Mailing Campaign for Evangelization

Twenty-seven hundred years ago, a young man, Isaiah, was praying in the temple of Jerusalem. As he was immersed in deep prayer, he saw the glory of God. Immediately, he became aware of his sinfulness and said, "Woe is me; I am doomed. I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips. Yes, my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" (Isaiah 6:5)

At that moment, an angel flew to him, holding an ember, and touched the mouth of Isaiah and said, "Now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged." Then Isaiah heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go before me as my messenger?" (Isaiah 6:8)

Immediately, Isaiah said, "Here I am, Lord, send me." Thus, Isaiah became a messenger of the Lord and a prophet of the people of Israel. He preached the word of God for many years among his people. He presented to the world in vivid language the good news of the coming of the Messiah, who would also suffer and die for the forgiveness of our sins.

Later, in the fullness of time, Jesus, the Messiah, and Savior, was born in Bethlehem. He was a messenger of the good news of our Heavenly Father's love for everyone. After his death and resurrection, when it was time for Jesus to ascend to heaven, he said to his disciples, "Be my witnesses to the ends of the earth. Teach them what I have taught you. Baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. And I will be with you till the end of the age" (Matthew 28: 19-20). The Church, founded on the rock of Peter, has always been faithful in continuing the ministry of Jesus. And the Church has always relied on its members to fulfill the mission given by Jesus. Today, the Lord is asking the same question he once asked young Isaiah, "Whom shall I send? Who will go before me as my messenger"? Yes, the Lord needs messengers more than ever before to spread his word everywhere, including the Palm Coast Community.

Over the last few years, we have been trying our best to spread the message of Jesus through door-to-door visits and mailing campaigns. Despite the problems created by Covid-19, a few of our members succeeded in making almost 4000 door-to-door visits and delivering evangelization materials during the last three years.

During this period, we also mailed evangelization postcards three times to the people of Palm Coast. Toward the end of last week, we sent postcards to all local postal customers (around 47000), inviting them to Holy Week Services. We could do this because of the generosity of some parishioners, and I thank them for the same. Let us hope and pray that our efforts to share the good news of the Lord Jesus in Palm Coast will bear fruits with the grace of God.

Funny Stories

Atheist: After an atheist died, a friend looked at him in the casket, shook his head, and remarked, "All dressed up and no place to go."

Heaven or hell: A man was surprised to read the announcement of his death in the obituary column of the local newspaper. Ringing up his close friend, he enquired, "Did you see the announcement of my death in the paper this morning?" "Yes," was the frightened answer in a shivering voice. "But where are you speaking from? Heaven or Hell?"

Friends: The pastor was visiting a terminally sick parishioner in the hospital. As he started consoling the patient, the sick man said: "Don't worry about where I am heading, Father. I have friends in both places."

Campaña de Correo Por La Evangelización

Hace dos mil setecientos años, un joven, Isaías, estaba Orando en el templo de Jerusalén. Mientras estaba inmerso en profunda Oración, vio la gloria de Dios. Inmediatamente, se dio cuenta de su pecaminosidad y dijo: "¡Ay de mí! Estoy Condenado. Soy un hombre de labios inmundos, que habito en medio de un pueblo de labios inmundos. ¡Sí, mis ojos han visto al Rey, el Señor de los ejércitos!" (Isaías 6:5)

En ese momento, un ángel voló hacia él, sosteniendo una brasa, tocó la boca de Isaías y dijo: "Ahora que esto ha tocado tus labios, tu maldad ha sido quitada, tu pecado limpio". Entonces Isaías escuchó la voz del Señor que decía: "¿A quién enviaré? ¿Quién irá delante de mí como mi mensajero? (Isaías 6:8)

Inmediatamente, Isaías dijo: "Aquí estoy, Señor, envíame". Así, Isaías se convirtió en mensajero del Señor y profeta del pueblo de Israel. Predicó la palabra de Dios durante muchos años entre su pueblo. Presentó al mundo en un lenguaje vívido la buena noticia de la venida del Mesías, quien también sufriría y moriría por el perdón de nuestros pecados.

Más tarde, en la plenitud de los tiempos, nació en Belén Jesús, el Mesías y Salvador. Era un mensajero de las buenas nuevas del amor de nuestro Padre Celestial por todos. Después de su muerte y resurrección, cuando llegó el momento de que Jesús ascendiera al cielo, dijo a sus discípulos: "Sed mis testigos hasta los confines de la tierra. Enseñales lo que yo te he enseñado. Bautizadlos en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Y estaré con vosotros hasta el fin del mundo" (Mateo 28: 19-20).

