el mes de la Santísima Madre a través de las devociones de Mayo.

Recordemos honrar a nuestra Madre Santísima de manera especial a lo largo de este mes de Octubre diciéndole Oraciones devocionales y especialmente rezando el rosario todos los días. Nuestra Señora, que intervino para ayudar a las fuerzas Cristianas en la Batalla de Lepanto, definitivamente también nos ayudará en nuestras luchas en la vida.

Mes de Respeto a La Vida

El domingo 2 de octubre celebramos el Domingo de Respetemos la Vida. Junto con el p. Rob Trujillo, alrededor de los 50 de nuestros Feligreses participaron de la CADENA DE VIDA organizada por el Ministerio Respeto A La Vida de nuestra Parroquia. Fue un testimonio público pacífico y devoto de personas pro-vida que estuvieron de pie durante 60 minutos Orando por nuestra nación y por el fin del aborto. Agradezco y felicito a todos los que participaron en este evento por la causa de promover temas pro-vida y Orar por el fin del aborto.

La Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos (USCCB, por sus siglas en Inglés) ha apartado el mes de Octubre como el Mes de Respeto a la Vida. El tema de este año para el Mes de Respetemos la Vida es "Cristo nuestra esperanza: en cada etapa de la vida".

Mês do Santo Rosário

Na Sexta-feira, dia 7 de Outubro, celebramos a Festa de Nossa Senhora do Rosário. Mas como todo o mês de Outubro é dedicado como o mês do Santo Rosário lembremo-nos de rezar diariamente o terço com mais devoção e amor pela Mãe Santíssima. A festa de Nossa Senhora do Santo Rosário foi instituída pela Igreja em memória da vitória das forças Cristãs sobre os Turcos Otomanos na Batalha de Lepanto em 1571. Quando os Turcos Otomanos continuavam a conquistar com a sua expansão para o oeste no Mediterrâneo, as forças Cristãs na Europa uniram-se sob o apelo do Papa Pio V e derrotaram os Turcos decisivamente na Batalha de Lepanto. No entanto, as forças Cristãs venceram não por causa da força superior da sua marinha, mas por causa da intervenção celestial da Mãe Santíssima quando o céu foi invadido com as orações de pessoas rezando o rosário em toda a Europa a pedido do Papa.

Em acção de graças por esta vitória, o Papa Pio V instituiu a Festa de Nossa Senhora da Vitória. Em 1573, o Papa Gregório XIII mudou o título desta festa para "a Festa de Nossa Senhora do Rosário". Enquanto a Igreja continuava a celebrar esta festa todos os anos em Outubro, o Papa Leão XIII dedicou o mês de Outubro ao Santo Rosário em 1883. Assim, o mês de Outubro tornou-se o mês da Mãe Santíssima assim como o mês de Maio se tornou o mês da Mãe Santíssima através das devoções de Maio.

Lembre-mo-nos de honrar a nossa Mãe Santíssima de forma especial durante este mês de Outubro, fazendo orações devocionais a ela e especialmente rezando o terço todos os dias. Nossa Senhora que interveio para ajudar as forças Cristãs na Batalha de Lepanto definitivamente nos ajudará nas nossas lutas na vida também.

Respeite o Mês da Vida

No domingo, 2 de outubro, observamos o Domingo de Respeito à Vida. Juntamente com o Pe. Rob Trujillo, cerca de 50 dos nossos paroquianos participaram na LIFE CHAIN organizada pelo Ministério de Respeito à Vida da nossa paróquia. Foi uma testemunha pública pacífica e de oração de indivíduos pró-vida que estiveram por 60 minutos rezando pela nossa nação e pelo fim do aborto. Agradeço e dou os parabéns a todos que participaram neste evento pela causa promovendo o tema da pró-vida e orando pelo fim do aborto.

A Conferência dos Bispos Católicos dos Estados Unidos (USCCB) nomeou o mês de Outubro como o Mês do Respeito à Vida. O tema deste ano para o Mês do Respeito à Vida é "Cristo é a nossa esperança: em todas as estações da vida".

