The Lord is Risen, Praise the Lord!

The great Hollywood producer Cecil B. DeMille (1881-1959) is best known for his 1956 film The Ten Commandments. He had earlier made a film under the same title in 1923. However, his most widely seen movie is The King of Kings, produced in 1927, about the life of Jesus. (Later, Nicholas Ray directed a movie about Jesus under the same title in 1961.)

Over 800 million people had the privilege to watch The King of Kings, produced by DeMille. With H. B. Warner in the role of Jesus, DeMille gave us a classic view of Jesus as portrayed in the Gospels. After this movie was released, DeMille received thousands of letters from all over the world from people who truly enjoyed this great movie.

Of the many letters he received, the one he liked the most was from a woman dying of cancer. She wrote, "Thank you, thank you for The King of Kings. It has changed what is about to happen from a terror to a glorious anticipation." Jesus Christ's promise of eternal life and his resurrection from the dead, as portrayed in the movie, gave hope to this dying woman.

When she saw the resurrection of Jesus, she knew it was a guarantee of her own resurrection. That was why she lost her fear of death and looked forward to sharing in the glory of the Risen Lord.

To those who believe in Jesus, death is no longer something to be afraid of. On the contrary, it is something that we need to look forward to as it is a passageway for us to receive a share in the glory of Jesus. The suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus have made a radical impact on our life and death. Because of the death and resurrection of Jesus, now we can also look forward to our death with glorious anticipation.

However, to receive a share in the glory of Jesus in heaven, we need to do his will as he did his heavenly Father's will while he was here on earth. In the Gospel of John, Jesus says, "I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes in him who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned; he has crossed over from death to life" (5:24). These words of Jesus remind us of the need to obey his teachings to receive the gift of eternal salvation. At the same time, they also remind us of the great promise of eternal life by Jesus.

In the same Gospel, Jesus also says, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me though he will die, will have eternal life" (John 11:25).

We believe in Jesus as we have accepted him as our Lord and Savior. It is because we believe in him that we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus on a grand scale every year. In fact, it is the most important feast in our liturgical calendar.

Every time Jesus appeared to his disciples after his resurrection, he always greeted them, saying, "Peace with you!" Jesus knew the most important thing they needed at that time was peace because they were confused and scared, and that is what he gave them when he met them after his resurrection.

The most important thing the world needs today is peace. Since Jesus is the only one who can bring peace to this world, let us now turn to him and ask him to bless us and the whole world with peace. In the name of all the priests, deacons, and staff members of our church and school, I wish you a Happy Easter filled with peace and joy. May the Risen Lord bless us abundantly.

Funny story

Confession: Recently, a man in Amsterdam felt that he needed to confess, so went to his priest: "Forgive me, Father, for I have sinned. During WWII, I hid a refugee in my attic." "Well," answered the priest, "that's not a sin." "But I made him agree to pay me 20 Gulden for every week he stayed." "I admit that wasn't good, but you did it for a good cause." "Oh, thank you, Father; that eases my mind. I have one more question..." "What is that, my son?" "Do I have to tell him the war is over?"

Desde el Escritorio del Pastor, Padre Jose Panthaplamthottiyil

El Señor Ha Resucitado, ¡Alabado Sea El Señor!

El gran productor de Hollywood Cecil B. DeMille (1881-1959) es mejor conocido por su película de 1956 Los Diez Mandamientos. Anteriormente había realizado una película con el mismo título en 1923. Sin embargo, su película más vista es El Rey de Reyes, producida en 1927, sobre la vida de Jesús. (Más tarde, Nicholas Ray dirigió una película sobre Jesús con el mismo título en 1961).

Más de 800 millones de personas tuvieron el privilegio de ver El Rey de Reyes, producido por DeMille. Con H. B. Warner en el papel de Jesús, DeMille nos dio una visión clásica de Jesús como se describe en los Evangelios. Después del estreno de esta película, DeMille recibió miles de cartas de todo el mundo de personas que realmente disfrutaron de esta gran película.