La Iglesia, fundada sobre la roca de Pedro, siempre ha sido fiel en continuar el ministerio de Jesús. Y la Iglesia siempre ha confiado en sus miembros para cumplir la misión encomendada por Jesús. Hoy, el Señor está haciendo la misma pregunta que una vez le hizo al joven Isaías: "¿A quién enviaré? ¿Quién irá delante de mí como mi mensajero"? Sí, el Señor necesita mensajeros más que nunca para difundir su palabra en todas partes, incluida la comunidad de Palm Coast.

En los últimos años, hemos estado haciendo todo lo posible para difundir el mensaje de Jesús a través de visitas puerta a puerta y campañas de correo. A pesar de los problemas creados por el Covid-19, algunos de nuestros miembros lograron realizar casi 4000 visitas puerta a puerta y entregar materiales de evangelización durante los últimos tres años.

Durante este período, también enviamos postales de evangelización tres veces a la gente de Palm Coast. A fines de la semana pasada, enviamos postales a todos los clientes postales locales (alrededor de 47,000), invitándolos a los Servicios de Semana Santa. Pudimos hacer esto gracias a la generosidad de algunos feligreses, y les agradezco por lo mismo. Esperemos y Oremos para que nuestros esfuerzos por compartir las buenas nuevas del Señor Jesús en Palm Coast den frutos con la gracia de Dios.

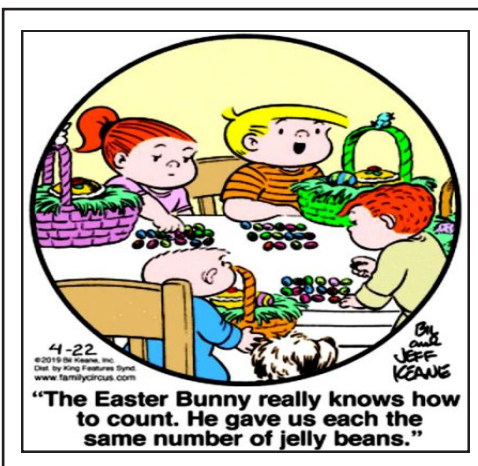

Cuentos Graciosos

Ateo: Después de la muerte de un ateo, un amigo lo miró en el ataúd, sacudió la cabeza y comentó: "Todo vestido y sin lugar a donde ir".

Cielo o infierno: Un hombre se sorprendió al leer el anuncio de su muerte en la columna de obituarios del periódico local. Llamando a su amigo cercano, preguntó: "¿Viste el anuncio de mi muerte en el periódico esta mañana?" "Sí", fue la respuesta asustada con voz temblorosa. "¿Pero de dónde hablas? ¿Cielo o infierno?"

Amigos: El pastor estaba visitando a un feligrés con una enfermedad terminal en el hospital. Mientras comenzaba a consolar al paciente, el enfermo le dijo: "No se preocupe por dónde voy, Padre. Tengo amigos en ambos lugares".

Campanha para a Evangelização

Vinte e sete centenas de anos atrás, um jovem, Isaías, orava no templo de Jerusalém. Em profunda oração, ele viu a glória de Deus. Imediatamente, tomou consciência dos seus pecados e disse: "Ai de mim; Estou condenado. Sou um homem de lábios impuros, vivo no meio de um povo de lábios impuros. Sim, os meus olhos viram o Rei, o Senhor!" (Isaías 6:5)

Naquele momento, um anjo voou até ele, segurando uma brasa, e tocou a boca de Isaías e disse: "Agora que isso tocou os seus lábios, a sua maldade foi removida, seu pecado foi expurgado". Então Isaías ouviu a voz do Senhor dizendo: "A quem enviarei? Quem me precederá como meu mensageiro?" (Isaías 6:8)

Imediatamente, Isaías disse: "Eis-me aqui, Senhor, enviai-me". Assim, Isaías tornou-se mensageiro do Senhor e profeta do povo de Israel. Pregou a Palavra de Deus durante muitos anos no meio do seu povo. Ele apresentou ao mundo, em linguagem viva, as boas novas da vinda do Messias, que também sofreria e morreria pelo perdão dos nossos pecados.

