Renovation and Maintenance Work of the Social Hall and Outreach Building

When we prepared our Campus Improvement Project, Seton Hall Renovation was included as its second phase. However, we began the renovation and maintenance work of the Social Hall in June last year with the painting of the north and west sides of the Hall in time for Bishop Erik Pohlmeier's Deanery Mass on July 27, 2022.

We resumed work on May 1, 2023. To allow proper drainage away from the Hall, we did re-landscaping on the east, north and west sides, for which we had to remove the sidewalk and some trees and bushes. We added an accessible sidewalk for people with disabilities at the north entrance. We replaced the old sprinkler system with a new one, laid sod, and planted bushes and trees. We completed this work by the middle of June.

We still have to do some trim work, signage, parking stops, replacement of gutters (doubling the size and replacing the rotted gutter mounts), and re-landscaping and painting the South side of the Hall. The gutters will be replaced when we do the gutters for the Outreach building in July. The work on the south side of the Hall will be done as soon as possible. We will also soon begin the renovation work of the inside of the Hall.

I am very happy to report that our volunteers did all this renovation and maintenance work of the Hall. These volunteers and others will also help us in completing the rest of the work of the Hall. In April this year, when the Buildings Ministry appealed to the Knights of Columbus and the Men's Club for the landscaping work and to the Ladies Guild for the trees and bushes, the response was overwhelming. Many members came forward to do the work, and it was with the help of these talented volunteers from these groups that we did all this work.

I sincerely thank all those who are involved in this project, especially Ron Cowles, the chairperson of the Building Committee, and Frank Cositore, Crew Chief of the Building Ministry. The following volunteers helped us with the Seton Hall outside work during April-June

Maria Aguiar (Buildings Ministry Project Documentation), Ruben Anastacio (Buildings Ministry Architect; Outreach Subcommittee), Michael Biggers, Dennis Boucher (Buildings Ministry Chair of Outreach Subcommittee), Jim Boyd, Tom Brandt, Juan Carlos, Frank Cositore (Buildings Ministry Crew Chief Seton Hall/Campus), Frank Cositore, Jr., Ron Cowles (Buildings Ministry Chair), Chris Daley, Lonnie Durling (Trees and Shrubs), Mary Goldberg (Trees and Shrubs), Wayne Friday, Rene Fonseca, Liz Fonte (Head of Trees and Shrubs), Liz Foran (Buildings Ministry, Church Business Manager), Pat Fruehan, Wayne Gartman, David Knox, Joe Leahy, Bart Lore, Joe Lupo, Marina Medina (Trees and Shrubs/Photographer), Michael Mahoney, Bob McMahon, Deacon Mike McKenna (Buildings Ministry Chair of Seton Hall Subcommittee), Norm Mumford (Buildings Ministry Paint, Equipment, Time), Mike Mylan, Al Paquepau (Surveyor), Chris Rathmann, Hilda Rausini (Trees and Shrubs), Felipe Rivera, Garcia Rodrego, Manual Sanchez, Jess Sócrates, Luz Sócrates (Trees and Shrubs, Gala), Donnie Stevenson, Don Stahurski, Mike Tennyson, Anthony Terrinoni, Owen Thompson, Jose Ververde (Church Maintenance Supervisor), Romane Venegas, and Deacon Ed Wolf (Buildings Ministry and the Outreach Subcommittee).

Outreach Building

The maintenance and renovation work of the Outreach Building was not originally part of our Campus Improvement Project. However, this building is in need of repairs and renovation. By the grace of God, we received a bequest last year for the amount of $173,600 for Outreach from the estate of Sheila Smith, who was a leader of our Outreach ministry for many years.

We are using this money for the much-needed maintenance and renovation work of the Outreach building. We have already started the job, and when it is completed, there will be more office space and better facilities to preserve food items for people in need. In gratitude for the extraordinary generosity of Sheila Smith, who passed away in 2019, let us remember to keep her in our prayers. May she Rest in Peace!