De las muchas cartas que recibió, la que más le gustó fue la de una mujer que se estaba muriendo de cáncer. Ella escribió: "Gracias, gracias por El Rey de Reyes. Ha cambiado lo que está a punto de suceder de un terror a una gloriosa anticipación". La promesa de Jesucristo de la vida eterna y su resurrección de entre los muertos, como se muestra en la película, dio esperanza a esta mujer moribunda. Cuando vio la resurrección de Jesús, supo que era garantía de su propia resurrección. Por eso perdió el miedo a la muerte y anhelaba compartir la gloria del Señor Resucitado.

Para aquellos que creen en Jesús, la muerte ya no es algo a lo que temer. Por el contrario, es algo que debemos anhelar, ya que es un pasaje para que recibamos una parte de la gloria de Jesús. El sufrimiento, la muerte y la resurrección de Jesús han tenido un impacto radical en nuestra vida y muerte. Debido a la muerte y resurrección de Jesús, ahora también podemos esperar nuestra muerte con gloriosa anticipación.

Sin embargo, para recibir una parte de la gloria de Jesús en el cielo, necesitamos hacer su voluntad como él hizo la voluntad de su Padre celestial mientras estuvo aquí en la tierra.

En el Evangelio de Juan, Jesús dice: "De cierto os digo, el que oye mi palabra y cree en el que me envió, tiene vida eterna y no será condenado; ha pasado de la muerte a la vida» (5,24). Estas palabras de Jesús nos recuerdan la necesidad de obedecer sus enseñanzas para recibir el don de la salvación eterna. Al mismo tiempo, también nos recuerdan la gran promesa de vida eterna por Jesús.

En el mismo Evangelio, Jesús también dice: "Yo soy la resurrección y la vida; el que cree en mí, aunque muera, tendrá la vida eterna" (Juan 11:25).

Creemos en Jesús porque lo hemos aceptado como nuestro Señor y Salvador. Es porque creemos en él que celebramos la resurrección de Jesús a gran escala cada año. De hecho, es la fiesta más importante de nuestro calendario Litúrgico.

Cada vez que Jesús se aparecía a sus discípulos después de su resurrección, siempre los saludaba diciendo: "¡Paz con vosotros!". Jesús sabía que lo más importante que necesitaban en ese momento era paz porque estaban confundidos y asustados, y eso es lo que les dio cuando los encontró después de su resurrección.

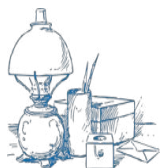

Lo más importante que el mundo necesita hoy es paz. Puesto que Jesús es el único que puede traer la paz a este mundo, volvámonos ahora a él y pidámosle que nos bendiga a nosotros y al mundo entero con la paz. En nombre de todos los sacerdotes, diáconos y miembros del personal de nuestra iglesia y escuela, les deseo una Feliz Pascua llena de paz y alegría. Que el Señor Resucitado nos bendiga abundantemente.

Historia Divertida

Confesión: Recientemente, un hombre en Ámsterdam sintió que necesitaba confesarse, así que fue a su sacerdote: "Perdóname, Padre, porque he pecado. Durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial, escondí a un refugiado en mi ático". "Bueno", respondió el sacerdote, "eso no es pecado". "Pero le hice aceptar pagarme 20 Florines por cada semana que se quedó". "Admito que no estuvo bien, pero lo hiciste por una buena causa". "Oh, gracias, Padre; eso me tranquiliza. Tengo una pregunta más..." "¿Qué es eso, hijo mío?" "¿Tengo que decirle que la guerra ha terminado?"

O Senhor ressuscitou, louvado seja o Senhor!

O grande produtor de Hollywood Cecil B. DeMille (1881-1959) é mais conhecido pelo seu filme de 1956, Os dez Mandamentos. Ele já tinha feito um filme com o mesmo título em 1923. No entanto, o seu filme mais visto é O Rei dos Reis, produzido em 1927, sobre a vida de Jesus. (Mais tarde, Nicholas Ray dirigiu um filme sobre Jesus com o mesmo título em 1961.)