Mais tarde, na plenitude dos tempos, Jesus, o Messias e Salvador, nasceu em Belém. Ele foi um mensageiro das boas novas do amor do nosso Pai Celestial por todos. Depois da sua morte e ressurreição, quando chegou a hora de Jesus subir ao céu, disse aos seus discípulos: "Sede minhas testemunhas até aos confins da terra. Ensinai-lhes o que vos ensinei. Batizai-os em nome do Pai, do Filho e do Espírito Santo. E eu estarei convosco até ao fim dos tempos» (Mateus 28, 19-20).

A Igreja, fundada sobre a rocha de Pedro, sempre foi fiel na continuação do ministério de Jesus. E a Igreja sempre confiou nos seus membros para cumprir a missão dada por Jesus. Hoje, o Senhor faz a mesma pergunta que uma vez fez ao jovem Isaías: "Quem enviarei? Quem me precederá como meu mensageiro"? Sim, o Senhor precisa de mensageiros mais do que nunca para espalhar a Sua palavra em todos os lugares, incluindo a Comunidade de Palm Coast.

Ao longo dos últimos anos, temos tentado ao máximo difundir a mensagem de Jesus através de visitas porta-à-porta e campanhas de correspondência. Apesar dos problemas criados pela Covid-19, alguns dos nossos membros conseguiram fazer quase 4,000 visitas porta-à-porta e entregar materiais de evangelização durante os últimos três anos.

Durante este período, também enviamos postais de evangelização três vezes para o povo de Palm Coast. No final da semana passada, enviámos postais a todos os clientes dos Correios locais (cerca de 47,000), convidando-os para os Serviços da Semana Santa. Podemos fazê-lo pela generosidade de alguns paroquianos, o que eu agradeço. Esperemos e rezemos para que os nossos esforços para partilhar as boas novas do Senhor Jesus em Palm Coast produzam frutos com a graça de Deus.

Ligando para seu amigo próximo, ele perguntou: "Você viu o anúncio da minha morte no jornal esta manhã?" "Sim", foi a resposta assustada com uma voz trêmula. "Mas de onde você está a falar? Do céu ou do inferno?"

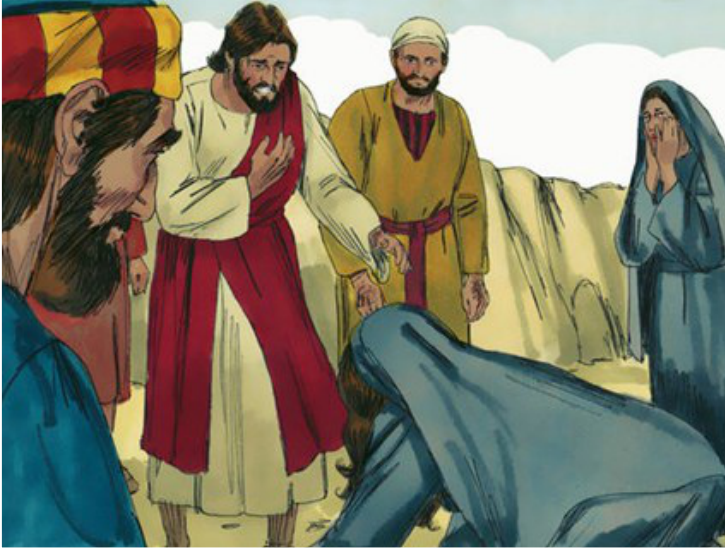

Amigos: O pastor visitou um paroquiano com doença terminal, no hospital. Quando começou a consolar o paciente, o doente disse: "Não se preocupe para onde eu vou, Padre. Tenho amigos nos dois lugares."

Sunday Readings Explained- 193- Fr. Tony Kadavil

Fifth Sunday of Lent, Ezekiel 37:12-14, Romans 8:8-11, John 11:1-45

“Lazarus, Come Out!” Good News for All

Introduction

Resurrection hope is the central theme of the Scripture readings for the fifth Sunday of Lent. We can see the progression in themes from the thirst for living water (III Sunday of Lent), through the desire to be healed of our spiritual blindness (IV Sunday) to our ultimate desire to share in eternal life with the risen Lord (V Sunday). Death and resurrection are the themes that permeate today's Scripture lessons. The Psalmist awaits Yahweh's redemption both for himself and for Israel. In his vision, Ezekiel, in the first reading, bears witness to the reanimation of the dead Israel in preparation for her return to the Promised Land. He guarantees his community in exile that Yahweh will one day bring them back to live in the freedom of the Promised Land. He assures his people that not even death will stop God from carrying out this promise.

