National Eucharistic Revival

Parish Phase begins on Sunday, June 11, 2023

The three-year National Eucharistic Revival in the United States was inaugurated on Sunday, June 19, 2022, the feast day of Corpus Christi. The First Phase of this Revival was at the diocesan level, during which the various dioceses in this country organized and promoted events to inspire and strengthen the understanding of the Eucharist, especially the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

As the one-year Diocesan Phase of the Revival ends, the Parish Phase begins on Sunday, June 11, 2023, the feast day of Corpus Christi.

What is the Eucharistic Revival?

According to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), the National Eucharistic Revival is "intended to form, heal, and unite people of God through a renewed encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist, and then send these 'Eucharistic missionaries' out to a hurting and hungry world."

The following are the four primary goals of the Eucharistic Revival as proposed by USCCB:

1. To provide a more profound encounter with Jesus Christ in the Sunday liturgy as a point of unity among all Catholics, and through this powerful encounter, to find personal healing and courage to take the gospel to a world in need of authentic love – the love of Christ found in the Eucharist.
2. To spark personal conversions through the joyful discovery of a relationship with Christ by encountering the love of God present in Jesus in the Eucharist.
3. To elevate the truth and practices of our Catholic faith through the rediscovery of the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.
4. To form, inspire, and launch missionary disciples filled with the love of God and neighbor that comes from an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist to the margins of the Church and the world.

Parish Phase of the Eucharistic Revival

We will begin the Parish Phase of the Eucharistic Revival on Sunday, June 11, 2023, with the celebration of the Feast of Corpus Christi. To mark this event at Mother Seton, we will have a solemn Eucharistic Procession in Florida Eucharistic Congress at Jacksonville, Saturday, June 10, 2023

As we enter the Parish Phase of the Eucharistic Revival, let us show our faith in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist by attending Florida Eucharistic Congress, which will be held from 8 am to 5 pm on Saturday, June 10, at St. Joseph Catholic Church, 11757 Old St. Augustine Road, Jacksonville, FL.

Bishop Erik Pohlmeier will be the keynote speaker of the Florida Eucharistic Congress, followed by Paulist Father Steve Bell, Father Rafael Capó, and Bishop Emeritus Felipe Estévez. There will be English and Spanish tracks and a Young Adult track with Father Capó Saturday evening.

To make the Parish Phase of the Revival successful, the USCCB is suggesting the following best practices: active participation in the Mass, Corpus Christi Processions, regular Holy Hours, short visits to the Blessed Sacrament, adult faith formation programs, and sharing of testimonials.

The USCCB is also encouraging all the parishes to launch an "Invite One Back" initiative. Through this initiative, every faithful Catholic is encouraged to invite to church one person in their inner circle who has fallen away from attending Sunday Mass.

Eucharistic Revival at Mother Seton

We have already implanted some of the best practices suggested by the USCCB for the Parish Phase, like the Corpus Christi Procession, regular Eucharistic Adoration, and retreats focusing on Eucharistic Revival. The Spiritual Life Committee of our parish has proposed some ideas to make the Parish Phase of the Revival more effective.

They include occasional 40-hour Eucharistic Adoration, Eucharistic street procession in the Fall, bi-monthly catechetical formation sessions by the clergy and the DRE to strengthen our faith in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, Exhibition of Eucharistic miracles, monthly bulletin piece on the Eucharist, lay witness talks before weekend Masses, Sunday homilies focused on the Eucharist, monthly praise and worship led by different groups, banners on campus, and Invite One Back weekends.

Another idea is to extend our daily Eucharistic Adoration to 24 hours a day. It is a difficult task, but it is something that we had in our parish before. If it is not possible soon, let us consider extending it until midnight every day.

I would like to hear your ideas about what else we need to do in our parish to strengthen and promote our faith in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. After we finalize our plans, we will publish a schedule of events, which will be held during the Parish Phase of the Eucharistic Revival.

Mass will be at 8.30 am, followed by Eucharistic Procession at 10 am. The keynote address by Bishop Pohlmeier will be at 11 am. Our Knights of Columbus will be serving lunch to all our parishioners who participate in the Eucharistic Congress, and I thank them in advance for their outstanding service.