Mais de 800 milhões de pessoas tiveram o privilégio de ver O Rei dos Reis, produzido por DeMille. Com H. B. Warner no papel de Jesus, DeMille deu-nos uma visão clássica de Jesus como retratado nos Evangelhos. Depois deste filme ser lançado, DeMille recebeu milhares de cartas de todo o mundo de pessoas que realmente gostaram deste grande filme.

Das muitas cartas que recebeu, a que mais gostou foi a de uma mulher que morreu de cancro. Ela escreveu: "Obrigada, obrigada pelo Rei dos Reis. Mudou o que está prestes a acontecer de um terror para uma gloriosa antecipação." A promessa de Jesus Cristo de vida eterna e a sua ressurreição dos mortos, como retratado no filme, deu esperança a essa mulher moribunda.

Quando viu a ressurreição de Jesus, soube que era uma garantia da sua própria ressurreição. Foi por isso que perdeu o medo da morte e desejou participar na glória do Senhor Ressuscitado.

Para aqueles que crêem em Jesus, a morte não é mais algo a temer. Pelo contrário, é algo que precisamos esperar, pois é uma passagem para recebermos uma parte da glória de Jesus. O sofrimento, a morte e a ressurreição de Jesus tiveram um impacto radical na nossa vida e morte. Por causa da morte e ressurreição de Jesus, agora também podemos esperar a nossa morte com gloriosa expectativa.

No entanto, para receber uma participação na glória de Jesus no céu, precisamos fazer a Sua vontade como Ele fez a vontade do Seu Pai celestial enquanto Ele estava aqui na Terra. No Evangelho de João, Jesus diz: "Eu vos digo a verdade, todo aquele que ouve a minha palavra e crê naquele que me enviou, tem a vida eterna e não será condenado; passou da morte para a vida» (5, 24). Estas palavras de Jesus recordam-nos a necessidade de obedecer aos seus ensinamentos para receber o dom da salvação eterna. Ao mesmo tempo, recordam-nos também a grande promessa de vida eterna de Jesus.

No mesmo Evangelho, Jesus também diz: «Eu sou a ressurreição e a vida; aquele que crê em mim, embora morra, terá a vida eterna" (João 11:25). cremos em Jesus como O aceitamos como nosso Senhor e Salvador. É porque cremos n'Ele que celebramos a ressurreição de Jesus em grande escala todos os anos. De facto, é a festa mais importante do nosso calendário litúrgico.

Cada vez que Jesus aparecia aos seus discípulos depois da sua ressurreição, sempre os saudava, dizendo: "Paz esteja convosco!" Jesus sabia que a coisa mais importante que eles precisavam naquela época era paz, porque estavam confusos e assustados, e foi isso que Ele lhes deu quando os encontrou após a sua ressurreição.

A coisa mais importante que o mundo precisa hoje é paz. Uma vez que Jesus é o único que pode trazer a paz a este mundo, dirijamo-nos agora a Ele e peçamos-Lhe que nos abençoe a nós e ao mundo inteiro com paz. Em nome de todos os sacerdotes, diáconos e funcionários da nossa igreja e escola, desejo-vos uma Feliz Páscoa cheia de paz e alegria. Que o Senhor Ressuscitado nos abençoe abundantemente.

Sunday Readings Explained- 196- Fr. Tony Kadavil

Easter Sunday: ACTS 10:34a, 37-43; Colossians 3:1-4; John 20: 1-9

Our Call to be an Easter People

Introduction

Significance of Easter: Easter is the greatest and the most important feast in the Church. It marks the birthday of our eternal hope. "Easter" literally means "the feast of fresh flowers." We celebrate it with pride and jubilation for three reasons:

1. The Resurrection of Christ is the basis of our Christian Faith, for it proves that Jesus is God. That is why St. Paul writes: "If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain; and your Faith is in vain... And if Christ has not been raised, then your Faith is a delusion and you are still lost in your sins... But in fact, Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep" (I Cor 15:14, 17, 20). In the words of the Catechism of the Catholic Church: "The Resurrection of Jesus is the crowning truth of our Faith in Christ, a Faith believed and lived as the central truth by the first Christian community; handed on as fundamental by Tradition; established by the documents of the New Testament; and preached as an essential part of the Paschal mystery along with the cross..." (CCC # 638).