Obras de Reabilitação e Manutenção do Salão Social e Edifício de Proximidade

Quando preparamos o nosso Projecto de Melhoria do Campus, a Reabilitação do Seton Hall foi incluída como a segunda fase. No entanto, iniciamos as obras de reabilitação e manutenção do Salão Social em Junho do ano passado com a pintura dos lados Norte e Oeste do Salão a tempo da missa do Bispo Erik Pohlmeier, em 27 de Julho de 2022.

Retomamos os trabalhos no dia 1 de Maio de 2023. Para permitir a drenagem adequada longe do Hall, fizemos nova jardinagem nos lados Leste, Norte e Oeste, para o qual tivemos que remover a calçada e algumas árvores e arbustos. Adicionamos uma calçada acessível para pessoas deficientes na entrada Norte. Substituímos o antigo sistema de irrigação por um novo, colocamos relva, plantamos arbustos e árvores. Concluimos este trabalho em meados de Junho.

Ainda temos que fazer alguns trabalhos de acabamento, sinalização, paragem de estacionamento, substituição de caleiras (dobrando o tamanho e substituindo os suportes apodrecidos), e re-jardinagem e pintura do lado Sul do Hall. As caleiras serão substituídas quando instalarmos as caleiras para o edifício Outreach, em Julho. Os trabalhos no lado Sul do Salão serão concluídos o mais rapidamente possível. Em breve daremos também início às obras de renovação do interior do Hall.

Fico muito contente em informar que os nossos voluntários fizeram todo esse trabalho de renovação e manutenção do Hall. Estes voluntários e outros também nos ajudarão a completar o resto do trabalho do Hall. Em Abril deste ano, quando o Ministério dos Edifícios apelou aos Knights of Columbus e ao Men's Club para o trabalho de jardinagem e ao Ladies Guild para as árvores e arbustos, a resposta foi incrível. Muitos membros apresentaram-se para fazer o trabalho, e foi com a ajuda desses talentosos voluntários destes grupos que fizemos todo esse trabalho.

Agradeço sinceramente a todos os que estão envolvidos neste projecto, especialmente a Ron Cowles, o presidente do Building Committee, e Frank Cositore, Crew Chief of the Building Ministry. Os seguintes voluntários ajudaram-nos no Seton Hall nos trabalhos de fora durante Abril-Junho de 2023.

Edifício Outreach

Originalmente o trabalho de manutenção e renovação do Edifício de Outreach não fazia parte do nosso Projecto de Renovação do Campus. No entanto, este edifício está a necessitar de reparações e renovações. Pela graça de Deus, recebemos uma doação no ano passado no valor de $173,600 para Outreach da fortuna pessoal de Sheila Smith, que foi líder do nosso ministério de Outreach por muitos anos.

Estamos a utilizar este dinheiro para as tão necessárias obras de manutenção e renovação do edifício Outreach. Já iniciámos o trabalho e, quando estiver concluído, haverá mais espaço para escritórios e melhores instalações para preservar os alimentos para as pessoas necessitadas. Em gratidão pela extraordinária generosidade de Sheila Smith, que faleceu em 2019, lembremo-nos de mantê-la nas nossas orações. Que ela descanse em paz!

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time, 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a; Romans 6:3-4, 8-11; Mathew 10:37-42

Hospitality and Generosity in Giving

Introduction

The common theme of today's readings is the work God gives us to do as the followers of Jesus: to love God and our brothers and sisters through hospitality, generosity, commitment, and charity. They also remind us of the sacrifice demanded of Jesus' disciples and the suffering they will endure for their Faith when they bear witness to him.

First Reading, 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

In our first reading, we see, in Elijah's welcome by a childless woman and her husband who lived in Shunem, a radical illustration of all four works. The woman recognized the holiness of Elisha. She showed him reverence and hospitality by inviting him to dine with her and her husband and by setting aside and furnishing an upper room of her house for the prophet to occupy whenever he should come to town. In grateful response, Elisha promised her, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son." The promise was fulfilled by God.