Avivamiento Eucarístico Nacional

La Fase Parroquial Comienza el Domingo 11 de Junio de 2023

El Avivamiento Eucarístico Nacional de tres años en los Estados Unidos se inauguró el Domingo 19 de Junio de 2022, la Fiesta del Corpus Christi. La Primera Fase de este Avivamiento fue a nivel Diocesano, durante la cual las diversas Diócesis de este país organizaron y promovieron eventos para inspirar y fortalecer la comprensión de la Eucaristía, especialmente la Presencia Real de Jesús en la Eucaristía.

A medida que finaliza la Fase Diocesana del Avivamiento de un año, la Fase Parroquial comienza el Domingo 11 de Junio de 2023, la Fiesta del Corpus Christi.

¿Qué es el Avivamiento Eucarístico?

Según la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos (USCCB, por sus siglas en Inglés), el Renacimiento Eucarístico Nacional "tiene la intención de formar, sanar y unir al pueblo de Dios a través de un encuentro renovado con Jesús en la Eucaristía, y luego enviar a estos 'misioneros Eucarísticos' a un mundo herido y hambriento".

Los siguientes son los cuatro objetivos principales del Avivamiento Eucarístico propuestos por la USCCB:

1. Proveer un encuentro más profundo con Jesucristo en la Liturgia Dominical como un punto de unidad entre todos los Católicos, y a través de este poderoso encuentro, encontrar sanación personal y valor para llevar el Evangelio a un mundo que necesita amor auténtico: el amor de Cristo que se encuentra en la Eucaristía.
2. Suscitar conversiones personales a través del descubrimiento gozoso de una relación con Cristo al encontrarse con el amor de Dios presente en Jesús en la Eucaristía.
3. Elevar la verdad y las prácticas de nuestra fe Católica a través del redescubrimiento de la Presencia Real de Jesucristo en la Eucaristía.
4. Formar, inspirar y lanzar discípulos misioneros llenos del amor de Dios y del prójimo que nace del encuentro con Jesús en la Eucaristía hacia los márgenes de la Iglesia y del mundo.

Fase Parroquial del Avivamiento Eucarístico

Daremos inicio a la Fase Parroquial del Avivamiento Eucarístico el Domingo 11 de Junio de 2023, con la celebración de la Fiesta del Corpus Christi. Para conmemorar este evento en Mother Seton, tendremos una procesión Eucarística Solemne frente a la Iglesia después de la Misa del mediodía. Todos están invitados y animados a asistir a esta Procesión Eucarística.

Congreso Eucarístico de Florida en Jacksonville, Sábado 10 de Junio de 2023

Al entrar en la Fase Parroquial del Avivamiento Eucarístico, mostremos nuestra fe en la Presencia Real de Jesús en la Eucaristía asistiendo al Congreso Eucarístico de Florida, que se llevará a cabo de 8 am a 5 pm el Sábado 10 de Junio en St. Joseph Iglesia Católica, 11757 Old St. Augustine Road, Jacksonville, FL.

El Obispo Erik Pohlmeier será el orador principal del Congreso Eucarístico de Florida, seguido por el Padre Paulista Steve Bell, el Padre Rafael Capó y el Obispo Emérito Felipe Estévez. Habrá pistas en Inglés y Español y una pista para adultos jóvenes con el Padre Capó el Sábado por la noche.

Para que la Fase Parroquial del Avivamiento sea exitosa, la USCCB sugiere las siguientes mejores prácticas: participación activa en la Misa, Procesiones de Corpus Christi, Horas Santas regulares, visitas cortas al Santísimo Sacramento, programas de formación de fe para adultos y compartir testimonios.

La USCCB también está alentando a todas las Parroquias a lanzar una iniciativa de "Invita a uno de regreso". A través de esta iniciativa, se alienta a todos los fieles Católicos a invitar a la Iglesia a una persona de su círculo íntimo que haya dejado de asistir a la Misa Dominical.