Yahweh states, "I will open your graves, have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel." St. Paul, in the second reading, assures the early Roman Christians who were facing death by persecution, and us who are surrounded by a culture of death, that the same Spirit Who raised Jesus from the dead and Who dwells within us will give life to our mortal bodies. He considers the resurrection of Jesus as a reality, the ground of our faith and the basis for our hope of sharing in Jesus' resurrection. For John, in today's Gospel, the raising of Lazarus is the final and greatest sign of Jesus, the Deliverer, a symbolic narrative of his victory over death at the cost of his own life and a sign anticipating his resurrection. Describing this great miracle, the Church assures us that we, too, will be raised into eternal life after our battle with sin and death in this world. Thus, resurrection hope is the central theme of the Scripture readings for the fifth Sunday of Lent. The readings assure us that our faith in Jesus, who is "the resurrection and the life," promises our participation in resurrection and new life.

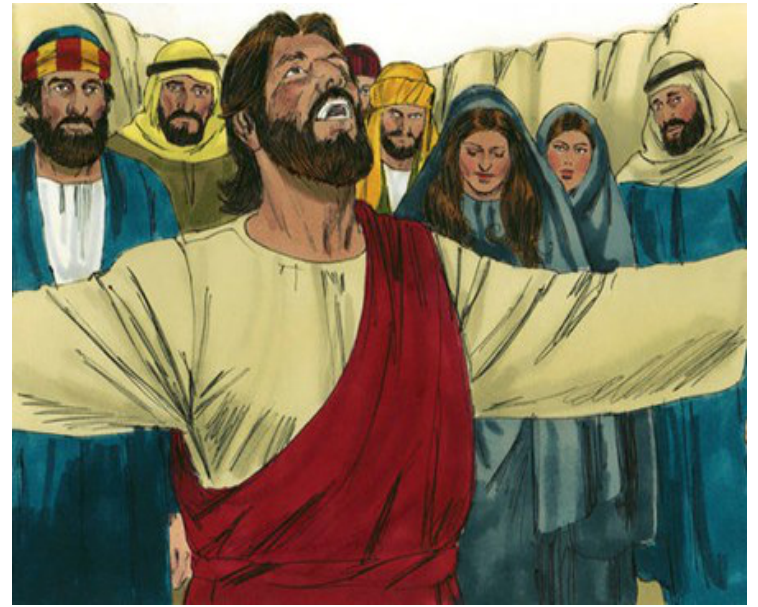

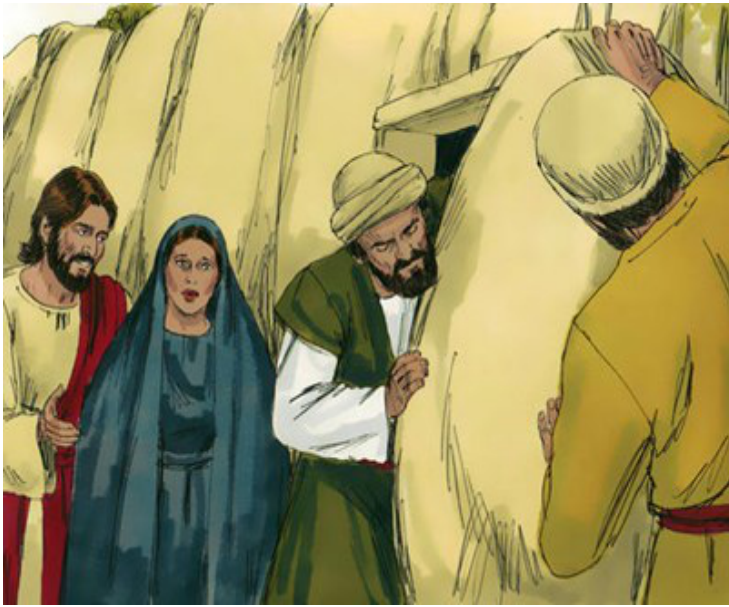

First Reading, Ezekiel 37:12-14

The haunting vision of the valley of dry bones described by Ezekiel (in chapter 37 verses 1-11), forms the background of today's first reading. The imagery may well have come from an actual battle site, probably that of the battlefield after the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon in 586 BC. After a few years, the Babylonian soldiers uprooted many of God's people and dragged them into slavery in Babylon, some 750 miles from their homeland. This was the beginning of the period known as the Babylonian Captivity, or simply the Exile. Ezekiel was a priest of the Temple of Jerusalem up to 597 B.C., when he was deported to Babylon with King Joachim and the first deportees.