Second Reading, Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

The second reading, taken from Paul's letter to the Romans, reminds the Roman Christians, and us, that by Baptism we have been baptized into Jesus' death, buried with him, and now look forward to resurrection with him (Romans 6:5). As Jesus died to sin, we, too, must be dead to sin and "live for God in Christ Jesus." Since Baptism is our entrée into this new life in which we are made part of the Body of Christ and Christ is truly present in us, the one who welcomes us welcomes Christ and becomes eligible for a reward. Thus, since those who care for the followers of Jesus are caring for Jesus himself, those who show hospitality to any one of them are eligible for a reward.

Gospel Reading, Mathew 10:37-42

Today's Gospel lesson concludes Jesus' great "missionary discourse" in which he instructs his twelve disciples on the cost and the reward of the commitment required of being a disciple. The first half of these sayings of Jesus details the behavior expected of the disciples, and the second half speaks of the behavior expected of others toward the disciples. Even Jesus' shameful death on the cross is not too high a price to pay if one is to be a true disciple because the reward is so great. Jesus assures his disciples that whoever shows them hospitality will be blessed. Those who receive Jesus receive the One who sent him. So, too, those who help the "little ones" (messengers) will be amply rewarded.

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me...." These words may sound a bit extreme, since family comes first for most of us.

1. What Jesus means is that all loyalties must give place to loyalty to God. The wants of any person or any group of people (e.g. a family), cannot be met by trampling on or denying the rights and needs of others. If members of one's family act unjustly, one must, in conscience, separate oneself from them. In other words, one cannot condone immoral practices even by members of one's family. Jesus clearly is not attacking family life. He is giving a warning to his disciples of the conflicts and misunderstandings they will experience through their living out the word and thus becoming prophets, proclaiming God's Will and living presence among His people through their own lives.

2. These words of Jesus can have another meaning. All those who become followers of Jesus belong to a new family. It is a family where every single person, including relatives, friends and even strangers are truly my brothers and sisters. We become part of a larger family to whom we also have responsibilities. Jesus means that there will be times when we will have to give more love and compassion to the hungry, the sick, those in prison, the social outcasts, the unemployed or the unemployable, the handicapped, and the lonely than to the members of our own family. In other words, Jesus is not speaking against the family, but rather reminding us that we are part of a larger family of our fellow Christians.

We need to be ready to take up our cross and lose our life for Christ: In ancient Palestine, the cross had a terrible meaning. Crucifixion was a vicious way of executing people, and it was reserved only for those who were not Roman citizens. Only the worst criminals were crucified. The Jews who heard Jesus' call for taking up one's cross in order to follow him must have been horrified. Yet, that is what Christ wants from his disciples. The cross stands for unconditional forgiveness, the total emptying of ourselves of our wants and needs for the sake of another, and the courageous, consistent choosing to do what is right and just. The main paradox of the Christian life is that we must lose life in order to find Life, and we must die to ourselves in order to rise again. ("Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it."). We live in a world where "finding their lives" is the paramount ambition of the majority of people. But Jesus tells us very clearly that this should not be our main concern. What he asks of us is that we should "lose this life," which means that we must stop living for ourselves alone. We must forget our own security and work toward the security of others. We must learn to take our own health a bit less seriously, in order to care for those who are sick and hungry. We must stop polluting the environment, so that the rest of the world will have clean air to breathe. All these things fall into place when we lose ourselves in caring for others.