Avivamiento Eucarístico en Mother Seton

Ya hemos implantado algunas de las mejores prácticas sugeridas por la USCCB para la Fase Parroquial, como la Procesión de Corpus Christi, la Adoración Eucarística regular y retiros enfocados en el Avivamiento Eucarístico. El Comité de Vida Espiritual de nuestra Parroquia ha propuesto algunas ideas para hacer más efectiva la Fase Parroquial del Avivamiento.

Incluyen Adoración Eucarística ocasional de 40 horas, Procesión Callejera Eucarística en el Otoño, Sesiones Bimensuales de Formación Catequética por parte del Clero y la DRE para fortalecer nuestra fe en la Presencia Real de Jesús en la Eucaristía, Exhibición de Milagros Eucarísticos, Boletines Mensuales sobre la Eucaristía, Charlas de Testigos Laicos antes de las Misas de fin de semana, Homilías Dominicales centradas en la Eucaristía, Alabanza y Adoración mensuales dirigidas por diferentes grupos, Anuncios en el campus e Invite One Back los fines de semana.

Otra idea es extender nuestra Adoración Eucarística diaria a las 24 horas del día. Es una tarea difícil, pero es algo que teníamos en nuestra Parroquia antes. Si no es posible pronto, consideremos extenderlo hasta la medianoche todos los días.

Me gustaría escuchar sus ideas sobre qué más debemos hacer en nuestra Parroquia para fortalecer y promover nuestra fe en la Presencia Real de Jesús en la Eucaristía. Después de finalizar nuestros planes, publicaremos un calendario de eventos, que se llevarán a cabo durante la Fase Parroquial del Avivamiento Eucarístico.

Reavivamento Eucarístico Nacional

Fase Paroquial começa no Domingo, 11 de Junho de 2023

O Reavivamento Eucarístico Nacional de três anos nos Estados Unidos começou no Domingo, 19 de Junho de 2022, dia da festa de Corpus Christi. A primeira fase deste Avivamento foi a nível diocesano, durante a qual as várias dioceses deste país organizaram e promoveram eventos para inspirar e fortalecer a compreensão da Eucaristia, especialmente a Verdadeira Presença de Jesus na Eucaristia.

Com o fim do ano da Fase Diocesana do Avivamento, a Fase Paroquial começa no Domingo, 11 de Junho de 2023, dia da festa de Corpus Christi.

O que é o Avivamento Eucarístico?

De acordo com a Conferência dos Bispos Católicos dos Estados Unidos (USCCB), o Reavivamento Eucarístico Nacional é "destinado a formar, curar e unir pessoas de Deus através de um encontro renovado com Jesus na Eucaristia, e então enviar esses 'Missionários Eucarísticos' para um mundo ferido e faminto".

A seguir estão os quatro objectivos principais do Avivamento Eucarístico proposto pela USCCB:

1. Proporcionar um encontro mais profundo com Jesus Cristo na liturgia Dominical como ponto de unidade entre todos os Católicos e, através deste encontro poderoso, encontrar cura pessoal e coragem para levar o Evangelho a um mundo necessitado de amor verdadeiro – o amor de Cristo encontrado na Eucaristia.
2. Suscitar conversões pessoais através da descoberta jubilosa da relação com Cristo, encontrando o amor de Deus presente em Jesus Eucarístico.
3. Elevar a verdade e as práticas da nossa fé Católica através da redescoberta da Verdadeira Presença de Jesus Cristo na Eucaristia.
4. Formar, inspirar e lançar discípulos missionários cheios do amor de Deus e do próximo, que vem do encontro com Jesus Eucarístico às margens da Igreja e do mundo.

Fase Paroquial do Reavivamento Eucarístico

Iniciaremos a Fase Paroquial do Reavivamento Eucarístico no Domingo, 11 de Junho de 2023, com a celebração da Festa de Corpus Christi. Para assinalar este evento na Igreja Mãe Seton, teremos uma solene Procissão Eucarística em frente à igreja após a missa do meio-dia. Todos são convidados e encorajados a assistir a esta Procissão Eucarística.

Para que a Fase Paroquial do Avivamento seja bem-sucedida, a USCCB sugere as seguintes boas práticas: participação activa na Missa, Procissões de Corpus Christi, Horas Santas regulares, visitas ao Santíssimo Sacramento, programas de formação de adultos e partilha de testemunhos.