If Jesus Christ did not rise from the dead, then the Church is a fraud and Faith is a sham. But if Jesus really did rise from the dead, his message is true! Without the Resurrection, Jesus would have remained forever a good person who had met a tragic end. People would remember some of his teachings, and a handful of people might try to live according to them. All the basic doctrines of Christianity are founded on the truth of the Resurrection. "Jesus is Lord; He is risen!" (Rom 10:9) was the central theme of the kerygma (or "preaching"), of the apostles. There is a story of two women who stood before Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris. One asked, "Why can't we build structures like this anymore?" Her friend answered, "The people who built this had Faith. Today we have only opinions. And you can't build a cathedral with opinions."

2. Easter is the guarantee of our own resurrection. Jesus assured Martha at the tomb of Lazarus: "I am the Resurrection and the Life; whoever believes in Me will live even though he dies" (Jn 11:25-26). Christ will raise us up on the last day, but it is also true, in a sense, that we have already risen with Christ. By virtue of the Holy Spirit, our Christian life is already a participation in the death and Resurrection of Christ (CCC #1002, #1003).

3. Easter is a feast which gives us hope and encouragement in this world of pain, sorrows, and tears. It reminds us that life is worth living. It is our belief in the Real Presence of the Risen Jesus in our souls, in His Church, in the Blessed Sacrament, and in Heaven that gives meaning to our personal, as well as to our common prayers. Our trust in the all-pervading presence of the Risen Lord gives us strength to fight against temptations and freedom from unnecessary worries and fears. The prayer of St. Patrick, the Apostle of Ireland, reads: "Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ within me, never to part."

Reasons why we believe in the Resurrection of Jesus:

(a) Jesus himself testified to his Resurrection from the dead (Mark 8:31; Matthew 17:22; Luke 9:22). (b) The tomb was empty on Easter Sunday (Luke 24:3). Although the guards claimed (Matthew 28:13) that the disciples of Jesus had stolen the body, every sensible Jew knew that it was impossible for the terrified disciples of Jesus to steal the body of Jesus from a tomb guarded by a 16-member team of armed Roman soldiers. (c) The initial disbelief of Jesus' own disciples in his Resurrection, in spite of his repeated apparitions.

This serves as a strong proof of his Resurrection. It explains why the apostles started preaching the resurrected Christ only after receiving the anointing of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. (d) The transformation of Jesus' disciples: The disciples of Jesus were almost immediately transformed from men who were hopeless and fearful after the crucifixion (Luke 24:21, John 20:19) into men who were confident and bold witnesses of the Resurrection (Acts 2:24, 3:15, 4:2). (e) The Jews and the Romans could not disprove Jesus' Resurrection by presenting the dead body of Jesus.

f) The apostles and early Christians would not have faced martyrdom if they were not absolutely sure of Jesus' Resurrection. (g) The Apostle Paul's conversion from a persecutor of Christians into a zealous apostle, preaching the Good News of Jesus throughout much of the Gentile world supports the truth of Jesus' Resurrection (Galatians 1:11-17, Acts 9:1, Acts 9:24-25, Acts 26:15-18). (h) The sheer existence of a thriving, empire-conquering early Christian Church, bravely facing three centuries of persecution, supports the truth of the Resurrection claim. (i) The New Testament witnesses do not bear the stamp of dupes or deceivers.

The apostles and the early Christians were absolutely sure about the Resurrection of Jesus. (Check these articles for expert reasoning:1)<http://www.holyspiritinteractive.net/columns/markshea/sheavings/theresurrection.asp> (By Mark Shea)2) <https://www.magiscenter.com/historical-evidence-of-jesus-resurrection/3>) <http://apologeticspress.org/apPubPage.aspx?pub=1&issue=583>).

Gospel Reading, John 20:1-9

The Resurrection of Jesus had certain special features. First, Jesus prophesied it as a sign of His Divinity: "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up" (Jn 2:19). Second, the founder of no other religion has an empty tomb as Jesus has. We see the fulfillment of Christ's promise on the empty cross and in the empty tomb. The angel said to the women at Jesus' tomb: "Why are you looking among the dead for One Who is alive? He is not here but has risen" (Luke 24:5-6). The real proof, however, is not the empty tomb but the lives of believers filled with His Spirit today!