In his vision, the release of the Jews from the captivity and slavery of Babylon is described as a rising from their graves to return to a new life in their own homeland. Through the prophet, God assures the exiles that they will live again. They will be raised from death and filled with life. They will experience new life, life that springs from God's own Spirit. The prophet urges his devastated nation to look beyond that catastrophe to a future that vindicates God's justice and promises the restoration of the nation through the Spirit of God.

Second Reading, Romans 8:8-11

In the second reading, St. Paul reassures the Romans of a future resurrection to a life of unending glory for all those who during their time on earth have been loyal to God and His Son Jesus. This resurrection is won for us by the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus. Paul advises the Roman Christians, and us, to allow the Holy Spirit who dwells in them to renew and sanctify them, thus making them eligible for resurrection. "If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you." This indwelling Spirit of God, which we have received in baptism, will release us from the "grave" of the flesh and allow us to live the life of the Spirit. The Spirit-filled life is a life of intimacy with God. In this passage, Paul stresses the empowering action of God the Father, Christ, and the Holy Spirit.

Gospel Reading, John 11: 1-45

Motives behind the miracle: According to John, the raising of Lazarus is the sixth of seven signs. It is also the last and greatest of the miracles worked by our Lord to prove that he is the Messiah, the Christ, the Son of God, and that through faith in him believers will receive eternal life. In other words, Jesus wanted to make this, his last recorded miracle, a convincing proof of his claim to be what he was---the Messiah, sent by God to give new life, eternal life, to mankind. As this miracle took place a few miles from Jerusalem, Jesus also knew it would give his enemies the impulse and motivation to carry out his condemnation and crucifixion, which was the "debt" he, "the suffering servant" of God, was to pay for the sins of mankind. Jesus explains the why of this miracle as "It is for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." First, when Jesus brings Lazarus back to life, people will give God glory for the miracle. Second, in this Gospel, Jesus' glorification involves the cross, and verses 45-53 make it clear that Lazarus' resurrection will lead to Jesus' death and resurrection. This is another way of saying that His death on the cross will lead to his glorification. This miracle story, taking place as Jesus is on his final journey to Jerusalem, prepares us for his death and resurrection.

Moving story of sorrow and faith: John's Gospel begins with a wedding and closes with a funeral. There are four primary characters in this story: Jesus, Martha, Mary, and Lazarus. Martha, Mary and Lazarus were good friends of Jesus. John tells us that he "loved" them. The funeral rituals of Jesus' day were obviously different from ours. When somebody died the body was wrapped in linen and, before sunset on the day of death, was put into the burial vault -- a cave carved into limestone rock -- often with myrrh, frankincense and perfumes. Then there was intense mourning for seven days followed by a less intense mourning period of twenty-three days. Lazarus' sisters had sent word to Jesus that their brother Lazarus was ill and perhaps would soon die. On receiving the message, Jesus waited two days so that the will of God might be demonstrated and God glorified by His Son through a major miracle.

At last, Jesus went to the house of Lazarus, knowing very well that his friend had died. On his arrival, Jesus pacified Martha with one of the most treasured of his teachings which brings great consolation at funeral service, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever lives and believes in me will never die." Jesus offers "eternal life," which begins with faith now and lasts forever in its fullness. Then he asked one of the most important questions found in the Bible, "Do you believe this, Martha?" Martha answered, "I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." Martha pronounced her confession of faith as a response to Jesus who had revealed himself as the resurrection and the life. Her faith did not depend upon seeing her brother raised from the dead. Proof begets knowledge and confirms faith; faith does not rest on proof. As John writes this story for his persecuted early Christian community, Martha represents that grieving community in asking the perennial question: "If Jesus gave us eternal life, why are believers still dying?" John's story offers a challenging response and offers us all those words that bring such consolation at funeral services: "I am the resurrection and life; whoever believes in me even if he [or she] dies will live, and everyone who believes in me will never die."