A USCCB está também a incentivar todas as freguesias a lançarem a iniciativa "Convida Um". Através desta iniciativa, cada fiel católico é encorajado a convidar para a igreja uma pessoa do seu círculo íntimo que tenha deixado de assistir à Missa Dominical.

Reavivamento Eucarístico na Igreja Mãe Seton (St. Elizabeth Ann Seton)

Já implantamos algumas das melhores práticas sugeridas pela USCCB para a Fase Paroquial, como a Procissão de Corpus Christi, a Adoração Eucarística regular e os retiros com foco no Reavivamento Eucarístico. A Comissão de Vida Espiritual da nossa paróquia propôs algumas ideias para tornar a Fase Paroquial do Avivamento mais eficaz.

Incluem a Adoração Eucarística de 40 horas, ocasionalmente, procissão Eucarística na rua no Outono, sessões bimestrais de formação catequética pelo clero e pela DRE para fortalecer a nossa fé na Verdadeira Presença de Jesus na Eucaristia, Exposição de milagres Eucarísticos, boletim mensal sobre a Eucaristia, palestras de testemunhas leigas antes das missas de fim de semana, homilias Dominicais focadas na Eucaristia, louvor e adoração mensalmente liderados por diferentes grupos, banners no campus e fins de semana do "Convida Um".

Outra ideia é prolongar a nossa Adoração Eucarística diária para 24 horas por dia. É uma tarefa difícil, mas é algo que já tínhamos na nossa freguesia. Se não for possível em breve, vamos considerar a possibilidade de prolongar até à meia-noite todos os dias.

Gostaria de ouvir as vossas ideias sobre o que mais precisamos de fazer na nossa paróquia para fortalecer e promover a nossa fé na Verdadeira Presença de Jesus na Eucaristia. Depois de finalizarmos os nossos planos, publicaremos um programa de eventos, que serão realizados durante a Fase Paroquial do Avivamento Eucarístico.

Congresso Eucarístico da Flórida em Jacksonville, Sábado, 10 de Junho de 2023

Ao entrarmos na Fase Paroquial do Avivamento Eucarístico, vamos mostrar a nossa fé na Verdadeira Presença de Jesus na Eucaristia participando no Congresso Eucarístico da Flórida, que será realizado das 8h às 17h no Sábado, 10 de Junho, na Igreja Católica St. Joseph, 11757 Old St. Augustine Road, Jacksonville, FL.

O Bispo Erik Pohlmeier será o orador principal do Congresso Eucarístico da Flórida, seguido pelo Padre Paulista Steve Bell, pelo Padre Rafael Capó e pelo Bispo Emérito Felipe Estévez. Haverá sessões em Inglês e Espanhol e uma sessão Jovem Adulto com o Padre Capó na noite de Sábado.

A missa será às 8h30, seguida da Procissão Eucarística às 10h. O discurso de abertura do Bispo Pohlmeier será às 11h. Os nossos Knights of Columbus servirão almoço a todos os nossos paroquianos que participam no Congresso Eucarístico, e agradeço-lhes antecipadamente o seu excelente serviço.

Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, Exodus 34: 4b-6, 8-9; II Corinthians 13: 11-13; John 3: 16-18

Our Call to Become More Like the Triune God through All Our Relationships

Introduction

Today's feast invites us to live in the awareness of the presence of the Triune God within us: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The mystery of the Holy Trinity, a doctrine enunciated by the ecumenical councils of Nicaea and Constantinople, is one of the fundamental doctrines of Christianity, and the greatest mystery of our Faith, namely, that there are Three Divine Persons, sharing the same Divine Nature in one God. "There is one God, who has three Persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Each Person is God, yet there is still only one God" (CCC #234, #253-256). We have the Father Who is the Creator, Son, the Redeemer and Holy Spirit, the Sanctifier and the Counselor. The doctrine of Three Persons in one God, one in Divine Nature yet really distinct in Person and Equal in all things, is not explicitly spelt out in the Bible. But the doctrine of the Trinity underlies all major Christian feasts, including Christmas, the Epiphany, Good Friday, Easter, the Ascension and Pentecost.