The third special feature is the initial disbelief of Jesus' own disciples in his Resurrection, in spite of his repeated apparitions. This serves as a strong proof of his Resurrection. It explains why the apostles started preaching the Risen Christ only after receiving the anointing of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. Proclamation and witness-bearing are the main themes of today's readings. In the first reading, St. Peter shares his own experience of Christ's Resurrection and its joy with the members of the pagan Cornelius' family who received the Holy Spirit as he spoke and then were baptized.

In the second reading, St. Paul, bearing witness to his conversion experience and Faith in the risen Lord, reminds the Colossians, "you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God! When Christ your Life, appears, then you, too, will appear with Him in glory." Today's Gospel explains the empty-tomb Resurrection experience of Mary Magdalene, Peter and John. Mary Magdalene proclaims her personal experience: "I have seen the Lord."

Life messages:

1. We are to be Resurrection people: Easter, the feast of the Resurrection, gives us the joyful message that we are a "Resurrection people." This means that we are not supposed to lie buried in the tomb of our sins, evil habits, and dangerous addictions. It gives us the Good News that no tomb can hold us down anymore - not the tomb of despair, discouragement, doubt or death itself. Instead, we are expected to live a joyful and peaceful life, constantly experiencing the real presence of the Risen Lord in all the events of our lives. "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad" (Psalm 118:24).

2. We need to seek our peace and joy in the Risen Jesus. The living presence of the Risen Lord gives us lasting peace and celestial joy in the face of the boredom, suffering, pain, and tensions of our day-to-day life. "Peace be with you!" was Jesus' salutation to his disciples at all post-Resurrection appearances. For the true Christian, every day must be an Easter Day lived joyfully in the close company of the Risen Lord.

3. We are to be transparent Christians: We are called to be transparent Christians, showing others, through our lives of love, mercy, compassion and self-sacrificing service, that the Risen Jesus is living in our hearts.

4. We need to live new, disciplined lives in the Risen Jesus:

Our awareness of the all-pervading presence of the Risen Lord in and around us, and the strong conviction of our own coming resurrection, help us control our thoughts, desires, words and behavior. This salutary thought inspires us to honor our bodies, keeping them holy, pure and free from evil habits and addictions. Our conviction about the presence of the Risen Lord in our neighbors, and in all those with whom we come into contact, should encourage us to respect them and to render them loving, humble and selfless service.

5. We need to remember Easter in our Good Fridays:

Easter reminds us that every Good Friday in our lives will have an Easter Sunday, and that Jesus will let us share the power of his Resurrection. Each time we display our love of others, we share in the Resurrection. Each time we face a betrayal of trust and with God's grace forgive the betrayer, we share in the Resurrection of Jesus. Each time we fail in our attempts to ward off temptations – but keep on trying to overcome them – we share in the Resurrection. Each time we continue to hope – even when our hope seems unanswered – we share in the power of Jesus' Resurrection. In short, the message of Easter is that nothing can destroy us – not pain, sin, rejection, betrayal or death – because Christ has conquered all these, and we, too, can conquer them if we put our Faith and trust in Him.

6. We are to be bearers of the Good News of Resurrection power.

Resurrection is Good News, but at the same time, it's sometimes painful because it involves death. Before the power of the Resurrection can take hold in our own lives, we're called to die to sin, to die to self. We may even have to die to our own dreams, so that God can do what He wants to do with our lives. Resurrection is about seeing our world in a new way. Early that Easter morning, Mary did not find what she was looking for, the dead body of Jesus. But she found something better than she could have imagined: The Risen Jesus. Sometimes, the things we think we want most are not granted to us. What we get instead is an experience of God's new ways of working in the world. That's the power of the Resurrection. When those moments come, we must spread the news--just as Mary did: We have seen the Lord!