Ingratitude and Gratitude

Introduction

The central theme of today's readings is gratitude - in particular, the expression of gratitude God expects from us. By describing Jesus' miraculous healing of the ten lepers from a physically devastating and socially isolating disease, today's Gospel presents a God Who desires gratitude from us for the many blessings we receive from Him, and Who feels pain at our ingratitude. Naaman, the Syrian Military General in the first reading, was an outcast not only because of his illness; he was also a non-Israelite. But he returned to thank the Prophet Elisha for the cure of his leprosy, and as a sign of his gratitude transferred his allegiance to the God of Israel. St. Paul, in the second reading, advises Timothy to be grateful to God even in his physical sufferings and amid the dangers associated with spreading the Word of God, because God will always be faithful to His people.

Today's Gospel story tells us of a single non-Jewish leper (a "Samaritan heretic"), who returned to thank Jesus for healing him, while the nine Jewish lepers went their way, perhaps under the false impression that healing was their right as God's chosen people. They did not seem to feel indebted to Jesus or to God for the singular favor they had received. Instead, they hurried off to obtain a health certificate from the priests. "Where are the other nine?" Jesus asked the Samaritan leper and the crowd. "Did only one come back to say 'thank you?'" Today's readings also remind us that Faith and healing go hand in hand, as do Faith and reconciliation. It was Faith that prompted Naaman to plunge himself into the waters of the Jordan River, and it was Faith in Jesus which prompted the lepers to present themselves first to Jesus and then to the priests.

Finally, the readings demonstrate God's love for all peoples, including the Samaritans (whom the Israelites hated), and the pagans, Israel's enemies whom Naaman represented.

First reading, 2 Kings 5:14-17

The first reading describes a vivid expression of thanksgiving (hodayah) made by the pagan Naaman, the army commander of the King of Aram, (in present-day Syria; its capital was Damascus), at his healing from leprosy through the power of Yahweh. When the prophet Elisha refused to accept Naaman's costly gifts as reward for the healing, the grateful Naaman asked the prophet's permission to take two mule-loads of earth with him from Yahweh's land of Israel, so that when he got back to Damascus, he could place an altar for Yahweh on the soil, and so pray to Yahweh on the soil of Israel. Most people at that time had a crude, physical and territorial notion of Divinity. It was just understood that one god governed the land of Aram, and another god held sway over the territory of Israel, and so on. If you wanted to worship the God of Israel in another country, you had to take some of Israel's soil with you, dump it on the ground in the other country and stand on it. That way, you would "be in Israel," and so could worship Israel's God. The grateful Naaman promised that he would accept Yahweh as his only God and offer holocausts to Him in thanksgiving for the healing.

Second Reading, 2 Timothy 2:8-13

In the Church at Ephesus, Timothy held an office that would evolve into that of a Bishop. Paul, a senior Apostle now in prison, loved his young, one-time missionary companion and friend of long standing. Today's passage is part of Paul's encouragement to Timothy. Paul tells Timothy that he willingly accepts his suffering -- "even to the point of chains, like a criminal" -- as a grateful Apostle of Jesus, "for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory" (vv 9, 10). Part of the Christian life-experience includes the physical sufferings and dangers associated with spreading the Word of God [1 Cor. 15:31; 2 Cor. 4:8-11]. Paul reminds us that, "even if we are unfaithful, God will remain faithful;" and, hence, we must be grateful to God, even in our sufferings. "I give thanks to my God through Jesus Christ for all of you." (Rom 1:8)