All the official prayers of the Church, including the Holy Mass and the Sacraments, begin with an address to the Holy Trinity: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." We are baptized, absolved of our sins and anointed in the name of the Blessed Trinity. Throughout the world, church bells ring three times a day inviting Christians to pray to God the Father (the Provider); God the Son (the Savior); and God the Holy Spirit (the Sanctifier). We bless ourselves with the sign of the cross invoking the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and we conclude our prayers glorifying the Holy Trinity, saying "Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit." Today's readings convey the fundamental Mystery that the Triune God reaches out to people in love, seeking the deepest communion.

Frank Shield's explanation of the Holy Trinity: The great apologist Frank Sheed used to give a very interesting explanation of the Most Holy Trinity. He started by thinking about our own human nature. Each one of us exists, but since we are spiritual, we also have an idea of ourselves. We can think about ourselves, reflect on ourselves, know ourselves. This is why human beings are the only animals on earth who write diaries. That's similar to what happens in the relationship between God the Father and God the Son. God the Father is spiritual, able to know himself. He has an idea of himself. But, since his knowledge is limitless, unlike ours, that idea of himself is perfect, perfectly complete. But to be perfect, it has to share in God's own existence; it has to actually be a divine person. And so, God the Father, from all eternity, knowing himself, engenders the Son, the perfect image of the Father.

And then, of course, since both the Father and the Son are infinitely good and beautiful, as soon as they know each other, they also love each other. Even we, when we think about ourselves, love ourselves. We want the best for ourselves. We are glad that we exist. But God's love, like his knowledge, is unlimited, and so it too has to be so intense and so full that it shares fully in the divine existence; it is a divine person - the Holy Spirit. This is the mystery we profess each week when we affirm our belief in the Son of God, who is "one in being with the Father, God from God, light from light" and in the Holy Spirit, who "with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified." (E- Priest)

First Reading, Exodus 34: 4b-6, 8-9

The first reading, from the book of Exodus, describes how God revealed His name to Moses as "Yahweh," which means "I am Who am." But orthodox Jews never used that name. They addressed God by calling Him Lord. The passage also is as close as the Bible comes to giving a definition of God. According to that text, the Lord is "a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Every part of that statement stresses God in relationship to humankind, and it emphasizes especially God's great love for us. The revelation of God's nature as Triune was made by Jesus. In fact the very word "Trinity," referring to Three Persons in one God, one in Godhead yet distinct in Person, is not explicitly spelled out in the Bible, although the doctrine on Trinity is mentioned about forty times in the New Testament without using the term "Trinity." Rather, the early Church arrived at the doctrine of the Trinity when she reflected on the Revelation which she had received from Jesus in Faith.

send. He says that the Father has given him (the Son) all that He has and that Jesus, in turn, has given to the Holy Spirit all that he has received from the Father. In this we see the unity of purpose among the Three Persons of the Trinity.

1. The development of the Trinitarian doctrine in the Church.

The oldest doctrinal formulation of the Church's belief in the Trinity is found in the Apostles' Creed which has served as the basis of instruction for catechumens and as the Baptismal confession of faith since the second century. Later, the Nicene Creed, originating at the Council of Nicaea (A.D. 325), stated the doctrine more explicitly. This creed was introduced into our Western liturgy by the regional council of Toledo in A.D. 589. God has revealed to us three separate functions that are carried out by the Three Persons. He has told us that it is proper to attribute to God the Father the work of creation; to God the Son, the work of Redemption, and to God the Holy Spirit the work of sanctification. Our knowledge of God as Trinity is made possible by God, who has chosen to be revealed as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. As Father, God has brought forth the created universe, including our own being. As Son, Jesus has made known a God who hears our cries, who cares, who counts the hairs on our head and who loves us so passionately as to become one of us, to suffer for our sins, and even to die for us. As Spirit, God remains with us and within us.