Anecdote

The Phoenix: The late Catholic Archbishop of Hartford, John Whealon, (d. August 2, 1991), had undergone cancer surgery resulting in a permanent colostomy when he wrote these very personal words in one of his last Easter messages: "I am now a member of an association of people who have been wounded by cancer. That association has as its symbol the phoenix, a bird of Egyptian mythology. The Greek poet Hesiod, who lived eight centuries before Jesus was born, wrote about this legendary bird in his poetry. When the bird felt its death was near (every 500 to 1,461 years), it would fly off to Phoenicia, build a nest of aromatic wood and set itself on fire.

When the bird was consumed by the flames, a new phoenix sprang forth from the ashes. Thus, the phoenix symbolizes immortality, resurrection and life after death. It sums up the Easter message perfectly. Jesus gave up His life, and from the grave He was raised to life again on the third day. New life rises from the ashes of death. Today we are celebrating Christ's victory over the grave, the gift of eternal life for all who believe in Jesus. That is why the phoenix was one of the earliest symbols of the Risen Christ. The phoenix also symbolizes our daily rising to new life. Every day, like the phoenix, we rise from the ashes of sin and guilt and are refreshed and renewed by our living Lord and Savior with His forgiveness and the assurance that He still loves us and will continue to give us the strength we need." Archbishop John Whealon could have lived in a gloomy tomb of self-pity, hopeless defeat, and chronic sadness, but his Faith in the Risen Lord opened his eyes to new visions of life.

Stewardship Reflections

The great feast of Easter has begun, Christian stewards. Let us rejoice and be glad! Just as we embraced the discipline and fasting of Lent, let us fully embrace the joy and feasting of the next 50 days offer. We are called to be good stewards of the Easter season. Our first reading, from Acts, gives instruction on how to do this. Here, St. Peter says that our Lord, "commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead... that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

How do we ordinary people preach and testify to all God has done? We do so through how we live our ordinary lives — through the intentional use of our time, talent, and treasure for the kingdom of God. Putting God and others ahead of ourselves in every aspect of our lives is the most eloquent preaching we can do. Boldly and joyfully embracing a stewardship way of life is our most powerful testimony. As Christian stewards, we are the modern-day witnesses of an incredible miracle prompted by unfathomable love — the death and Resurrection of our Savior for us.

Let us rejoice and be glad and let's make sure our lives are a testimony to this amazing grace!

Divine Mercy Novena

The Divine Mercy Novena will begin on Good Friday: The Lord told St Faustina "These nine days of prayer before Divine Mercy Sunday are like the nine days of prayer in the upper room before the day of Pentecost. I desire that you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw therefrom strength and refreshment and whatever grace they may need in the hardship of life and especially at the hour of death". Offer these intentions listed for each day when saying the Divine Mercy chaplet:

Good Friday – Today bring Me all mankind, especially sinners, and immerse them in the ocean of My mercy. Day 2- Today bring Me the souls of priests and religious and immerse them in My unfathomable mercy. Day 3-Today bring me all devout and faithful souls, and immerse them in the ocean of My mercy. Day 4- Today bring Me the souls who do not believe in God and those who are yet to know Me. Day 5- Today bring Me the souls who have separated themselves from the Church. Day 6- Today bring Me the souls of the meek and the Humble and the souls of the little children and immerse them in My mercy. Day 7- Today bring to me the souls of those who especially venerate and glorify My Mercy and immerse them in my mercy. Day 8- Today bring Me the souls who are detained in purgatory and immerse them in the abyss of My mercy. Day 9- Today bring me souls who have become lukewarm and immerse them in the abyss of My mercy.

Be Merciful even as Your Father is Merciful:

Jesus Christ taught that man not only receives and experiences the mercy of God, but that he is also called to practice mercy towards others. "Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy" Mathew 5:7 Our Lords words to St Faustina "If a soul does not exercise mercy somehow or other, it will not obtain my mercy on the day of Judgement. Oh, if only souls knew how to gather eternal treasure for themselves, they would not be judged, for they would forestall My judgement with their mercy" (#1317)

Spiritual Works of Mercy: Admonish sinners, Instruct the uninformed, Counsel the doubtful, Comfort the sorrowful, Bear wrongs patiently, Forgive Offenses, Pray for the living and the dead

Corporal Works of Mercy: Feed the hungry, Give drink to the thirsty, Clothe the naked, Shelter the homeless, Visit the sick, Bury the dead, Comfort the imprisoned

Please contact the parish office if you have changed your phone number or address (especially if you have changed from a landline to a cell phone) to update your info in our files. It is important to have current information on file in the event of an emergency. Thank you.