Gospel Reading, Luke 17: 11-19

Leprosy as God's punishment: Jesus was on the border between Galilee and Samaria where He was met by a band of ten lepers, including both Jews and Samaritans who were drawn together by their common misery and who ignored their traditional enmity. Biblical leprosy rarely included Hansen's disease (leprosy proper). It was mostly skin diseases like ringworm, psoriasis, leukoderma, and vitiligo. The suffering of lepers in Biblical times was chiefly due to the way they were treated by the religious society of the day (Interpreter's Bible). They were deemed unclean, unfit to be counted among a people who considered themselves "a kingdom of priests, a holy nation" (Ex 19:6). "Leprosy" was a terrible disease because its victims were separated from their families and society. Lepers were treated as sinners who were being punished by God with a contagious disease. The punishment given to Miriam (the complaining sister of Moses in Numbers 12:9-10), to Gehazi (the greedy servant of the prophet Elisha: "The leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and your descendants forever" - II Kings 5: 27) and to King Uzziah (for burning incense in the Temple, a right reserved for priests, Chronicles 26:19), supported this Jewish belief that leprosy was God's punishment for sins.

Mosaic restrictions on lepers: The Mosaic Law, as given in Leviticus 13: 44-46, demands that a) the priest shall declare the leper unclean, b) the leper shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, c) he shall muffle his beard and he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean,' and

d) he shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp. The Book of Numbers (5:2-3) commands the Israelites "to put out of the camp everyone who is leprous." Over 3000 words in Leviticus (chapters 13-14), govern the inspection of suspected lepers, their isolation, and the procedure for declaring the healed leper clean. As a general rule, when a Jewish leper was healed, he had to go to the local priest to confirm that he was now clean and was permitted to mix with the general public.

The parallels: The Fathers of the Church note three parallels between the Gospel story and the story of Naaman, the Gentile who was also healed of leprosy. First, both Naaman and the Samaritan leper were foreigners who sought healing from a Godly Jew. Second, both were ordered to perform a small, seemingly irrelevant action. Elisha told Naaman to bathe in the river Jordan seven times. Jesus told the ten lepers to show themselves to the priest who could certify a healing. In both stories, healing took place only after they left His presence to obey. Third, both Naaman and the Samaritan returned to praise God.

The Samaritan hero: This incident recounting the thankfulness of the cleansed Samaritan leper is narrated only in Luke's gospel and provides an instance of Jesus holding up a non-Jew (Luke 17:18) as an example to his Jewish contemporaries. Moreover, it is the faith in Jesus manifested by the foreigner that has brought him salvation (Luke 17:19. (New American Bible notes).

Here a Samaritan is presented as the model of faith and gratitude. Luke was himself a Gentile, a foreigner and so he delights in recounting stories of foreigners whom God has blessed. A Samaritan is the hero of this episode. The thanks and praise of the Samaritan was a natural response to the free and undeserved mercy of God. The Samaritan knew that he was in the right place at the right time, and such an opportunity might never occur again for him. The Samaritan had not earned the kindness of God. He simply asked for it --and it was freely given. He knew he couldn't earn it; he was an outcast, a Samaritan. Having accepted God's grace, thanks and praise was his natural response. Both the author of 2 Kings and the Evangelist Luke wanted to make an important theological point about outsiders. No story in all the Gospels so poignantly shows man's ingratitude. The lepers came to Jesus with desperate longing, and the merciful Lord cured them. But nine of them never came back to give thanks.

Ingratitude and gratitude:

In both the Old Testament and the New Testaments, God laments over man's ingratitude. "Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth, for the LORD speaks: Sons have I raised and reared, but they have disowned me! An ox knows its owner, and an ass, its master's manger; But Israel does not know, My people have not understood. Ah! Sinful nation, people laden with wickedness, evil race, corrupt children! They have forsaken the LORD, spurned the Holy One of Israel and apostatized" (Isaiah; 1: 2-4). "He came to what was his own, but his own people z did not accept him" (John 1:11).