Second Reading, II Corinthians 13: 11-13

Today's epistle from St. Paul contains the ancient apostolic blessing in the name of the Holy Trinity: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." Paul reminds the people of the Father's love, the grace that comes through Jesus Christ and the fellowship or the unifying power of the Holy Spirit. The word "grace" in a theological context refers to Divine favor. In Christ, God has shown favor toward us humans, a special care for us and a desire that through Jesus' life, death and Resurrection we might find and enjoy a right relationship with God. We often use the phrase "the love of God" to describe our response to God and our duty to love God. That is both correct and appropriate. But what comes first is God's love for us. The Scriptures emphasize that God has loved us first and that our love for God is only a fitting response. And the fellowship of the Holy Spirit: The Holy Spirit shapes and animates the life of the Christian community. In other words, we live our Christian lives in the fellowship, or koinonia, formed by the Holy Spirit because it is He who guides, empowers and teaches in Christ's place and brings us together in Faith, Love and Hope.

In the story of salvation, we usually attribute creation to the Father, redemption to the Son and sanctification to the Holy Spirit. Nevertheless, though they are distinct as Persons, neither the Father nor the Son nor the Holy Spirit ever exists in separation or acts in isolation from the other Two Persons of the Godhead. The inner relationship of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is such that each of them is fully God, yet They are not three Gods but one. This is not comprehensible by the human mind. It is a Mystery.

Gospel Reading, John 3: 16-18

Today's Gospel comes from the story of Jesus' encounter with Nicodemus. Jesus speaks about the Father who has sent him (the Son), and after the Last Supper, He speaks about the Holy Spirit Whom he will

2. The Triune God as seen in the Old Testament: Since Yahweh, the God of Israel, was careful to protect His Chosen People from the pagan practice of worshipping several gods, the Old Testament books give only indirect and passing references to the Trinity, and the Jewish rabbis never understood them as references to the Holy Trinity. Genesis 1:26 presents God speaking to Himself: "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness." Genesis 18:2 describes how Yahweh visited Abraham in the appearance of three men, an event that the Russian Orthodox Church celebrates as the "Trinitarian Experience of Abraham." In Genesis 11:7, before punishing the proud builders of the Tower of Babel, God says, "Come, let Us go down among them and confuse their language". These passages imply, rather than state, the doctrine of the Trinity.

3. Clear doctrine of the Trinity in the New Testament.

a) The Annunciation (Luke 1: 26-38), describes how God the Father sent the angel Gabriel to Mary, to announce to her that God, the Holy Spirit, would "overshadow" her, and that God, the Son, would be made flesh in her womb. b) During the baptism of Jesus (Matthew 3: 16-17), the Holy Spirit was shown descending on Jesus in the form of a Dove, while the Voice of God the Father was heard from the clouds. c) John (Chapters 15 through 18) presents the detailed teaching of Jesus on the Persons of the Holy Trinity. d) In the preaching mission given by the risen Lord to the disciples, Jesus commanded them to baptize people "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." (Confer also Matthew 28:19; John 10:30).

Life messages

1. We need to respect ourselves and respect others. Our conviction of the presence of the Triune God within us should help us to esteem ourselves as God's holy dwelling place, behave well in His holy presence, and lead purer and holier lives, practicing acts of justice and charity. This Triune Presence should also encourage us to respect and honor others as "Temples of the Holy Spirit."

2. We need to be aware of God as the Source of our strength and courage. The awareness and conviction of the presence of God within us, gives us the strength to face the manifold problems of life with Christian courage. It was such a conviction that prompted the early Christian martyrs, when taken to their execution, to shout the heroic prayer of faith from the psalms: "The Lord of might is with us, our God is within us, and the God of Jacob is our helper" (Psalm 46).

3. We need to see the Trinity as the model for our Christian families: We are created in love -- to be a community of loving persons, just as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are united in love. From the day of our Baptism, we have belonged to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. How privileged we are to grow up in such a beautiful family! Hence, let us turn to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit in prayer every day. We belong to the family of the Triune God. The love, unity and joy in the relationship among the Father, Son and Holy Spirit should be the supreme model of our relationships within our Christian families. Our families become truly Christian when we live in a relationship of love with God and with others.