Supporting community and the reassuring Jesus. Martha returned home and told her sister Mary that Jesus wanted to talk with her. Mary went immediately, surrounded by grieving friends, to find Jesus. Then comes that classic line, the shortest verse in the Bible. "Jesus wept." The Greek translation literally means that Jesus "burst into tears." This showed that he was not only the Son of God, but also the son of man, fully human sharing our grief and our sorrow and comforting us with his declaration, "Blessed are those who mourn for they shall be comforted." Mary's friends who grieved with her are the model of a supporting church community. There is something therapeutic about having friends around us when we are grief-stricken. Hence, the church must be a community of compassion and consolation to one another. Often, in our busy and active culture, we don't have time to live deeply with our feelings and to share deep love or deep sorrow.

Touch of human sentiments: While the miracle of raising Lazarus from the grave shows Jesus' divine power over death itself, it also shows him as a wonderfully sensitive human being. His love for Lazarus and his sisters is palpable. Martha's and Mary's complaint that Jesus' presence would have averted Lazarus' death shows us how real their friendship was. So do Jesus' tears. The story also represents the best of that special human quality in Jesus of openly expressing real feelings. This interpretive description of Jesus' greatest miracle is also John's reflection on the significance of the resurrection.

Life Messages

1. "Roll away the stone, unbind him and let him go." There are so many dark areas in our private life. We often bind ourselves with chains of addiction to alcohol, drugs, sexual deviations, slander, gossip, envy, prejudices, hatred and uncontrollable anger and bury ourselves in the tombs of despair. Sometimes we are in the tomb of selfishness, filled with negative feelings such as worry, fear, resentment, hatred, and guilt. Jesus asks us today to seek his help and that of the community around us to loosen those chains and come out of the tombs of our own creation. Is there an area of life where hope is gone?

Why not invite Jesus to visit this area? If we want Jesus to visit our dark dungeons of sin, despair and unhappiness, let us ask Him during this Holy Mass to bring the light and the power of His Holy Spirit into our private life and liberate us from our tombs. Are there times when we refuse to let God enter into our wallets, fearing that faithful tithing will endanger our savings? When we receive the sacrament of reconciliation, Jesus will call our name and command, "Come out!" Jesus calls each of us by name to come out of our graves and to help others to do the same. "Lazarus, come out! Mary, come out! Jim and Joe, Kathy and Lisa, come out!" This is particularly good news to someone who is addicted, whether to a chemical substance or to unsavory habits. "Lazarus, come out!" This is good news for the person who has lived an empty, meaningless life, "Lazarus, come out!" This is good news for the tired, the hurting, the person at his or her wit's end. "Lazarus, come out!" This is good news for all of us, "Lazarus, come out!" This can be the beginning of a new life.

2. We need to be ready to welcome death any time. We live in a world that is filled with death. We kill each other in acts of murder, abortion, euthanasia, execution, war and terrorist activities. We kill ourselves through suicide, drug and alcohol abuse, smoking, overwork, stress, bad eating habits, and physical neglect. We watch calmly as others die from poverty, hunger and malnutrition, homelessness, unemployment, poor education, disease, child abuse, arms proliferation, discrimination, pollution, and destruction of the environment. The most important question is: Am I ready to face my death? A strange question and its truthful answer are found in the sacred scriptures of the Hindus. "What is the greatest wonder in the world?"

The answer is: "All of us know that we will surely die, but each of us foolishly thinks that he or she will not die any time in the near future." Let us not be foolish; let us be wise, well-prepared and ever ready to meet our Lord with a clear conscience when the time comes.

Stewardship Reflections

At this point in our Lenten journey, it is tempting to grow weary of the spiritual disciplines we have taken on. Today's readings inspire us to remain faithful, in grateful response to a God who loves us so much.

In our first reading, the prophet Ezekiel speaks God's own words to us. "I will put my spirit in you that you may live... I have promised and I will do it, says the Lord." Our God wants to be so closely united to us that we are one with Him. And He has promised He will do it. But only if we make room for Him by making Him THE priority of our lives. Putting God first is a grateful response that is very pleasing to Him.

How can we do this? Our second reading, from Romans, tells us. "Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh... you are in the spirit if only the Spirit of God dwells in you."

The disciplines of Lent and a stewardship way of life are wonderful gifts that free us from too great an attachment to "the flesh." The sacrifices we make as Christian stewards are not meant to restrict our freedom and joy. Quite the contrary. They are tools to help us find the real freedom and joy that only come when we make room in our lives for God.

As we journey closer to the Passion of our Lord, let us intensify our Lenten resolutions and our stewardship way of life, inviting the Holy Spirit to take over more and more of our lives. By Easter, we will be freer to rejoice in Him and truly pleasing to God.