Hence, the Word of God invites us to be thankful. At the tomb of Lazarus Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me" (John 11:41). St. Paul advises us: "Give thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father" (Ephesians 5: 20). "And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him" (Colossians 3: 17). Psalms 107:1 advises us: "

Give thanks to the LORD Who is good, Whose love endures forever!" The medieval Christian mystic, Meister Eckhart, suggests that if the only prayer we say in our lifetime is "Thank-You," that would suffice. To speak gratitude is courteous and pleasant, to enact gratitude is generous and noble, but to live gratitude is to touch Heaven. (Johannes A. Gaertner).

Are we on a constant and consistent basis offering our thanks to God by how we use our time, our talents, and our treasure as good stewards? "What is the chief goal of human life?" The Westminster Catechism asks in its opening question and answer. "To glorify God and enjoy Him forever," is the answer. A chief way we do that is by thanking God moment by moment for the gifts that God has lavished upon us.

Life Messages

1) We need to learn to be thankful to God and to others.

Often we are ungrateful to God. Although we receive so much from Him, we often take it for granted, without appreciating His gifts. We allow the negatives of our lives to hide from ourselves the blessings we have received -- minor negatives like some health problems, financial worries, conflict with a neighbor or co-worker or spouse. Besides, we are often thankful only when we compare ourselves with less fortunate people. In times of need, we pray with desperate intensity; but as time passes we forget God. Many of us fail to offer a grace before meals or allot a few minutes of the day for family prayer. God gave us his only Son, but we seldom give Him a word of thanks. Often we are ungrateful to our parents and consider them a nuisance, although in the past we were dependent on them for literally everything. Similarly, we owe a great debt of gratitude to our friends, teachers, doctors, pastors--but we often fail to thank them. Hence, in the future, let us be filled with daily thanksgiving to God and to others for the countless gifts we have received.

Let us show our gratitude to our forgiving God by forgiving others, and to a loving God by radiating His love, mercy and compassion to others.

2) We need to celebrate the Holy Eucharist as the supreme act of thanksgiving.

The Greek word "Eucharist" means profoundly religious and thoroughly spiritual "thanksgiving." Thanksgiving is the attitude we should adopt in worship. When we celebrate Holy Mass together, we are thanking God for the great gift of His Son whose sacrifice formed us into the People of God. We thank God for the gift of the Spirit, through Whom we bring the presence of the Lord to others. Saying thanks to God together with the parish community, sharing our time, talents and material blessings in the parish and sharing the Heavenly Bread of Thanksgiving, the Holy Eucharist, are the simple forms of thanksgiving we can offer every Sunday in response to God's blessings.

3) Let us realize the truth that we all need healing from our spiritual leprosy.

Although we may not suffer from physical leprosy, we may suffer from the "spiritual leprosy" of sin which makes us unclean. Jesus is our Savior who wants to heal us from this leprosy of sin. Since Jesus is not afraid to touch our deepest impurities, let us not hide them. Just as the lepers cried out to Jesus for healing, let us also ask Him to heal us from the spiritual leprosy of sins including impurity, injustice, hatred and prejudice.

Stewardship Reflections

Gratitude is the key to a stewardship way of life. Today's readings demonstrate the power and vital importance of gratitude in the life of the Christian disciple, for gratitude leads us to worship God who offers us salvation.

We see the power of gratitude on display in the Gospel passage from Luke after Jesus heals ten lepers. "And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned." Only one of the ten recognized the tremendous blessing he had received from Jesus and returned to thank him. While it's easy to feel indignant at the failure of the nine others to return and thank Jesus, how often do we fail to recognize the blessings, answered prayers, and healings (both physical and spiritual), that the Lord shows upon us, day and night?

The truth is that our very lives and every breath we take are His gift to us. But we can get so caught up in the stresses and distractions of daily life that we lose touch with this truth.

The Samaritan reacts to his gift of healing with the proper response to our loving God. Recognizing what he had just received from the Lord, he "returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked Him." He was grateful for what God had done for him and this gratitude led to worship.