4. We are called to become more like the Triune God through all our relationships: We are made in God's image and likeness. Just as God is God only in a Trinitarian relationship, so we can be fully human only as one member of a relationship of three partners. The self needs to be in a horizontal relationship with all other people and in a vertical relationship with God. In that way our life becomes Trinitarian like that of God. Modern society follows the so-called "I-and-I" principle of unbridled individualism and the resulting consumerism. But the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity challenges us to adopt an "I-and-God-and-neighbor" principle. I am a Christian insofar as I live in a relationship of love with God and other people. Like God the Father, we are called upon to be productive and creative persons by contributing to the building up of the fabric of our family, our Church, our community and our nation. Like God the Son, we are called upon to reconcile, to be peacemakers, to put back together that which has been broken, to restore what has been shattered. Like God the Holy Spirit, it is our task to uncover and teach truth and to dispel ignorance. (Trinitarian spirituality:

"The doctrine of the Trinity affirms that it belongs to God's very Nature to be committed to humanity and its history, that God's Covenant with us is irrevocable, that God's face is immutably turned toward us in love, that God's presence to us is utterly reliable and constant.... Trinitarian spirituality is one of solidarity between and among persons. It is a way of living the Gospel attentive to the requirements of justice, understood as rightly ordered relationships between and among persons." Dictionary of Spirituality)

St. Francis Xavier's favorite prayer was: "Most Holy Trinity, Who lives in me, I praise You, I worship You, I adore You and I love You." Let the Son lead us to the Father through the Spirit, to live with the Triune God forever and ever. Amen.

Did You Know? Sacramentum Caritatis - Benedict XVI

"There is a particular need for clarity with regard to the specific functions of the priest. He alone, and no other, as the tradition of the Church attests, presides over the entire eucharistic celebration, from the initial greeting to the final blessing. In virtue of his reception of Holy Orders, he represents Jesus Christ, the head of the Church, and, in a specific way, also the Church herself."

Ten Candles Burning in the Holy of Holies

June 3—June 9

IN MEMORY OF:

Jim & Roseann Bradley; Ava Knaebel;
Afonso Antonio; Barbara O'Gara; Robert Storme;
Ana Freitas & parents; Enrico Passaro;
Anthony Bevilacqua;

FOR INTENTIONS OF:

Kelly Girtin; Andy Gutierrez

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Please Pray for Our Military

Although we pray for all of our military, space does not permit everyone's name to be printed. Please advise when a person below is no longer deployed so we can remove their name from our list. Please contact the parish office if you wish to have the name of someone listed for 4 weeks. As a courtesy please notify the office when the name can be removed or if you wish to have the name continued. Be sure to get the person's permission first! God bless them all & continue to pray for them!

The Gospel today is sometimes called "the Gospel in miniature" because it so concisely sums up the Gospel message. In even more condensed form, "God loved... God gave..." is the paradigm for stewardship --- we give because we love.

Thank you to all who participated in the SEAS Respect Life Committee Mother's Day collection. These donations will be dispersed to our local pro-life organizations, along with the funds collected at the Father's Day masses, June 17 and 18.

Respecting life also includes End-of-Life. The USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) has written a brief and informative brochure concerning how to prepare for end-of-life options. Copies are available at the SEAS Respect Life bulletin board (North entrance of church). During the Saturday, June 10 Respect Life Committee meeting in the Cody Room at 9:30am, we will be taking an in-depth look at this brochure. ALL are welcome - coffee, sweets and fruit always served. Topics to be addressed will be "advance directive" versus Catholic Declaration on Life and Death, designating a health care surrogate, things to do, things to remember and sources of Catholic teaching on all aspects of this topic. We look forward to sharing this knowledge with all parishioners, their family and friends. For further impetus to consider this important facet of our lives, let us pray:

Grant O Lord of Life

That we may savor every season of our lives
as a gift filled with promise of the future.
Grant that we may lovingly accept your will, and place ourselves each day in your merciful hands.

And when the moment of our definitive "passage" comes grant that we may face it with serenity, without regret for what we shall leave behind.

For in meeting you,
after having sought you for so long,
we shall find once more every authentic good which we have known here on earth.

In the company of all who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith and hope.

Mary, Mother of pilgrim humanity, pray for us "now and at the hour of our death."
Keep us ever close to Jesus, your beloved Son and our brother, the Lord of life and glory. Amen