We owe hospitality to strangers in Jesus' name ("offering a cup of cold water..."): For the Jews, receiving a person's representative or messenger was the same as receiving the person himself. Hence, receiving a man of God who teaches God's truth was considered equivalent to receiving God Himself. The four main links in the chain of salvation are i) God who sent Jesus with His message, ii) Jesus who preached the "Good News," iii) the human messenger who preaches Jesus' message through words and life, and iv), the believer who welcomes the message and the messengers. Giving hospitality to a preacher or a believer is the same as welcoming Jesus Himself. This is why welcoming others is given such high priority in the New Testament, and why it is a tradition which still lives on in many parts of the Church today. The basis of all hospitality is that we all belong to God's family, and that every person is our brother or sister. In the game of life, while we would prefer to be the quarterback -- the hero -- Jesus' heart leans toward the water-boy or water-girl. Hence, providing a cup of water is a valid vocation.

Materialism and consumerism dominate our lives and turn our homes into isolated fortresses with iron gates, intruder alarms, and surveillance cameras. Society believes in competition, power, influence and success. Jesus' argument is that when we work hard to ensure that everyone has enough, there will be enough for us, too. Hence, the questions we should ask are, "Am I living my life at the expense of others?" "Am I trying to live in solidarity with others?" and "Am I aware of people in my area who are in real need?" In the words of Mother Teresa, "The Gospel is written on your fingers." Holding up her fingers, one at a time, she accented each word: "You-Did-It-To-Me." Mother Teresa then added: "At the end of your life, your five fingers will either excuse you or accuse you of doing it unto the least of these."

Reward promised to preachers and helpers. Today's Gospel lesson implies that there might be differing rewards for prophets, righteous persons, and little ones -- and differing rewards for those who receive prophets, righteous persons, and little ones. The Good News is that the modesty of our circumstances does not limit our potential rewards. We don't have to be a prophet to receive a prophet's reward--we have only to receive a prophet. We don't have to be a great saint to receive a great saint's reward--we have only to show hospitality to such a saint. The smallest gift to the littlest disciple brings a certain reward. Just as God knows and cares about every hair of our heads, so too, He knows about our generous acts in behalf of the faithful. Such gifts are counted as gifts to Jesus -- and gifts to Jesus are counted as gifts to the Father. Another bit of Good News is that, as we are engaged in the Lord's work, those who help us are also promised a reward. That is true whether we are clergy or lay people, preachers or janitors. We may not find it comfortable to be on the receiving end rather than the giving end of a generous, loving exchange, but the Lord has ordained that our humble, grateful receiving becomes a blessing for the giver.

Life messages

1. We need to be hospitable: Hospitality means encountering the hidden presence of God in others, usually where we least expect to find Him, and serving Him there in the loving service we give to the person. The virtue of hospitality is the virtue of recognizing the presence of God in others and nourishing this presence. We, as a community, are to look for the opportunities to be hospitable-- and, of course, there are many ways of offering hospitality. Maybe we offer hospitality simply by offering a stranger a kind word or a smile. When we live in such a busy and hectic world, we tend to brush off people who need help. A kind smile or a "hello" to someone waiting with us in a grocery line may be the only kindness that person encounters all day.

2. We become fully alive as Christians through the generous giving of ourselves.

What is more important than sending checks for charitable causes is giving of ourselves to people, first, in the way we think about them, for from that spring will flow the ways we speak to them and about them, forgive their failings, encourage them, show them respect, console them, and offer them help. Such generosity reflects warmth radiating from the very love of God

Anecdote

(Biblical reason why preachers may use anecdotes in their homilies? Mt 13: 34: All this Jesus said to the crowds in parables; indeed, he said nothing to them without a parable).

Paid in full for one glass of milk: The special joy of nature-loving boy Howard Kelly was hiking great distances and studying animals in the wild. On a walking trip, up through Northern Pennsylvania one spring, young Kelly stopped by a small farmhouse for a drink of cool spring water. A little girl answered his knock at the door, and instead of water, she brought him a glass of fresh milk. He thanked her profusely and went on his way. After years of medical studies, he became Dr. Kelly. Dr. Howard Kelly (1858-1943) was a distinguished physician who was one of the four founding doctors of Johns Hopkins, the first medical research university in the U.S. and, arguably, one of the finest hospitals anywhere.