And because of this response, Jesus offered him a far more precious gift than physical healing; He offered him the gift of salvation. "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

Too often we hear the phrase, "Count your blessings," and write it off as nothing more than a trite saying. Today's Gospel shows us otherwise. Gratitude is powerful. It deepens our faith in God and leads us to fitting worship of Him.

Paulo Malheiros; Salud Gaoat; Margaret Fiore;
Eleanor T. Lebolt; Stacy Mayne; Isabel Ortiz

FOR INTENTIONS OF:

Daniel McConnell

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Please Pray for Our Military

Although we pray for all of our military, space does not permit everyone's name to be printed.

Please advise when a person below is no longer deployed so we can remove their name from our list. Please contact the parish office if you wish to have the name of someone listed for 4 weeks. As a courtesy please notify the office when the name can be removed or if you wish to have the name continued. Be sure to get the person's permission first!

Prayer for the Unborn

Lord, Creator of Life, you have blessed us with the privilege of bringing new life into the world. May your Holy Spirit open our hearts and minds to recognize Your special gift of children, and Your great love for each of us created in Your image and likeness. You sent Your son Jesus to redeem us and through love He entered our world. We now turn to Mary, our Mother, for her intercession as we struggle to protect innocent unborn children. Following Mary's example may we proclaim the truth of our faith, assist those in crisis and protect those most vulnerable. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

As we continue with Respect Life Month, we have another opportunity to show our support for those mothers who have chosen LIFE.

In a recent address to the Knights of Columbus, the Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly pledged with the new Knight initiative - Aid and Support After Pregnancy - to donate five (5) million dollars to pro-life pregnancy centers in the U. S. and Canada by June of 2023.

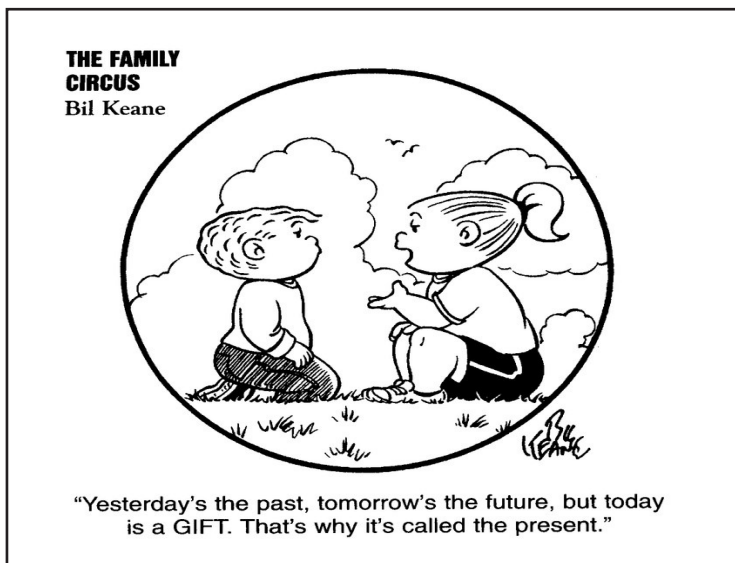

Here at SEAS we can do this on a much smaller scale by filling the requests of a recent e-mail from our local pregnancy center - Alpha Women's Center. They are in need of:

- *Baby wash, lotion and diaper cream
- *Grooming kits
- *Anticholic baby bottles
- *Baby towels and wash cloths
- *Bottle brushes
- *Backpack diaper bags

Thank you in advance for your usual generosity. No donation is too small. All is greatly appreciated.

UPCOMING OPPORTUNITY to communicate to our Florida legislators our goal of a No Abortion State. Post cards are available for signature from Respect Life Committee members and will be at our table the week-end of October 29 and 30. These will be hand-delivered to Tallahassee on November 22, when all the legislators meet to be sworn in.

Thank you for your support, as Florida Voice for the Unborn and Family for Life launch this campaign to inform the legislators of this pro-life initiative. Questions or concerns contact Priscilla Positano at pcposi2324@gmail.com