Tickets Are Available for Eucharistic Revival Pilgrimage 2024

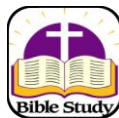

The Eucharistic Revival Committee purchased the maximum number of group tickets we were able to purchase before Christmas. We are working with a travel agent to put together packages for the pilgrimage to Indianapolis in July 2024. We just received information on our hotel block. We will have the package ready shortly with costs and other information. A JotForm registration will be available and pilgrimage packages will be offered on a first-come, first-served method.

This ministry is open to all people outside the parish, so please invite your family and friends.

To follow on Social Media or for more info, visit the SEAS website at seaspcfl.org/community-groups.

Ten Candles Burning in the Holy of Holies

March 25—March 31

IN MEMORY OF:

Jim & Roseann Bradley; Margaret Cassello; Salud Gaoat;
Ruth Morrissey; Richard Butterfield; John Sugden;
Hope Pulick; Daniel Piettro; Griffin Hart

FOR INTENTIONS OF:

Patricia Holloway

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Please Pray for Our Military

Although we pray for all of our military, space does not permit everyone's name to be printed. Please advise when a person below is no longer deployed so we can remove their name from our list. Please contact the parish office if you wish to have the name of someone listed for 4 weeks. As a courtesy please notify the office when the name can be removed or if you wish to have the name continued. Be sure to get the person's permission first! God bless them all & continue to pray for them!

When Jesus heard about the illness of His friend, Lazarus, He responded, "This illness is not to end in death, rather it is for God's glory, that through it the Son of God may be glorified." Every aspect of our lives --- our gifts as well as our sufferings --- can, if surrendered to Christ, lead to blessing for others and ourselves.

Many pro-life opportunities still await us during this Lenten season.

Mass will be celebrated on Friday, March 31 at 8 am at Family for Life Center at 4131 University Drive in Jacksonville, followed by Stations of the Cross and then prayer and singing across the way at Women's Choice (abortion facility). Car pooling is available. Come once, save a baby.

Please call Florida Senate President Passidomo at 850-487-5028 or 239-417-6205 to thank her for her efforts in preparing the Senate Pregnancy and Parenting Support Act (Heartbeat Bill) SB300. Any new pro-life bill information can be obtained at the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops website - www.flaccb.org. Then call Speaker Renner and Senator Hutson, as a "constituent" to show your support.

Our monthly first Friday Stand for Life will NOT be held on Friday April 7, because it is Good Friday. We ask all to attend the 3 pm service and Veneration of the Cross and wear your Respect Life shirt.

There WILL BE a second Saturday Respect Life Committee meeting on Saturday, April 8 - Holy Saturday at 9:30 in the Cody Room/Seton Hall to finalize our presentation of Respect Life materials at the SEAS Health Fair scheduled for Saturday, April 15, 2023, from 9-3.

Please take advantage of the opportunity to become a Prayer Warrior for Alpha Women's Center here in Flagler County. Registration forms are available in the bassinette in the Gathering Area. It is amazing how many local moms need our prayers.

Thank you for all who anonymously donate baby items to our bassinette and thank you to Fr. Jose for giving us this space.

Daily Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed on the altar for adoration after all the weekday Masses at 8.30 am till 10 am. Kindly join us and adore the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Eucharistic Adoration Hours

The hours of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament are from 9 am to 9 pm, seven days a week.

The Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Fridays also are from 9 am to 9 pm. The Blessed Sacrament is also exposed on the altar for adoration on other weekdays after the 8.30 am Mass till 10 am.

Please remember that if the Holy of Holies is filled you are encouraged to pray in the main worship area of the church.

We are asking that you contact Gilda Sadio, (386 225- 7261 or gilda.sadio@yahoo.com) our Adoration Facilitator, and select ONE hour which you will commit to. There's no limit to how many parishioners can be present every hour since it's in the Church not the Holy of Holies, we just want to be sure that there's at least one or two persons who will be present every hour.

Anyone interested in spending time with Our Lord in Adoration should call Gilda Sadio-Kow at 386-225-7261 for availability and information.

Saturday Group Adoration

All are invited to join the Group Eucharistic Adoration led by one of the deacons on Saturdays at 9:15 am. Adoration booklets will be available. For more information, contact Marilou Mallada at 609-468-1477.

Las Reunionés del Comité Hispano