Tickets Are Available for Eucharistic Revival Pilgrimage 2024

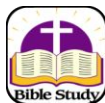

The Eucharistic Revival Committee purchased the maximum number of group tickets we were able to purchase before Christmas. We are working with a travel agent to put together packages for the pilgrimage to Indianapolis in July 2024. We just received information on our hotel block. We will have the package ready shortly with costs and other information. A JotForm registration will be available and pilgrimage packages will be offered on a first-come, first-served method.

This ministry is open to all people outside the parish, so please invite your family and friends.

Prayer Garden

Our Prayer Garden is a peaceful place for prayer and meditation. Purchasing a brick in the Prayer Garden for someone who has died is a wonderful way to remember that the person is still with you in thoughts and through prayer. The purchase of a brick is $100.00; please consider honoring a loved one. Contact the Rectory Office for more details.

Ten Candles Burning in the Holy of Holies

April 8—April 14

IN MEMORY OF:

Jim & Roseann Bradley; Joseph Szerbinski;
Vincent Positano; David Jose Tavares; Gloria Calobrisi;
Lauren Anderson; Robert Inciarrano

FOR INTENTIONS OF:

Paul Tavares; Amina Painson; Lara Family

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Please Pray for Our Military

Although we pray for all of our military, space does not permit everyone's name to be printed. Please advise when a person below is no longer deployed so we can remove their name from our list. Please contact the parish office if you wish to have the name of someone listed for 4 weeks. As a courtesy please notify the office when the name can be removed or if you wish to have the name continued. Be sure to get the person's permission first! God bless them all & continue to pray for them!

The Lord Has Risen. He has conquered Death.

As the Easter Season begins, it is a perfect time to reflect on how awesome and precious LIFE is. As Easter People we are renewed and alert to any opportunities to show respect for life. Not sure what to do or pray for: please stop by the Respect Life table at the SEAS Health Fair, Saturday, April 15 between 9 and 3 in Seton Hall. Besides information on local pregnancy centers, post-abortion healing, church teaching on assisted suicide, human trafficking, end of life directives, Florida legislative priorities, the annual SEAS Respect Life Committee activities, Alpha Prayer Warrior applications and Choose Life license plate information, there will also be FREE magnets, bumper stickers, bookmarks, 12 week fetal models, baby feet pins and balloons. Members will be present to answer questions and just LISTEN to your opinions and concerns. With knowledge, we can make more informed decisions.

Daily Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

The Blessed Sacrament is exposed on the altar for adoration after all the weekday Masses at 8.30 am till 10 am. Kindly join us and adore the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Eucharistic Adoration Hours

The hours of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament are from 9 am to 9 pm, seven days a week.

The Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Fridays also are from 9 am to 9 pm. The Blessed Sacrament is also exposed on the altar for adoration on other weekdays after the 8.30 am Mass till 10 am.

Please remember that if the Holy of Holies is filled you are encouraged to pray in the main worship area of the church.

We are asking that you contact Gilda Sadio, (386 225- 7261 or gilda.sadio@yahoo.com) our Adoration Facilitator, and select ONE hour which you will commit to. There's no limit to how many parishioners can be present every hour since it's in the Church not the Holy of Holies, we just want to be sure that there's at least one or two persons who will be present every hour.

Anyone interested in spending time with Our Lord in Adoration should call Gilda Sadio-Kow at 386-225-7261 for availability and information.

Saturday Group Adoration

All are invited to join the Group Eucharistic Adoration led by one of the deacons on Saturdays at 9:15 am. Adoration booklets will be available. For more information, contact Marilou Mallada at 609-468-1477.