In 1895, he established in that school the department of Gynecology and Obstetrics. Over the course of his career, Doctor Kelly advanced the sciences of gynecology and surgery, both as a teacher and as a practitioner. Some years later, that same little girl from Northern Pennsylvania who had given him that glass of milk years ago, came to him for an operation. Just before she left for home, fearful of a huge bill, her bill was brought into the room and across its face was written in a bold hand, "Paid in full for one glass of milk." That was Dr. Kelly's style of showing gratitude and hospitality. While he charged the rich patients substantial fees, he provided his services free-of-charge to the less fortunate. By his conservative estimate, in 75% of his cases he neither sought nor received a fee. Today's Scriptures challenge us to practice hospitality, seeing Christ in others.

Did You Know?
Sacramentum Caritatis - Benedict XVI

The Eucharist is the sacrament of communion between brothers and sisters who allow themselves to be reconciled in Christ, who made of Jews and pagans one people, tearing down the wall of hostility which divided them (cf. Eph 2:14). Only this constant impulse towards reconciliation enables us to partake worthily of the Body and Blood of Christ.

Ten Candles Burning in the Holy of Holies

June 30-July 7

IN MEMORY OF:

Jim & Roseann Bradley; Luis Quintero; Isabel Ortiz;
Chuck Sease; Barbara O'Gara; Anita Garrett;
Jose & Emilia Bairos; Sr. Maria da Gloria Chaves

FOR INTENTIONS OF:

Kelly Girtin; Carlo Gutierrez

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Please Pray for Our Military

Although we pray for all of our military, space does not permit everyone's name to be printed. Please advise when a person below is no longer deployed so we can remove their name from our list. Please contact the parish office if you wish to have the name of someone listed for 4 weeks. As a courtesy please notify the office when the name can be removed or if you wish to have the name continued. Be sure to get the person's permission first! God bless them all & continue to pray for them!

Both the first reading and the Gospel today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most visible example of using one's time and talents to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just "a cup of cold water" to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded.

The Secular Franciscans meet monthly on the first Saturday of the month at 9:30 in the Cody Room. If you are interested in learning more about the Secular Franciscans, please join us. Please call Pam Cowles 386-523-7152 for more information.

THANK YOU to all who generously contributed to the Father's Day collection the week-end of June 17/18. These funds will be distributed to our local pro-life agencies, including Alpha Women's Center and the St. Gerard Campus. Many of you were unable to donate due to the rising cost of living - it is understandable. The most important thing we can do is PRAY.

Six days a week abortions are being performed at the three (3) facilities in Jacksonville. Could you say one meaningful Our Father that these parents will choose LIFE. Young parents are visiting our pregnancy centers for pregnancy tests and ultrasounds. We can pray daily that these centers can offer the FREE services and material items needed for them to choose LIFE. Maybe you can join the Prayer Warriors at Alpha Women's Center (applications in bassinette in Gathering Area) for a monthly list of current prayer requests. The Director follows up with further happenings.

Another wonderful way to be pro-life is to donate "no longer needed" items or purchase items from the Alpha Thrift Store on Route 100. These funds are used for the financial needs of the Center.

Bottom line - PRAY - we can all do that.

THANK YOU to all who generously place items (diapers, new and gently used clothing and toys) in the bassinette in the Gathering Area. A special THANK YOU for those beautifully hand-crafted blankets to be donated to St. Gerard's Campus (have already been delivered). We are blessed to have a pastor who gives us this opportunity. The current "wish list" for Alpha is in last week's bulletin.

Stand for Life on Friday, July 7 from 4-5 pm in front of SEAS. Bring a chair, umbrella, water and rosary beads. Come and pray the rosary and witness to LIFE right here at SEAS. Sometimes just seeing a pro-life sign will encourage a parent to choose LIFE.
